THURSDAY, MARCH, 14, 1878

The Superior Court in Burke, is now in session, His Honor Judge Cloud presiding. The notorious wife and child murderer's case, Secrest, of Union, will come up for trial, to which more general interest attaches than to any other on the istic charge on Monday, a report of which appears in the Charlotte Observer of yesthe following:

"He flattered the jury by telling them the county commissioners had endorsed them as good and law abiding men. "Now," continued his honor, "I am going to tell you men over here in Burke the same thing I told them over thar in Wilkes, and that is ; if you good and law abiding men don't stand up and defend the law by panishing crime and bringing the had men to punishment, you'll all go to the devil together -- to the devil together; same as them follows over in Wilkes -over in Wilkes."

Providence Township .- Few neighborhods comprise a larger number of working men and women than Providence distillery at the Grupy Copper Mine, six township. A ride last week through a miles east of this place. They are fixed portion of it impressed us with the solid up in accordance with the requisitions of character of its population. The people of Union (Lutheran) church are about completing their new church building. It is about 40x70 feet with a gallery in one end. It is a handsome brick building, The workmanship is plain but excellent, and mostly done by the members of the congregation as they could spare the time from their farms to work on it. Union is one of the oldest churches in the county. The lands (127 acres) on which it is situated was donated for the purpose by the late Mr. Geo. Fisher. The cemetery is walled in with stone, and although the walls begin to show the effects of time, it will not be long before the working people who worship there will repair them,

DR, GRISSOM RETAINED.

The Directors of the Insane Asylum were in Session at Raleigh last week, and among other subjects which came before them was the question of retaining Dr. Grissom as Superintendent of the Institution. They reached the conclusion that they had no right to turn him out,-if they were so disposed, and he was therefore retained. Dr. Grissom is fully competent to discharge the duties of the office and has not been charged with unfaithfulness; it is not a political office and the State has therefore nothing to gain by a change,

Revival in Albemarle. - A most interest ng religious meeting has been going on in Albemarle, Stanly county, for more than two weeks, under the pastoral labors of the Rev, Ira T, Wyche, assisted by the Rev. M. Foy, of Stanly circuit, and some visiting ministers from other sections. There have been 23 or 24 conversions, among them several prominent citizens-Dr. R. Anderson, J. O. Ross, Esq., S. J. Pemberton, Esq., J. M. Redwine, C. S. C. and Mr, H, W, Spinks-all men of worth and influence. The good work is still going on, and indications point to other triumphs of grace,

Condemned .- The press of the State, se far as they have spoken out on the sub ject, condemn the ruling of the Supreme Court in the case of Miller ys, Miller, which went up from this county, Even that venerable old map, E. J. HALE, Esq., now living in New York, than whom a truer North Carolinian never breathed, (though he may not be a native), could not or would not let this case pass with out his condemnation. It is a blot on the Fupreme Court of the State. A few more decisions like this and the Driver case will bring the Supreme Bench into public

The Worley Murder .- The facts in the case of the recent double murder in Wayne county, of Worley and his wife, are coming out, and from present appearances, three men (negroes) are deeply implicated in its horrors, and will projubly all be hung for it. Que other man, now in jail at Goldsboro', has professed to know all about it, and undertakes to give the particulars. He will no doubt in made a witness against his confederates in crime, and in that way may esrape the penalty due him as well as to ;hem.

THE WAR TROUBEES.

LONDON, March 11 .- The two thousand attendants on the peace demonstration at Hyde Park were bustled about and finally ejected by the disorderly mob. Sticks the hospitals. The crowd cheered Beaconsfield and cheered and hissed before Gladstone's house. Gladstone and wife on their way to church were compelled to take refuge in a friend's house, whence SHOES, &c., &c., they were escorted by the police, The Duke of Tiek, mistaken for Count Schouvaloff, the Russian ambassador, was insulted and hustled by the mob.

The Standard states that seven hundred Circassians perished on the steamer Sphinx, burned near Cape Elia.

The Times publishes the following, dated St. Petersbury, Sunday: "The general impression produced by the Czar's remarks at this reception to-day of the diplomatic corps, is decidedly pacific."

VIENNA, March 11 .- The Political Correspondence asserts that if Russia persists | Mauney & Ross. in not submitting the whole treaty to the congress, war is certain.

London, March 11 .- The Times' Vienna disputch states that Count Andrassy, antee of the Hungarian delegation disclaimed the intention of occupying or annexing Bosnia, but did not deny that events might cause an alteration of the policy. The general impression is that the situation is more re-assuring.
