

THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 1879.

There are said to be 4,000 women, Post Masters in the United States.

Nevada licenses gambling at $75 a month. She stands alone on this subject.

The Wilmington Star says the steamer Fire ran down and captured a deer which was found floating in the river below the city.

Congress enters upon general business, which will protract the session indefinitely.

Walter Watson, hung at Highland, Indiana, Friday last, long young wife whose devotion to him may be described as sublimely beautiful and touching.

An attempt was made on the Russian Emperor's life Sunday, while he was walking near the Imperial Palace. Five shots were fired at him, but none struck him. The assassin was arrested.

The Boston Herald says—"The Grant movement is the most ridiculous political spectacle since the war."

The Louisiana negro exodus is the most naked movement for political ends.

Wilmington Star: D. J. Williams, merchant, at Laurensburg, was shot in the head and killed, Saturday evening last while closing up his store, by a jail bird named Henry Oglesby. He is in jail, great indignation among the people.

Elizabeth Patterson Bonaparte, wife of Jerome Bonaparte, youngest brother of the great Napoleon, recently died in Baltimore at the advanced age of 90 years. Besides the memories that her name recalls, she was in many respects a remarkable woman.

According to the Danville Times there is all active rivalry between Lynchburg, Danville, Durham and Winston, on the subject of railroads. They are all live towns and afraid of each other. But the Danville Times says Danville is playing a card which will win the stakes. Mocksville holds a pretty good hand and it is bound to count where she plays it.

W. C. Teague, a worthless white man of Taylorsville, N. C., without provocation and without excuse, shot and killed Anderson Denny, a negro banjo player, in the streets of that village, last Saturday. The crime was the work of a madman, witnessed by a number of citizens who immediately arrested him, and will no doubt help to hang him.

The State Board of Medical Examiners, established by law in 1858-'59, will meet in Greensboro, Monday, 19th May, 1879, for the purpose of examining physicians and granting them license to practice. Without such examination and license no physician who has commenced practice in this State since 1858-'59, can collect his medical bills, or be recognized as a lawful practitioner.

NEBRASKA'S EXTRAVAGANT GOVERNMENT.—The Omaha Herald's statement of the appropriations made by the last Nebraska Legislature gives the total as $760,679.33, or $290,679.33 more than can be raised by taxation under any circumstances, and gently remarks that "born in fraud, Nebraska had scarcely put on her garments of statehood before the riot in robbery began, and still continues." It may be mentioned that the maximum estimates made of the cost of a State's government for Nebraska, while it was still a territory was but $30,000 a year.

The University-Normal School, fostered by the State, will continue to be under the charge of trained experts. It will open this year on the 17th of June, and continue six weeks. Tuition free. Sleeping apartments for male students also free if they will furnish their own bedding. Board in private families can be had at $10 per month. Facilities afforded those cooking for themselves if they take their own utensils. Pecuniary aid will be given those who are unable to pay their own expenses, if application be made to President Battle, at Chapel Hill, before the 1st of June.—This is a most liberal provision for those who wish to qualify themselves for the art of successful school teaching, and no one who expects to make that his business should fail to improve it.

INFERIOR COURT.—This body was in the midst of its business when our last issue was issued. There were about 65 cases on the docket; three f. and a. bastards and larceny making up the remainder, with two or three exceptions. The Court will clear the docket, leaving a few cases to go over in the afternoon. The Magistrates of the county will elect a new Court (or re-elect the present one), the first Monday in August. We believe the present Court—F. E. Shober, chairman, W. R. Prater and John L. Sloan—have discharged their duty to public satisfaction. Mr. Shober's absence makes a vacancy, which it will not be necessary to fill before the regular election in August.

THE NEGROES IN KANSAS.—The party who deceived the poor negroes of Louisiana and Mississippi, and induced them to break up and move to Kansas, inflicted upon them the horrors of destitution, sickness and starvation. It was a stupendous piece of wickedness, and the guilty party ought to be placed into the hands of the people whom they have outraged to be dealt with by them as they deserve. Hanging is too good for them. Here is the secret circular which deceived the negroes, and brought upon them suffering and ruin.

(Strictly Private.) ATTENTION COLORED MEN, OFFICE COLORED COLONIZATION SOCIETY, TOPEKA, KAN., Feb. 2, 1879.

Your brethren and friends throughout the North have observed with painful solicitude the outrages heaped upon you by your rebel oppressors, and are doing all they can to alleviate your miseries and provide for your future happiness and prosperity. President Hayes, by his iniquitous Southern policy, has deserted you, while the Democrats, who now have the control of Congress, will seek to re-enslave you if you remain in the South, and to protect you from their designs, the colonization society has been organized by the Government to provide land for each head of a family, which will be given in tracts of 160 acres gratuitously. Kansas is located in the best portion of Kansas in close proximity to Topeka, and is very productive. Here there is no distinction in society, all are on an equality. Leave the land of oppression and come to free Kansas.

Show this circular to five colored men, and keep its contents a secret.

THE SECRET CASE.—There is much complaint among the newspapers growing out of the recent decision of the Supreme Court granting a new trial to Hoke C. Secret, the wife and child murderer. The point upon which the case was argued back was totally immaterial, yet for the sake of a new trial more than a hundred witnesses are compelled to again undergo long journeys, heavy expense and great inconvenience, and another addition is to be made to the already heavy bill of cost with which Burke is saddled. All this, however, is the least part of the just complaint against all this delay. The blood of a murdered woman and child are crying aloud for vengeance and outraged justice is demanding the punishment of this most foul crime. The end, however, is not yet, and not yet even in sight. The next term of McDowell Court, which occurs in the fall, will bring about a continuance or a change of venue in all probability. This will gain six months time for the criminal. If he is again tried next spring, there will be another appeal to the Supreme Court and no one can tell but there may be granted another new trial. The defendant is alleged to have friends and relatives with means which they are willing to spend in his behalf, and if so justice may be baffled indefinitely and defeated in the end.

Oh, the laws are fearfully abused when press and people have to openly demand that justice which the law should execute speedily and without remission, and we regret what we have said more than once before, that we have fallen upon evil times when judicial methods are in such contempt that the people are forced to believe (as they are now rapidly coming to believe) that there is no certainty of the punishment of notorious criminals except by that "species of wild justice" administered by Judge Lynch.—Charlotte Observer.

We cry for no man's blood, but the vindication of law is a more serious matter. The Observer has spoken truthfully. It is a fearful state of things when the people lose confidence in the justice and certainty of the law, and when the money or the friends of criminal can hinder or turn aside its just demands.

For the Watchman.

Municipal Matters. Mr. Editor: The time rapidly approaches for the choice of town officers—mayor and commissioners—for the coming year. The importance of selecting proper men to administer the affairs of our town is generally understood. Intelligent, sober, honest, virtuous men should be put forward—and none others. There are several democratic aspirants in the field for mayor, and the usual button-holing, wire-pulling, etc., is going on at a lively rate. But a novel thing is a catch-vote circular recently circulated by one of these aspirants, and it is difficult to say which is the more extraordinary, the issuing of such a document, or its remarkable contents. In this circular a platform representing the individual opinions—they can never amount to more than this—of the would-be mayor, is set forth, and some of the plans of this platform will bear (?) handling.

One plank favors free burial in our cemeteries. Under the present system $3 and $5 are charged respectively for digging small and large graves, and the town buries all paupers. This charge is made to help defray the expense of a section. Why remove this charge from those who, in the great majority of cases, are well able to pay it, and increase the public taxes in the hire of a sexton? To say nothing of the dilapidation that must ensue in these graveyards under the proposed change.

Another plank favors the nuisance of so-called public wells. The taxing of the public property put on the great majority of cases, are well able to pay it, and increase the public taxes in the hire of a sexton? To say nothing of the dilapidation that must ensue in these graveyards under the proposed change.

Another plank calls for a graded school. Every good citizen wishes we had one, but nothing can be done without a special act of the Legislature.

But the most absurdly contradictory plank calls for low taxes and economical expenditures. What! Tax the town two or three hundred dollars more to dig graves free, tax the people five or six hundred dollars to keep up wells for individuals—far less than one-eighth of our citizens pay, and charge some for houses and schools, and talk of economy! Bosh.

It is then clearly intimated that the streets need the attention of some one more competent to the task than all former officers. And winds up with an attack on the convention—calling it a dodge by which weak men are forced on an unwilling people. This cry of late has become very fashionable with weak men, who threaten the party with division and defeat for selfish ends. In view of the fact that the next mayor of Salisbury may be a Republican, as well as the importance of being organized for the grand fight of '80, it is necessary that a convention be held and candidates properly put on the ticket, and the interests of the town and the Democratic party at heart attend the convention at the Courthouse Friday night, 18th.

The Altered Motto. BY REV. THEODORE MONOD.

O! the bitter shame and sorrow, That a time could ever be When I let the Saviour's pity Plead in vain, and proudly answered, "All of self, and none of Thee."

Yet He found me—I beheld Him Bleeding on the cursed tree: Heard His cry, "Forgive them, Father!" And my wretched heart said faintly, "Some of self, and some of Thee."

Day by day His tender mercy, Healing, helping, full and free, Sweet and strong, and ah, so patient! Brought me lower, while I whispered, "Loss of self, and more of Thee."

Higher than the highest heavens, Deeper than the deepest sea, Lord, thy love at last hath conquered; Grant me now my soul's desire, "None of self, and all of Thee."

The Democratic majority in Congress don't seem to hurt Government finances, however much bad men and speculating politicians may be disappointed. The balance of the $400,000,000 of 4 per cent U. S. Bonds ($40,000,000) were all sold last week to the Bank of Commerce of New York at one bid. That shows the people have confidence in the Government under Democratic rule in the two Houses of Congress.—Charlotte Democrat.

"A stitch in time saves nine." A bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will often save a large doctor's bill. Keep it handy, for it costs only 25 cents.
