STATE EXPOSITION.

The Raleigh Chronicle regards the beginning of a new and highly promising movement on the part of business men of that city to have a grand State Exposition at Raleigh next year.

BURGLARIES IN STATESVILLE.—We learn from a citizen of Statesville, here on Monday, that that town was visited last Saturday night by burglars who did up one street pretty effectually, having entered something less than a dozen houses.

STRANGE FIND.—A chap who had a fancy for brandy and had heard a tradition to the effect that when General Taylor evacuated Laredo, Mexico, during the Mexican war, there was a quantity of brandy buried in the vicinity of their encampment, went out recently to search for it; and strange to say, actually found ten two gallon jugs filled with 37 year old brandy.

The 75th meridian of time is likely to become the standard for all the railroads in the northern and eastern States.

AFRAID OF A RESCUE.—A telegram dated at Washington, Nov. 9th, says, Gen. Longstreet, United States Marshal, has made a requisition on the depart of justice for authority to appoint an additional force of guards to accompany the recently convicted Klu Klux prisoners from Atlanta, Ga., to the Albany, N. Y. Penitentiary, where they are to be confined.

FIRE.—There was a distressing loss of property at Shenandoah, Pa., on the 13th, and the loss of life and personal injuries, though not numerous, were the cause of great sorrow.

AFTER 24 YEARS.—The Morganton Mountaineer relates the circumstances of the murder of John McCall, in Burke county, by a man named John Twigg, in 1859.

There was a terrible gale about Toronto, in Canada, on the night of the 11th instant. Church spires and chimneys were blown down, mills and houses unroofed, fences prostrated, trees torn up, &c., &c.

Dr. Zukertort, the German champion chess player, played simultaneously 12 games, blindfold, Saturday evening at the rooms of the Manhattan Chess Club, N. Y.

Grinner's Steam Tannery, in Hickory, as we learn from the Piedmont Press, is a very considerable establishment, occupying a building nearly 100 feet long and two stories high.

Rev. J. N. H. Sumner and Rev. A. Crawford were received from Concord Presbytery as members of Orange Presbytery, Nov. 8th.

INSURRECTION.—There was quite a big excitement at Boykins, Va., on the 9th, growing out of a rumored insurrectionary movement on the part of the negroes.

A similar alarm broke out in Southampton county, which led to similar action on the part of the whites, with precisely similar results—nothing of a frightful nature discovered.

Southampton county was the scene of a tremendous negro insurrection scene in the year 1832 or '33. At that time we had neither railroads nor telegraphs. The news was carried by mounted messengers, who travelled far ahead of mail coaches and post boys.

Butler Satisfied.—A characteristic letter from the Tecksbury Statesman.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 8.—The Commercial Gazette this evening telegraphed General B. F. Butler for his views on the result in Massachusetts and asking for his programme for the future.

The other day a grocer sold an old farmer a gallon of tar through mistake for molasses. After discovering the mistake he waited to hear some complaint, but hearing none, wrote to the old fellow.

The Democratic people without regard to class or condition should turn out to their township conventions next year and have as a sign from the humblest to the highest, as to who should represent them and all agree to abide by the choice of the majority fairly and freely polled.

Mr. Tilden is accused now of bringing about the defeat of Butler in Massachusetts for the simple reason that he was anxious to remove from the field of Presidential candidates, the singular man that nobody has discovered the hand of Mr. Tilden in the trouble between France and China, and yet it is said that he keeps two agents in Tongkin and is in regular correspondence with the Colonel who commands the Black Flags.

THE LAST OF THE LATE MIDLAND.—We see it stated that an injunction was granted in New York, by Judge Barrett in the Supreme Court, enjoining the suit brought by W. E. Denny, as treasurer of the Midland North Carolina Railroad Company, against Wm. J. Best, its president, restraining the sheriff from parting with the possession of certain books of the company which it is alleged Best illegally obtained and retained possession of until they passed into the custody of the sheriff.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—The weather turned intensely cold last night, and a fierce gale prevailed all over the Northern States and Canada, cold and wind being particularly severe on the lakes.

Elizabeth City Falcon, (Dem.) This protective tariff which is so dear to Judge Pool cost the people of this country last year at least $1,250,000, or say $25 for each man, woman and child in the United States.

As a further, Ayer's Sarsaparilla acts directly and promptly. A single bottle will prove its merit, many thousands of people are yearly saved from dangerous fevers by the exercise of a single course in properly cleansing the system by the use of this remedy.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY FAIR.—The Fayetteville Observer, extra, of the 9th instant, gives an interesting account of the Fair, of which, we can only present the following:

This has been a day in the history of the Cumberland County Fair, of which the Society and especially its Managers may be proud.

ALBANY, Nov. 8.—The Evening Journal says Gen. Carr's majority is over 19,000, and there is little doubt that the Democratic candidates for the remaining offices are elected by majorities ranging between 10,000 and 14,000.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 8.—The Mercury says that the dividend to the creditors of Morris Langer, cotton broker will be very small.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—J. F. Allen, deputy collector of internal revenue, reports to the commissioner that he has just returned to Greensboro, N. C., from a raid through the counties of Randolph, Montgomery, Moore and Chatham where he captured 6 blockade distilleries and destroyed 7,000 gallons of beer.

WHOLESALE EMMIGRATION.—A large party of people from Rowan county passed through the city night before last, en route to Dallas, Texas, where they go to locate. They passed through in a special car that was attached to the train as it arrived at China Grove.

First Presbyterian Church Steeple.—The architect employed by the building committee of the First Presbyterian church, has completed his drawings for the new steeple and the design has been accepted.

THE DANVILLE RIOT.—DANVILLE, VA., Nov. 10.—At a large meeting of citizens held this morning resolutions were offered and adopted setting forth that in view of the gross mis-statements concerning the riot of the 3rd inst., which are being circulated through portions of the press, it is deemed advisable to appoint a committee of forty who shall inquire into all the facts and prepare for publication a true and full statement of the causes and circumstances leading to the disturbance, and also a statement of the conduct of the white people from the occurrence of the riot to the closing of polls on the 6th inst.

Savannah News: It would be interesting to compare the number of people in England who have been killed by dynamite explosions with the number who have suffered by explosions of gas in the coal pits.

ALBANY, Nov. 8.—The Evening Journal says Gen. Carr's majority is over 19,000, and there is little doubt that the Democratic candidates for the remaining offices are elected by majorities ranging between 10,000 and 14,000.

THE OTHER DAY A GROCER SOLD AN OLD FARMER A GALLON OF TAR THROUGH MISTAKE FOR MOLASSES. AFTER DISCOVERING THE MISTAKE HE WAITED TO HEAR SOME COMPLAINT, BUT HEARING NONE, WROTE TO THE OLD FELLOW.

THE DEMOCRATIC PEOPLE WITHOUT REGARD TO CLASS OR CONDITION SHOULD TURN OUT TO THEIR TOWNSHIP CONVENTIONS NEXT YEAR AND HAVE AS A SIGN FROM THE HUMBLEST TO THE HIGHEST, AS TO WHO SHOULD REPRESENT THEM AND ALL AGREE TO ABIDE BY THE CHOICE OF THE MAJORITY FAIRLY AND FREELY POLLED.

MR. TILDEN IS ACCUSED NOW OF BRINGING ABOUT THE DEFEAT OF BUTLER IN MASSACHUSETTS FOR THE SIMPLE REASON THAT HE WAS ANXIOUS TO REMOVE FROM THE FIELD OF PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES, THE SINGULAR MAN THAT NOBODY HAS DISCOVERED THE HAND OF MR. TILDEN IN THE TROUBLE BETWEEN FRANCE AND CHINA, AND YET IT IS SAID THAT HE KEEPS TWO AGENTS IN TONGKIN AND IS IN REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE WITH THE COLONEL WHO COMMANDS THE BLACK FLAGS.
