Major Down the new Collector for the 6th district, will enter the office, says the observer, with a pruning knife in hand. He declares his aim shall be to administer the office with close regard to the convenience and welfare of the people at large and without regard to the interests of towns. He may establish brauch offices in different parts of the District, if not forbidden by the law, and shall endeavor to perform the work as the law the Newberne postoffice is cited. A nerequires.

Territorial Governors it is said will hereafter be selected from amonog the citizens of the respective Territories in which they are to serve. The republican Presidents have pursued a different Democrat who is posted on the civil sercourse, and without regard to the will of the people to be ruled over, have sent them Governors from the States. It is pleasant to learn that President Cleveland discerns in this practice a lack of proper regard for the will of the people. In other words, that his democratic principles will dictate a better practice.

A revival meeting in the Methodist church at Waynesville, N. C., closed on the 25th with 44 conversions.

The editor of the Waynesville News, from which source we quote, lashes the anmanly people of his town for sitting in the end of church pews and compelling those who wish to enter to crowd pass them to get to the vacant seats beyond. He thinks people who are first to enterpews ought to go back to the wall so that ton, D C. Sir: We being among the those who come late would not be compelled to crowd pass them. Good sense.
