When Gov. Lowrey of Mississippi was in this city, some time ago, says the Washington Post, he very cleverly took in a few friends with whom he sat one evening in a friendly game of draw. The governor and a party of ladies and gentlemen were being entertained at an evening tea. and, after the menu had been discussed, the gentlemen withdrew to the library, where cards and chips were soon produced and in use. Gov. Lowrey said he knew nothing about the game, so, while his friends tried their luck, the southern executive remained in the parlor and entertained the ladies. Later in the evening the governor drifted to the poker-room and was prevailed upon to play the hand of one of the gentlemen for a few minutes. As soon as the governor sat down he reminded his friends again that he knew nothing about the game. There was a jackpot on the table which had gone around several times. Hands were dealt, the pot was opened and play passed around to the governor. He didn't seem to

SUDDEN DEATH!

"Last evening, just after tea, while Mr. Thomas Hartman, a prominent and highlyrespected citizen, apparently in the best of health and spirits, was reading a newspaper, the sheet suddenly fell to the floor; he placed one hand over his heart, gasped, and mak back in his chair, svidently unconscious. The family were stricken with consternation, and immediately summoned a physician. But it was too late. The old gentleman was dead. Physicians gave heart disease as the cause."-Holbronk Herald.

Every day the papers contain statements similar to the above. Even youth is no defense against heart disease, and the awful rapidity with which it is claiming victims forces upon all a conviction of its prevalence. Reader, if you have a symptom of this dread disease do not hesitate a moment in attending to it. Delay is always dangerons, and in heart disease too often fatal. Some symptoms of heart disease are shortness of breath, fluttering, or palpitation, pain or tenderness in left side. shoulder. or arm, irregular pulse, smothering, weak or hungry spells, fainting spells, dropsy, etc.

Charles Raven, York, Pa., writes: "I suffored from heart disease 22 years. Frequently my heart would seem to jump into my mouth, and iny madition made me very melancholy. Physicians ave me no relief.
