THE WEEK IN THE SOUTH

The Quick Result of Painting the Town Red.

FAMILY MURDERED BY THE TENANT.

MONROE, La., April 14.—Saturday afternoon Henry Gullede and J. O. Johnson, both of whom live in Union parish, came to Monroe on business. After getting through with it they drank freely and set out to paint the town red. Visited Ruby Bell's, fired their pistols at the furniture and moved out. Policeman Haynie and Bigger saw Gullede and Johnson on the street and started towards them. Gullede drew his pistol and when ordered to put it up fired at Haynie. Seventeen shots were fired and when the smoke cleared away it was found that both Policeman Haynie and Gullede were killed. Johnson is in jail.

Touch on the Road.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 16.—G. M. Woodfin, who lives at Bolton, Henderson county, had an encounter with highwaymen about 8 o'clock yesterday as he was on his way home from Asheville. Mr. Woodfin was alone, and when on Hominy hill not far from the old power house of the West Asheville and Sulphur Springs railroad, two negroes sprang into the road, grasped the bridle of the team and ran the wagon over a bank. Mr. Woodfin jumped out as the wagon went over and the negroes ran up to him, one on either side, one carrying a club and the other a revolver.

The pistol was shoved in Mr. Woodfin's face and he was commanded to throw up his hands and give up his money. He did this, one he was unarmed, and the negro who carried the club rifled his pockets, taking his purse and all the cash he had, some $8 or $10. The highwaymen then allowed him to go and started away in the direction of Asheville.

SENATOR VANCE DEAD

North Carolina's Junior Senator Pastes Peacefully Away.

RESTING BY THE SIDE OF LOVED ONES

The Funeral Party Leaves Washington at 10 p.m. Monday—In State in Raleigh—Interment in the Family Plot at Asheville Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Senator Zebulon B. Vance, of North Carolina, died at his residence in this city last night at 10:30 o'clock of apoplexy. The senator had been in feeble health for a number of months, but since his recent trip to Florida had been in apparently good health.

The Funeral.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—With the exception of the naming of the congressional committee to accompany the body of the late Senator Vance to his last resting place, the arrangements for the funeral have been made. The body of Mr. Vance will be taken from the residence to the capitol at 2 o'clock today, and will lie in state in the marble room. At 4 o'clock brief services will be conducted in the chamber of the senate by Rev. Moses D. Hoze, of Richmond, assisted by Rev. A. W. Pitzer, both of the Presbyterian church.

After the services, the remains will be taken to the station of the Richmond and Danville road, where they will remain until 10:43, under a guard composed of North Carolinians employed in the various departments. At the time indicated, a special car, attached to the southern express will leave the city. The funeral party will reach Raleigh tomorrow at 10:20 a. m., and the body will lie in state at the capitol building until 4 o'clock p. m., when the train will be taken for Asheville, which will be reached at 6 o'clock next morning.

Sketch of His Life.

Zebulon B. Vance, of Charlotte, was born in Buncombe county, North Carolina, May 13, 1820; was educated at Washington college, Tennessee, and at the University of North Carolina; studied law, was admitted to the bar in January, 1852, and was elected county attorney for Buncombe county the same year; was a member of the state house of commons in 1854; was a representative from North Carolina in the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth congresses; entered the Confederate army as captain in May, 1861, and was made colonel in August, 1862; was elected governor of North Carolina in August, 1862, and re-elected in August, 1864; was elected to the United States senate in November, 1870, but was refused admission, and resigned in January, 1871; was the democratic nominee for the United States senate in 1872, but was defeated by a combination of bolting democratic republicans; was elected governor of North Carolina for the third time in 1876; was elected to the United States senate as a democrat in 1884, but was defeated by a republican; was re-elected in 1884 and 1890. His term expired March 3, 1897.

A SOUTHERN BEAUTY.

Miss Mary Stirling, of Baltimore, Md., was the bride of the late Mr. Lee Taylor in English 871-1.

BALTIMORE, April 9.—Miss Mary Stirling, second daughter of Commander and Mrs. Yates Stirling, of this city, was married yesterday at 12:30 to J. Lee Taylor, of New York. The wedding took place at Brown Memorial Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. Matthew B. Habcock officiating. The bride is a true southern beauty, slightly above medium height, with a superb figure and a profusion of golden hair. She entered the church leaning on the arm of her father, attended by her elder sister, Miss Helen Stirling, as maid of honor, and Miss Hardy, of Richmond, as bridesmaid.

The ushers preceding the party were Messrs. Harry and Yates Pennington, cousins of the bride; James B. Taylor, cousins of the groom; Morton J. Henry, of Philadelphia; Rowan Baldwin and David Witherspoon, of New York. The wedding was attended by the English style, the groom and his best man, J. Clinton Spencer, of New York, his cousin, receiving the bride at the church. The bride wore an elaborate costume of blue tulle, with a long train, trimmed with deep point lace. Her ornaments were diamonds, and surmounting her forehead was a magnificent diamond crescent, the gift of the groom.

DISPENSARY IN COURT.

All South Carolina Interested in the Extra Session.

COLUMBIA, April 9.—The action of Judge McIver in calling an extra session of the supreme court has been discussed with much freedom today, and it is now positively stated that an immediate action in regard to the pending dispensary cases. The court meets tomorrow (Tuesday) and will remain in session several days. The rumor has been that the decision is in the hands of Associate Justice Pope and has been for some time. The assembling of the court may cause him to file at once, otherwise it would be possible for the other two justices, while sitting in the organized capacity of the court to pass an order compelling him. It is also possible that the three justices, in unanimity of them, can reach no decision and that they will ask for further argument on the point involved.

PLOTS OF THE DISCONSOLATE.

Is to Blow Up the Public Buildings at Elizabeth, N. J.

ELIZABETH, N. J., April 9.—The police for some time past have been investigating an anarchist plot, which was said to include an attempt to explode dynamite bombs in several of the public buildings of the city. The result of the investigation was that the police were aware of the identity of the plotters, and shadowed their movements. News reached police headquarters from one of the detective detachments upon the case, which led to a hasty search of the Kinloch railway station, with the result that two large bombs, and a number of smaller ones, were found in different parts of the building. Attached to the bombs were fuses ready to be lighted.

TO THE NORTH CAPE.

Emperor William Will Voyage for Several Days in Early May.

ATLANTA'S FEMININE BURGLARS

More of Them Captured and the Entire Organization Disrupted.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 9.—More of the gang of female burglars were run in today and it now develops that an organized band had been playing the city for several weeks—whites and blacks, both being implicated. A vast quantity of stolen goods have been recovered, and many articles found that have from time to time been reported at police headquarters as mysteriously disappearing. Confessions have been wrung from the Thompson and Porter women which will lead to important disclosures yet. This clever work of the officers is considered one of the most important hauls made in a number of days.
