On a Charge of Peonage.

Roanoke, Va., Jan. 19.—Giovanni Saruli, a railroad contractor, filling a contract with the Tidewater Railroad Company near Roanoke, was arrested yesterday on a charge of peonage by United States Deputy Marshall Alf in Bedford county and brought here, where he was bailed by United States Commissioner White in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at a hearing here January 25.

The charge was preferred by Filemone Seneca, an Italian banker of Philadelphia. It is alleged that Saruli held a dozen Italian laborers against their will and placed an armed guard over them, with instructions to shoot them if they attempted to get away. The men escaped at night and went to Philadelphia, where they recited their experience to Seneca. The latter, it is said, places labor with contractors over the country.

Saruli declares there is nothing in the charges.

Lived 38 Years Without Stomach.

It was made public today that Wylie Teamaugh, 88 years old, former New York concert hall singer who died here a few days ago—supposedly of consumption, had no stomach. He had a freakish four-cornered pouch in his chest, back of his heart, and the esophagus, or food pipe, connected with this pouch, and also connected with the heart, or rather, the sick in which the heart lies. When he died his heart was full of food.

This is the first case of its kind on record and surgeons are unable to explain how a man could live 88 years in that condition.—Cincinnati dispatch.

Y. M. C. A. Hospital.

Ask for the Genuine

And see that you get what you ask for

The largely increased demand for Sun Cured tobacco, created and sustained by the distinctive quality of the original Reynolds' Sun Cured tobacco, has encouraged other manufacturers to place on the market imitation brands and tags which are made to look so near like the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured that unsuspecting chewers and dealers receive the imitations under the belief that they are getting the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured tobacco.

Look close and see that the letters on the tag spell R-e-y-n-o-l-d-s' Sun Cured, and you cannot be deceived in getting what you ask for and want,—the best value for your money that can be produced from the genuine Sun Cured tobacco, grown where the best sun-cured tobacco grows.
