A New Concern.

A Mental Anguish Suit.

The Rowan Superior Court adjourned Saturday for the term, after disposing of a number of civil cases during the past week. One of the most important of these, and one which has already caused considerable litigation, was that of Mrs. Annis Harrison against the Western Union Telegraph Company, a mental anguish suit. The circumstances of the case are doubtless familiar to the readers of this paper. The telegraph company was sued for alleged negligence in transmitting and delivering a message announcing the death of Branson Harrison, a step-son of the plaintiff. The telegram in question was sent to Mrs. Harrison at High Point at 7 a. m. on July 8th 1904, and was not delivered until 11 a. m. July 9th. The jury gave the plaintiff $200.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against Opium, Chloroform and other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines for many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against opium and other poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by Grimes Drug Store.

Death of J. M. Monroe.

Ex Sheriff James M. Monroe, who had been confined to his bed with pneumonia for the past week, died yesterday morning about 11 o'clock. The deceased had been in poor health for a long time and he had lost much of his strength when he was laid upon his bed and had to struggle with the dread disease pneumonia. The funeral will occur this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the First Methodist church.

Sheriff Monroe was a native of Franklin township, where he was born 56 years ago. He lived on his home place until 1891 when he moved to this city with his family, where he has since made his home. Mr. Monroe filled several offices before he was elected sheriff. He was an excellent citizen and a kind-hearted, generous man. Hosts of friends will mourn his loss. The bereaved family has the sympathy of the community.

Caught in Savannah.

Mention has been made in this paper of the recent robbery of the store of the Belk-Harry Company. Chief Miller received a letter last week to the effect that one of the thieves had been arrested at Savannah, Ga. The man was convicted of some minor offense and sent to the chain gang. He attempted to escape and was shot by a guard. After he was shot he told an officer of his having been a party to the robbery here. He is not seriously wounded and will probably be brought here for trial later.

Mr. Winecoff Wins.

In the case of Luther Winecoff against Mrs. Julia F. Trelor, tried in the Superior court last week, the jury awarded the plaintiff $800. This was a suit on an alleged breach of contract. The plaintiff claimed that the defendant sold him certain lands for $8,000 and that he was to be given possession November 1st, 1906. He failed to obtain possession at the time specified, hence the suit.

Death of Mr. Capps.

M. V. B. Capps, who suffered a severe stroke of paralysis on Wednesday last, died Monday morning at his home in this city. He was 66 years of age and leaves five children. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at St. John's Lutheran church. The deceased was a Tennessee by birth, but came here about 10 years ago from Chester, S. C. He was an officer in the Confederate army, serving with honor under Generals Albert Sidney Johnston, Stonewall Jackson and Forrest, at different times.

Opening Display This Week of New Spring Models in Women's Ready-to-wear Garments.

Suitable for Local Wear or Adaptable for Southern Climates. An authoritative presentation of high-class apparel, showing latest Parisian ideas and colors, in Complete Costumes, Dresses, Tailored and Demi-tailored suits, Baby Irish lace, Linen and Lingerie waists, Princess gowns in organdie, mull, batiste, nets and lawn, hand embroidered and lace trimmed, wraps and traveling coats, etc.

Mention is particularly made of the splendid collection of "Demi" or Fancy Tailored Suits, Princess Gowns and French Waisted Blouses.

The Princess Gown is pre-eminently the correct style for spring and summer, and the soft, sheer, clinging fabrics are most wanted. Laces for trimmings are very extensively used, the heavy laces being greatly in evidence.

This same idea is very elaborately carried out in the new French Waists, heavy faced and hand embroidery being used in profusion.

In the Lace Waists and Baby Irish is most wanted. These are shown here in a splendid variety of new patterns, and most of them have the German val. laces used as trimmings, the elbow sleeves predominates.

In the "Demi" and Full Tailored Suits the thin wool fabrics are used almost exclusively—voiles, chiffon Panamas and the plain Panamas—and they are much trimmed with braids, laces and embroideries, in Persian effects, etc.

The Eton Jacket, the Pony Coat and the Plaited Skirt are the leading styles for spring, and they are made in a wide variety of adaptations.

The present display is of unusual attractiveness, embracing as it does most comprehensive assortments of ready-to-wear apparel in both tropical and medium weights.

An inquiry as to the spring styles will be answered same day as received.

Descriptions of the new suits, waists, shirts, etc., sent on application.
