Rev. A. S. Peeler left last Tuesday for Wanesburg, Ohio, to resame his work.

Miss Vallie Barnhardt has gone home. Would like to have her back again.

The Crescent people were listening for Xerxes to bray a complete victory to the many readers of the WATCHMAN. Sure enough they won over the Kappa Alpha debators and got the decision. But the writer failed to state that the Kappa Alpha boys guyed them all but to death. The results are very agreeable to us, but it still means a victory to us. The Kappa Alpha boys sent three challenges and gave the St. Marions choice of each question and still the turns are two to one in fayor of Crescent. Xerxes had an invita tion to visit Ctesiphon who lives in or about Crescent. He is not accustomed to braying, let that be s settled fact. And while the gentleman from Christiana is a perfect prototype of that specimen. of humanity, called "brown" he cannot help but be a little to fanitical to prescribe the obnoctical element in a good English
