

THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN

WM. H. STEWART, Ed. and Prop.
Published every Tuesday at 120 West Innes street.

Entered as second-class matter Jan.
15th, 1906, at the post office at Salisbury, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

SALISBURY, N. C., MAY 1st, 1912.

P. S. Carlton, the candidate for the legislature, is a splendid young man in every particular.
A vote for him would be a wise and a very proper thing to do.
Mr. Carlton is an upright, high toned christian gentleman. He has no enemies to punish and no interests, save that of all the people, to serve.

Theo. F. Klutz, has no opposition for trial justice. He will make a splendid judge. This is only a step to a higher position for Mr. Klutz.

Baldy is expecting the Democrats to hand him the nomination for the Senate on a silver waiter.

Wont somebody please run for coroner?

P. B. Beard, Chairman of Board of County Commissioners, we are informed, says he is going to build a new court house if he can get two commissioners, McCanless and Deal, to stick to him.

If you go into the Democratic primary don't forget W. L.
Klutz is the candidate for county treasurer. There is not a man in the county more deserving or better fitted for the position.

This is the day to give in your taxes. Remember to put in your dog and thank the powers that you helped to send to the legislature for the privilege of paying $1.00 per year for your dog.

Hurrah for Col. A. L. Lingle, he condescends to offer for the State Senate and will no doubt get some votes. A worthy successor to the position, he will if selected, serve the county as satisfactorily as any dog tax advocate, mansion builder and money spender. He certainly will not do the county any harm.

A Suggestion.

Mr. Editor: I believe the people want a change of county commissioners badly, but if all the candidates running are voted for, this ambition will be defeated.
For instance, those wanting a change will divide their vote among eight or ten candidates, while those opposed to a change will vote solidly for the present board. Now all cannot be nominated, so let's get right. Let's all vote for our neighborhood candidate and four other new ones selected from the list below. By thus settling on a certain set, we can succeed, otherwise the nominations will go to the present members of the board. To show how this will work, I will illustrate: Let the people of Morgan vote for Joseph W. Miller, then N. White Menius, J. W. Peeler, D. Jackson Goodman and J. B. Goodnight; then let the people of Litalier Township vote for N. White
Menius, J. W. Peeler, D. Jackson Goodman, J. B. Goodnight and Joe W. Miller and at Rockwell, vote for J. W. Peeler, or Julius Frick, D. Jackson Goodman, J. B.
Goodnight, N. White Menius and Joe W. Miller; and so on all over the county, always sticking to your candidate and four of those given above and the trick will surely be turned. Remember, if some such method is not followed there will be no change in the present board.

Respectfully,
POLITICIAN.

THE WATCHMAN thinks this is a very good plan. If followed it is likely to bring about the change desired.

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR. At the solicitation of many friends I announce myself a candidate for County Surveyor of Rowan County, subject to the action of the Democratic primary and convention. If nominated and elected I will give the County work my special attention.
Bpd P. CRAWFORD BERNHARDT.

TRIAL OF OUTLAWS.

Mountaineers Move, Caravan-Like, Over Muddy Roads to Wytheville.

Wytheville, Va., April 29.—A caravan of mountaineers traveling over rain-soaked roads from Hillsville and the surrounding country, arrived tonight to participate in the trials beginning tomorrow of the six members of the Allen gang indicted for five murders in the Carroll county court house March 14, when the judge, prosecuting attorney, the sheriff, a juror and bystander were assassinated.

More than one hundred witnesses have reached here. Some came part way by rail, others by horseback, while many drove all day in country wagons and camped outside the town.

When court convenes tomorrow the cases of the six defendants will be formally severed and Floyd Allen will be the first on trial for his life. It has not been determined what will be the order of trial for the other five defendants. Claude, Victor and Frial Allen and Sidna Edwards and Byrd Marcin.

Mrs. Floyd Allen, wife of the man who was being tried in the Hillsville court when the shooting began, rode twenty miles from the mountains at daybreak in a canvas-covered wagon to the nearest railroad station. She is a thin, frail woman, wrinkled with age upon whom rests heavily the burden of seeing her husband and two sons, Claude and Victor, tried for murder. Mrs. Victor Allen, three small children, and Jasper Allen, a brother of Floyd, accompanied her.

Extraordinary measures are being taken to guard the prisoners.

The same terror that prevailed in Carroll county at the mention of the Allen name has struck this place and several deputies employed to guard the jail declined to serve. Two detectives of the agency detailed by Governor Mann to watch the prisoners, are in the cells night and day.
