

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill. I wish every suffering woman would give

SUTHERLAND'S EAGLE EYE SALVE
Good for Nothing but the Eyes

The Mexican People a Hoary Water-sou And The Charlotte Observer.

It is a pathetic fact that the large majority of the Mexican people are in dense ignorance of the moving events. All knowledge of what intervention in their affairs by this country means has been kept from them by their country rulers. In short, they have not the remotest idea as to what it is all about. Our growing knowledge of the condition of these people should serve to increase sympathy for them. The Houston Post as a border paper, we might say and has had opportunities to secure information on the situation at first hands. "Mexico," says The Post, is crushed with revolution and poverty. It has no arm or navy. It is bankrupt. Its commerce and industries are prostrated. Murder and pillage are rife in all parts of the country. It is filled with hungry widows and orphans. It is the saddest and most desolate portion of the world. What it has suffered can not be repaired in a century even if peace should come speedily to its distracted people." Of its millions of people. The Post says they "have been worse than enslaved by a fragment of landholders. They are homeless and ignorant. They have been preyed upon by greed as no other people who claim to be civilized were ever preyed upon. They have not been given educational advantages or permitted to have an ambition, and as the crowning infamy succeeding a century of brutal exploitation, they have been embroiled one against the other in deadly combat." Against a people surrounded by such distressing conditions there should be in this country no feeling of hatred. We may close our eyes to a contemplation of the ordeal they are going to be called to pass through, not for their subjugation, but for their ultimate freedom, and anticipate the coming of the day when they will wake to the blessings that follow the trail of the American flag. The Mexicans do not know it, but for the first time in the history of their country they are in sight of a new condition of life under freedom and prosperity.—Charlotte Observer.

Martial Law in Vera Cruz. Vera Cruz, April 26.—Vera Cruz today is under martial law. Rear Admiral Frank F. Fletcher, commanding the American naval forces on shore, today issued a proclamation to his effect and the last opportunity Mexicans had for having their own affairs in Vera Cruz under their own hands disappeared. Admiral Fletcher and his staff determined there should be no more quibbling with the Mexican officials regarding form of government and until further notice residents of this port will live and be judged by military law. The word has gone forth that disorder and unruliness in any form shall receive swift and severe punishment. This proclamation makes Rear Admiral Fletcher absolute ruler ashore.

Our President.

How well he seems to have managed it, this whole sordid business of going to war; how fair he has been; how patient, how dignified, how infinitely gentle and kind. No bluster, no threats, no snicker of anticipation; no licking of the nation's chops, just a simple souled, brave, soft-hearted, hard-headed man. It is sad enough to go into war of any kind at any time; but it is less sad to go knowing that every honorable means has been taken to keep away from war. And this consolation President Wilson has given us by his wise, forbearing, Christian attitude before the provocation of a foe, mad and desperate and foolish.

The good God, who knows all and watches over all, and sees all, and directs all, was in our hearts deeper than we knew, when as a nation we chose this great, serene soul to lead us. Editorial by William Allen White in the Emporia (Kansas) Gazette.
