COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst. I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework."

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off. I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly

I would have died if I hadn't. After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentleness. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, yellow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

Senator Misunderstands Issues.

Continued from page one. and philosophy, and for conducting the education of the young, should be freed from all ecclesiastical authority, government, and interference, and should be fully subject to the civil and political power, in conformity with the will of rulers and the prevalent opinions of the age."

55—It is an error to say that "The church ought to be separated from the state, and the State from the church."

76—It is an error to say that "The abolition of the temporal power, which the apostolic possessors, would contribute in the greatest degree to the liberty and prosperity of the church."

77—It is an error to say that "In the present day it is no longer expedient that the Catholic religion of the state to the exclusion of all other modes of worship."

80—It is an error to say that "The Roman pontiff can and ought to reconcile himself to and agree with progress, liberalism, and modern civilization."

These few pointed statements, selected from the eighty which form part of the encyclical, not only leave a slender footing for liberty of conscience; but leave no place for the American public school system, no place for Protestantism, progress, or liberality. They place the ecclesiastical law (of Rome) above the civil law, declare for the union of church and state, and assert the temporal power of the pope.

And that is not the worst of it: for every activity of Rome in American politics is in perfect harmony with these clear and unmistakable declarations of Pope Pius. Our public schools are denounced as Godless Protestantism is denounced as "Not a religion, never was a religion" but "a form of rape and robbery masquerading as a religion, and a hypocrisy wearing the livery of Christianity to serve the deadly sins in."

This quotation is from the Western Watchman printed in the city of St. Louis, edited by Roman Catholic Priest Fhelan, and dated November 12, 1914. If you care to look for it you will find it on page ten of the paper mentioned together with much more to show that the spirit of the nineteenth century Pope Pius IX is preserved and taught by the Roman Catholic press of America within the last few months of this twentieth century.

It is because Rome seeks the political power in this country to make her papal decrees effective that The Mence and millions of calm and determined citizens of this country feel the necessity of acting in opposition. We have no desire to prescribe what religious opinions papists may hold; but we do most strenuously object to such papal ideas as I have quoted supplanting liberty and popular education in this country.

We regard it as very likely that Senator Thomas overlooked the real aim and purpose of this paper in reading but one copy, and that especially when the entire papist press is going the limits of misrepresentation to make it appear that the movement against political Romanism is a movement against religion.

We ask no more of any senator or congressman than Senator Thomas has granted even while misunderstanding our work and aim. We also believe in both liberty of conscience and of the press. We believe in it to the extent that we do not wish either privilege withdrawn from the papists or their press; but we oppose their political program and the papal principles back of it with the same consistency that a republican voter opposes a democratic candidate, or a democrat voter opposes a republican candidate.

This is not a religious question: it is a political question. There is no more bigotry involved in it, and there is no more denial of liberty of conscience in it than there was in the Progressive believers in Theodore Roosevelt refusing to vote for Mr. Taft. The problem is complicated and obscured by a foreign corporation playing politics in the guise of religion. Get that point straight, and you will find no difficulty in understanding that The Mence has no designs upon any man's liberty of conscience.—The Men-

According to a report direct from Villa headquarters we learn that General Villa was slightly wounded several days ago at Aguascalientes in a shooting affair, details of which have been kept a secret.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Diplomatic angles of the proposal embodied in the pending shipping bill for purchase of merchant ships by the United States Government were widely discussed today as a result of a report that Sir Edward Grey had informed the State Department that the purchase of any German or Austrian ships would be regarded as an unneutral act.

London, Jan. 30, 9:30 p. m.—The end of the sixth month of Europe's great war finds the belligerent armies completing preparations for, or already engaged in operations of an extent hardly anticipated when the declarations of hostilities were made. In Flanders, France, and Central Poland a deadlock still exists, but largely because of Russia's tremendous resources, and Turkey's action in the sphere of operations has been widely extended. Russia, alone is engaged in fighting hostile armies from Tilsit, far in the north of East Prussia, to Tabriz, in Persia, a distance of over 1,500 miles. Only that portion of her territory bordering Rumania is free from menace, but her reports declare all of her immense armies are successful.

London, Jan. 31, 1:45 a. m.—At least one vessel besides the Ben Cruchan was sunk by the German submarine 21. This fact became known tonight when a traveler brought in the crew of eleven of the steamer Linda Bianche, sent to the bottom by the raider.

Fleetwood, via London, Jan. 30.—The German submarine 21 today torpedoed the North Shields steamer Ben Cruchan off this port. The entire crew numbering 20, were landed here.

At the address of William Jennings Bryan in the city auditorium in Raleigh 3,000 people were present. His subject was "Man's Duty to Government." He also spoke in Durham on Sunday night his subject there being "Man's Duty to God."

A Negro man whose identity is not known was found dead last Saturday morning by the side of the Southern Railway track near Concord. An examination proved that the negro's neck was broken. Dr. Buchanan expressed the opinion that the man either fell from or was struck by the train. He looks to be about 50 years old.

The eastern portion of Texas and parts of Arkansas and Oklahoma were swept early Sunday by a severe windstorm which at Tyler, Texas and Malvern, and Garland City, Arkansas, assumed the proportions of a tornado. No serious delay to traffic or communication lines were reported.

London, Jan. 31, 5 p. m.—Three white men were killed in an uprising January 28, among the Angara tribe in Nyassaland, British Central Africa. Three women and five children, all white, kidnapped but subsequently released. The chief of these leaders is still at large but a British force has attacked his village.

London, Jan. 31.—For the fourth time since the war began the Carpathian Mountains, between Duka and Wyszok passes is the scene of a pitched battle. The previous clashes were between Russians and Austro-Hungarians, but now the Austrians and Hungarians have the assistance of the German armies and are taking a vigorous offensive. Despite this, Russian reports assert that the preliminary fighting has turned to the advantage of Russia and that prisoners and guns have been captured.
