FAITH.

April 29.—Venus spent Wednesday night with J. M. Wyatt, at Roams Park, Salisbury. J. M. Wyatt moved to his new residence Thursday near the Leland granite cutting shed. The Colley brothers, of Chestnut Hill moved him with their big moving van.

Venus got some of the best sweet milk at the Fisher Dairy out on the Western Railroad here ever tasted. They get lots of milk and of the very best quality to furnish their customers at town.

Fisher and McCombs just received an order for a large pair of millstones to go to Georgia.

R. V. and Mrs. R. L. Brown are visiting their daughter Mrs. P. A. Peeler for several days.

We met our old friend, J. A. Reid in Salisbury. He is looking well and living at Spencer now. He formerly owned a big river bottom farm and lived there for many years. Venus went there in watermelon time to feast on melons.

R. J. Lawrence, of Seagrave, N. C., Rauldolph County, was here with a load of fine crockery ware. It sold well.

Venus visited the public library in Salisbury and found it in good shape.

J. T. Wyatt received an order for more granite window sills and ledels and is at work on them with a force of hands.

George Peeler has received word that one of his boys at Newton College, has just won a gold medal. Our Faith boys are coming to the front.

Robert Ward, wife and sister visited at Rockwell, Saturday.

We saw a new store at Granite Quarry the other day for the first time. It went up between our visits and was built in a few days. It belongs to D. G. Russell and he is believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardul, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I sat down, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether.

Cardul is purely vegetable and gentianic. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardul makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardul has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardul today.

ing there in the jewelry business. R. V. R. L. Brown and wife spent a week at Faith and they claim that it was one of their most pleasant trips. Besides the many greetings with friends and relatives, Rev. Weber (of the Reformed Church) gave a fine ride to Salisbury and Spencer and back in his new automobile. R. V. Weber and wife gave us some fine vocal music.

William Canble, who has been confined to his room some months, is now able to be out. We think he is in a fair way to regain his original health and enjoy life for a long time.

The stork left a fine girl with Maxwell Holshouser.

There was a large congregation at Christians-Sunday and we had another good sermon.

Luther C. Brown is in the turkey raising business, but we fear he will have trouble with them if it should continue wet. VIOLA

TRADING FORD.

The infant baby of J. L. Talbot died on last Thursday and was buried at Trading Ford cemetery Friday.

The young men of the neighborhood are trying to organize a baseball team. We are surprised that they have not begun this long ago.

Yackin Camp, W. O. W., here, will have their annual picnic on next Thursday, 18th, which will be ascension day. The program is about completed and will be a good one. Rev. Brendall of Granite Quarry, C. A. Sides of East Spencer, and others, will be the speakers for the occasion.

Music will be furnished by the ladies auxiliary of Cedar Camp East Spencer. The speaking and music will be in the forenoon. After dinner will be the races:
