TRADING FORD.

Henry's coats and jack rabbits have appeared. Next will be Santa Claus.

The farmers are about through with all their work now, except getting up their winter wood and setting around the fire.

It is reported that a force of hands will be put on the public road here this week to give it a genuine repair. We are glad to hear of this as our road is in bad condition.

The public school here has opened with a good attendance. We look to have a good school this winter.

L. H. Eller is building a new addition to his house. W. A. Wagoner of Stanley county is doing the work.

The Baptist Sunday school has planned to have a big Christmas tree at the church on Christmas day.

Miss Lucy Orr is to be organist for the Christmas exercises at Trading Ford church during Christmas.

G. A. Peacock is planning to build a handsome residence during the winter and spring.

The W. O. W. here is enlarging their membership rapidly by taking in new members almost every meeting. SAM SNORT.

ROCKWELL.

Nov. 22.—Rev. J. A. Koons, pastor of the Reformed church of this place, has returned to take up his work after spending some weeks with his father and home folks in Pennsylvania.

Misses Blanche Trexler and Mabel Canup of East Spencer, visited at W. B. Misenheimer's Sunday evening.

Messrs. V. J. Crow and O. P. Barringer were Rockwell visitors Sunday.

A. L. Rinehart visited at Richard Brown's Saturday night.

Toots thinks she will be able to report a wedding soon.

Joe Park is the champion Ford driver. He can make a mile in three-fourths of a minute. Anyone wishing a good driver would do well to see him.

Wild Bill visited Toots Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Sallie Goodman visited home folks Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Cleveland Misenheimer of Rockwell, visited at Jim Mesmer's Saturday night.

Lewis Lyster visited at Alexander Trexler's Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Dal Fisher of Salisbury, visited at Jno. Linker's Saturday night. TOOTS.

LOWERSTONE.

Nov. 22.—The farmers all around here are about done sowing wheat and oats, and are plowing stubble land for corn.

We sure have had a pretty fall for sowing wheat and oats, and for gathering corn.

Now next will come hog killing time.

J. B. O. Fisher of No. 6 township, Cabarrus County, killed two hogs last week. One weighed 268 pounds and the other, weighing 278 pounds.

H. J. Bost of near Lowerstone, killed a hog weighing 814 pounds last Friday, November 19th.

James Hipp made a good crop of late Irish potatoes this year, making 150 bushels.

H. J. Bost made 25 bushels of late Irish potatoes and about 60 bushels of ground peas, or peanuts on just a small piece of land. Now he is selling them in Salisbury at 50 per quart. He thinks they pay better than raising cotton.

Harvey Fouts sowed 85 acres of wheat and oats this fall. Who ever can beat that trot out your man. That is sowing some.

Colds do not leave willingly. Because a cold is stubborn is no reason why you should be. Instead of "wearing" it out, get sure relief by taking Dr. King's New Discovery. Dangerous bronchial and lung ailments often follow a cold which has been neglected at the beginning. As your body faithfully battles those cold germs, no better aid can be given than the use of this remedy. Its merit has been tested by old and young. Get a bottle today. 50c. and $1.00.

FAITH.

Nov. 22.—Charles Holshouser has returned home from the United States Army where he has been for the past year.

F. A. Nance has returned from Texas where he has been ginning cotton and reports only half a crop there this year.

Jack Eller planted ten rows of Irish potatoes fifteen steps long and made twenty bushels. Who beats it?

Dave Peeler's little boy fell and broke his arm, the doctor fixed it up and he is getting alright again.

George Risher has the finest little buggy horse we have seen lately.

Charles Jones went 'possum hunting and got four big ones.

John Bost has gone to Franklin Institute to take a business course.

E. D. Ritchie has an eleven pound 'possum up fattening. Who can beat that?

John Jackson has five 'possums up fattening.

Young lady at Rich L. Barger's November 18th, 1915.

Young lady at Burt Fink's November 20th, 1915.

Young lady at Tom Beaver's November 9th, 1915.

Here where they raise fine 'possum dogs. There are eight ready for the 'possum hunters as soon as they are six weeks old.

Young lady at Daniel Canup's November 20th, 1915.

Fisher & McCombs had pay day Saturday.

Venus dreamed that he saw three United States flying machines sailing over the country and that from now on there would be plenty of them.

Stokes Eller has moved from Faith down near the Yarkin river towards Bringle's ferry.

The remains of D. L. Lentz who lived next to Clark's store and who was killed by his automobile Saturday, passed through Faith Sunday, from the sanatorium in Salisbury to his home from where the burial will take place Monday evening.

Nellie and Sadie Yates was visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Boyden Lefler's Sunday.

We have just recently had a fine rain and all small grain is doing well now, lots of clover seed has been sown.

We took dinner at M. G. M. Fisher's and Mrs. Fisher had green roasting ears right from the stalk for dinner. Who can beat that for late green corn trot it out?

Venus will mail twenty-five of his fine strawberry plants on receipt of twenty-five cents. Now is the time to set them out, to bear for next year.

Wanted to exchange a fine 'possum dog pup for three grown young hens, or a pig, or a little goat, or two dollars in cash. Can send and receive by express if you live at a distance.

Ten cents will get one of the pictures of that large historic chestnut tree, that was planted about the time of the revolutionary war, and is still standing in a big open field, and is still bearing chestnuts every year. It is in Rowan county, and the picture is a beautiful one.

J. F. Lisaker and J. L. Fleming, passed through Faith today in their automobile with a fine lot of things for the Orphan's Home at Crescent, consisting of peats, potatoes, etc. Our crops are good this year and the good people of Rowan county can well afford to remember our own orphans.

W. H. Earnhardt made 660 gallons of molasses up to the close of the season, he made over 150 gallons for himself. Who ever can beat that trot out your man.

Mrs. W. A. Sides of China Grove has returned home after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. David Peeler.

G. M. Shuping the foreman at Shuping's Roller Mill has opened up a store and is doing a good business.

Banks Friek brought to our office and gave to us an ear of corn 8 1/2 inches around and only 2 1/2 inches long and well formed. Who can beat that?

Rev. John R. Jordan the Baptist minister here has resigned as pastor of Faith and will take other work at Spies, S. O. The members all regret to see him leave, but wish him and his family good luck in their new home. Rev. Jordan was a good minister and everybody liked him. He will be missed in this community. VENUS.

David S. Lentz Dies from Injuries.

David S. Lentz, aged 49, met with an unfortunate and fatal accident Saturday afternoon while on the Gold Hill Road en route to his home in the vicinity of Organ Church. Mr. Lentz, his son Bernard, and a friend, Robert Gray, were in the car and were going with considerable speed down Tar Kiln Hill, just beyond the two mile post, when Bernard, who was driving the machine, drove too near the ditch and caused the auto to lunge sidewise, when Mr. Lentz was either thrown or jumped out. He struck hard ground and it was seen that he was badly injured. In great haste he was taken to the sanatorium in Salisbury for professional attention, but died shortly after his arrival. Mr. Lentz was a well-to-do farmer and saw mill man and was well thought of by those who knew him. He leaves a wife, one son and a brother, Charlie Lentz of Elmwood. His remains were prepared for interment and were taken home Sunday. The funeral was held from Organ Church Monday afternoon, the pastor, Rev. E. R. Sowers, officiating.

The two young men were not injured and the auto was only slightly damaged.

No Hope For Mr. Rose's Recovery.

News from Wilmington Saturday night was to the effect that there is no hope for the recovery of Richard S. Rose, who was injured by the accidental discharge of a pistol eight or nine weeks ago. His mother, Mrs. C. A. Rose of China Grove, his sister, Mrs. Annie Lisk of Charlotte and his brother, Junius Rose, of this city, went to his bedside Friday. He is a nephew of Mrs. A. J. Crowell of this city and a son of the late Rev. O. A. Rose, who was formerly a pastor of a Lutheran Church near Salisbury.

The Ointment That Does Not Affect the Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect. LAXATIVE OINTMENT IS BETTER THAN ORDINARY OINTMENT AND DOES NOT CAUSE NERVOUSNESS OR STINGING IN HEAD. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE, 25c.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill. I wish every suffering woman would give
