Farm Life School Calendar

By the publicity committee.

China Grove, N. C., December 8.—The O'Henry Literary Society held its last regular meeting December 7th. The debate, resolved: "That the National Constitution should be so amended giving women the right to vote," was decided in favor of the affirmative, although the negative side put up a good argument. A reading, recitation and quartette were given. Everything was enjoyed to the fullest extent by everyone present. It was decided at this meeting that we should enter a triangle debate with Spencer and Mt. Uila, and the preliminary will be held soon after Christmas. The High School students are looking forward with much delight to the reception that will be given next Tuesday.

For the benefit of the girls at the dormitory the piano will be moved from the graded school to the dormitory.

The agriculture class have just finished putting down 20 square feet of concrete floor in the Farm Life School Barn.

Prof. O. M. Miller was married last week in Asheville. After a very quiet wedding, he and his bride came to China Grove, where Mr. Miller has charge of the Farm Life School.

There will be a parent's dinner given at the dormitory Wednesday before Christmas.

School will close for the Christmas holidays on Wednesday, December 22nd, for ten days.

Messrs. Grubel and Aray, sent out by the State, and Crampton, the county demonstrator, gave a dairy school at the dormitory today.

GOLD HILL.

There was a marriage of Julius A. Earnhardt's, a justice of the peace near Gold Hill, December 19th. The contracting parties were Miss Margie Lee Poole and Marbury Lee Morgan, Morgan Township Rowan county. This young couple have many friends who wish them a long happy life.

Paul T. Goodman, the enterprising merchant of Gold Hill, is doing about these times. He is selling goods and will buy railroad ties and pay cash. I guess he bought over six hundred, one hundred one day last week. The Southern railroad gave a good inspection here last week that gave perfect satisfaction to all.

James Leonard has moved into his nice home near Gold Hill and will farm.

John Eller has bought B. R. A. Beaver's farm and will move on it in the near future.

Mrs. J. A. Earnhardt went to her barn one morning last week and to her surprise found two young calves. I think she will have plenty milk soon.

The old Gold Hill mines it is thought, will pump water soon, then our people will be feeling better, but still better if they get the money that is due them.

Concerning the Death of Mrs. Troutman

Last Monday, December 18th, one of the saddest and most distressing accidents occurred that has happened for some time in this vicinity, when Mrs. Julian Troutman burned to death. Just how the accident occurred will probably never be known, as Mrs. Troutman lived alone and was subject to some kind of spells, it is thought she might have had one of these spells and fell in the fire. The body was found by a neighbor, Mrs. Mettie Troutman, who ran as fast as she could to let it be known. Her son-in-law, G. H. S. Sifford, telephoned the nearest neighbors and went to the scene at once. Mrs. Troutman's body lay on the back porch, partly in the kitchen door, with her clothing about all burned off. Mr. Sifford discovered that there was a considerable amount of smoke in the house. About this time John D. Deal arrived and these two went in and it was found that a piece of clothing lay on the floor burning, the door also caught from this and a small hole was burned in the floor. From all indications Mrs. Troutman must have fallen in the fire and the flames catching her clothing scrambled out and dragged herself to the back porch where she kept a water bucket. It is thought that by the time she reached the porch death claimed her as a victim. The funeral service was held at Organ Church on Tuesday by Rev. R. E. Sowers. Mrs. Troutman was 77 years old and leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Last Wednesday evening, December 16th, Miss Myrtle Brown of near Shaping's Roller Mills, and D. W. Barger, of Salisbury, were happily married at the home of the bride. The wedding was quite a surprise to many of their friends as it was a quiet affair and only a few of their closest friends and relatives were present. Rev. R. E. Sowers performed the ceremony. We wish them a long and happy life.

Some time ago we noticed that Bro. Venus invited some one to trot out a mule that could beat Mr. Gantt's. If our memory serves us right we have found him.

W. C. A. Park has a mule that is 38 years old and can do a considerable amount of work yet. This mule was owned by J. F. Park a long time and helped by his good work to raise eight children and six of them learned to plow with him. Three of the boys are stone cutters and do farm work also. One is a minister and two are on the farm. One of the girls are married and one single. This mule had a very narrow escape from death by being out in a storm and a tree, which had two forks, fell on and left him between these forks unharmed. This mule has always been noted for his good grace and small children could drive him and work him. He could draw a buggy filled with the fair sex with great delight and has always been admired by all.

Saturday morning at about 4:30 o'clock telephone bells began to ring and in answering them information was received that the Gold Knob school house was on fire. H. J. Brown, who lives near the school house was awakened about 4:30 to find the primary department almost consumed by fire which soon spread to the principal's room. Mr. Brown ran to a neighbors house for help but when the school house was reached the whole building was enveloped in flames. The building was a two-room structure and caused a large fire which could be plainly seen for several miles. The school was being successfully taught by Miss Mary Lyster as principal and Miss Mollie Holshouser assistant. Just how the fire originated may never be learned. Miss Holshouser had had no fire in her room since noon Friday and had always used every precaution for the safety of the building. The primary classes were in Miss Lyster's room from 8 o'clock on Friday evening. The supposition is that some one, possibly a traveler, who had encountered a bad rainy night had taken refuge and built a fire which caused the loss of the building. A new library had been installed last year and on November 18th of this year 82 patented steel desks had been installed with an outlay of $100. It is estimated that between $50 and $75 worth of school books were lost by the children, some lost all of their books. There was $850 insurance which will cover about half the loss. On Saturday night a meeting of the patrons of the district was held and plans were laid for the erection of another, better and larger building near the present site. John A. Lyster donated an acre to the one P. C. Barger had given which will add much to the school property. Plans and specifications are now under consideration and it is hoped that by February 1st, the building will be ready for use. The flag and Bible, which was presented by the Jr. O. U. A. M. a few years ago, were both lost in the fire. It was pathetic to see the little children crying for their books and talking about their school hours and their teachers.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Caron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side. The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women. In its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.
