He is the man of good dinners, fine music, old relics, fine cock and good things to say about everybody. Long may Venus live may he live to see many more years pass by to write items, boom Faith and say nice things about everybody.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Kuykendall have returned from Asheville where they had been sojourning for their health.

Venus has just had a sketch of the history of his life published and will send a copy to any one on receipt of ten cents in stamps or silver. It is interesting reading.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rineheart and family and Mrs. Geo. Risher visited friends at Kannapolis last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Ship'on were in Faith on a big pounding trip when their minister was remembered by the congregation of the two Lutheran Churches. It was the biggest thing of the kind that Venus had ever seen. Rev. C. P. Fisher was the lucky one to receive the many good things that were brought in.

A lady two miles from Faith has discovered how to get her little chickens to go in out of the rain. We will tell any one how she does it for a two cent stamp. It is no trouble to get one or two hundred chicks with an incubator, but it is hard to raise them; the big rains will drown them. Since this plan has been discovered they can be easily raised.

The Loafers' Council of Rockwell met last Saturday night with about 80 in attendance. They got busy and transferred their president, whose name we can't give at present, to another order up at the cotton mill. Then elected another whose name is George Miller, who we think will make us a good one. Motion was made and carried that all dues paid in should go toward a chicken roast or oyster supper. Those who have paid in are as follows: Evey Misenheimer, Lester Miller, Will Melmore, Jim Trexler, George Holshouser, Clarence B. St. Zeb Goodman, Bob Linker, Julius Frick, W. A. Miller, George Misenheimer, George Miller, and Hub Stikeleather. One of the loafers had a dream at last. He dreamed that Venus had been out eating so many big dinners that he grew so fat that the loafers' union had a big arm chair made for him. It measured six by four feet, which, if it comes to pass, will be duly presented to him.

If you farmers want the largest price for your produce, cash or trade, bring it to Frick & Harrington's at Rockwell, for they are bound to feed the boys.

Newton B. Baker Selected as War Secretary.

Washington, March 6.—Newton B. Baker, former mayor of Cleveland, has been selected by President Wilson for secretary of war.

The selection of Mr. Baker is understood to have been discussed by President Wilson with Colonel House today.

When President Wilson was making up his cabinet in 1918 he offered the place of secretary of interior to Mr. Baker twice. Mr. Baker was then mayor of Cleveland and declined for that reason.

The president and Mr. Baker have been close friends for some time and have corresponded frequently. Mr. Baker is said by his friends to be in close sympathy with the president's policies and is known to have had the support of some members of the cabinet for the war office.

Mr. Baker is 44 years old. He was born in Martinsburg, W. Va., and at the age of 25 was appointed private secretary to Postmaster General Wilson in President Cleveland's cabinet. In 1897 he began the practice of law at Martinsburg. He later moved to Cleveland where he became city solicitor in 1903. He held this office for 10 years until his election as mayor. In 1914 he was re-elected mayor for a two year term.

Mr. Baker has received degrees at Johns Hopkins and Washington and Lee Universities.

Mr. Baker has accepted the position and is now arranging his affairs in Cleveland preparatory to coming to Washington to take up his duties.

Pope's Voice for Peace

Rome, Italy, March 5.—Pope Benedict has again raised his voice for peace. In a special letter, written for the Lenten season, the Pontiff says he cannot sit silent, indifferent to the terrible conflict which is rendering Europe. He recalls that he has done to induce the contending nations to lay down their arms, virtually throwing himself between the belligerents and conjuring them in the name of the Almighty, to desist in their plan of mutual destruction.

The pontiff again sets forth the proposal which he made some months ago, as follows: "Each belligerent should clearly state his desires, but should be ready to make necessary sacrifices of pride and particular interests thus ending the monstrous conflict in accordance with justice and re-establishing peace, advantageous to neither side but profitable to all and therefore a just and lasting peace."

"This paternal voice," continues the Pope, "was not heard. Thus the war continues with all its horrors. I rejoice that our cry for peace has had a profound echo in the hearts of the belligerent peoples, indeed all the people of the whole world, and has aroused a deep desire to the sanguinary conflict soon to cease."

"I must, therefore, once more, raise my voice against this war which appears as the suicide of civilized Europe."

The second part of the letter deals with prayers, penance and alms in the neutral countries, the aims to be devoted especially to the relief of the 'pitiful children of those dead in this horrible war.'

Why bless your soul, Uncle Joe Ballard of Salisbury has been doing pretty much the same thing in his humble way, with about as much effect and with about as much right to be heard and answered. A strong point in favor of Joe's plea is that he does not have to account for any special hostility because of the massacre of St. Bartholomew, the wars, inquisitions, persecutions, etc., waged against protestants. No, Joe is not howling because his own are being murdered and rejoicing when the other are biting the dust, as papal records show the popes have done. Joe's prayers are for all, not merely those of his faith, and consequently, his, Joe Ballard's or that of any true Christian, how ever obscure, is the more acceptable at the throne of Grace.

Hypocrisy, presumption, egotism sham and pretense are very poor circulating mediums in the realms of bliss. Mr. Benedict of course you are not in it, but may you hope to be until the leopard performs the miracle of changing his spots.

The Court of Last Resort. Around the stove of the cross roads grocery is the real court of last resort, for its final verdict rules all others. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been brought before this court in almost every cross roads grocery in this country, and has always received a favorable verdict. It is in the country where man expects to receive full value for his money that this remedy is most appreciated. Obtainable everywhere.

Big Audience Hears Sam Small

Sam Small, the famous Southern Evangelist, editor and lecturer, last Sunday afternoon delivered one of his famous addresses at the Colonial Theatre before an audience that filled the house to its capacity.

The noted lecturer, who is a representative of the National Anti-Saloon League and is out in the interest of National prohibition, held the attention of his listeners by the way in which he denounced the liquor interest. The lecture was of a somewhat humorous nature. Mr. Small believes that he will live to see the United States a saloonless nation, for he declares that National Prohibition is practically his right now.

During his discourse he referred to his first visit to Salisbury twenty five years ago, when this city was "wet" and when sentiment was negligible and interest less than nothing. He said that no place had done better than Salisbury, that far and wide are going the good reports from Salisbury, where the state prohibition laws are being rigidly enforced.

Baxter Showell is Placed Under Arrest. New York, March 8.—Baxter Showell, fifty-eight years old, who has been living at the Hotel Biltmore, this city, was arrested at his office, No. 97 Liberty Street, this evening, by Detective Dehan, of the first branch detective bureau, on a warrant charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses. He was looked up in police headquarters. The warrant was issued from the Garland county circuit court of Hot Springs, Arkansas. It recites that Showell was indicted November 18, 1915, in Hot Springs, on the complaint of John Loggins, proprietor of the Pullman Hotel, Hot Springs. The detectives say $9,000 is involved.

Showell has been New York agent for the Mays Accounting Machine Company for nearly a year. He said the indictment against him grew out of a business transaction, and that the complainant had been interested in the accounting machine company. He said he could easily clear himself of the charges against him, is anxious to go back to Hot Springs, and will waive extradition. He said his permanent home is in Lexington, N. C. and his son is a bank president in Asheville.
