FAITH.

Venus went to Mount Airy Saturday and returned Monday with Mr. and Mrs. John D. A. Fisher in their automobile and it never cost Venus one cent. We took our Kodak and brought Pilot Mountain back with us in our Kodak. We went just for the pleasure of the trip and to get some views. Among them was the new factory at Yaddin, an ox team, mountain range, street scene in Winston-Salem, granite shed and quarry at Mt. Airy, two family groups and others too numerous to mention. We met Mr. and Mrs. John D. Klutz. They are running the Central Hotel in Mt. Airy. We took supper with them Sunday night. They have a big crowd of boarders among them some Salisbury or Rowan County boys, Charley Bost, Will Crawford and Jessie Brown. We met some Rowan boys, Harry Beaver, Car Walton, Charley Walton, Luther Ludwick and others. We spent one night with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Parker. We spent one night with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Beaver, who live near the center of the town.

As we came home from Mt. Airy we passed through Bethania, N. C., Forsyth County, where one of the high schools of that county is located and has over 100 enrolled. Some of the students reside 4 to 5 miles away while others board in town. The high school has a music and domestic science department in connection with it. The old brick Moravian church has a pipe organ of very sweet tone which has been in continuous use since March 1773. This instrument was built in Germany and is as good as when it was first built 143 years ago. The village was settled by Moravians from Germany and Pennsylvania in June, 1759.

R. S. Earnhardt lost a cloth money bag containing $11.85, one $10.00 bill and the balance in change, between Faith and Granite Quarry, October 17th. He will give $1.00 reward to the finder.

H. T. Hess, of Faith, has a pumpkin vine that has 14 pumpkins on it. This beats Stokes Garner, that the Bringle ferry correspondent wrote about.

While Venus was in the mountains he found out how one man made money good and easy, any one can make money just like he makes it and you don't need any capital to start with. Will tell any one how he does for ten cents.

Miss Susie Guann of Lijo, Ga., and Miss Mable Guedin of Philadelphia are visiting Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Welker at the Reformed parsonage at Faith. Miss Guann was a school mate of Mrs. Welker and Miss Guedin is a cousin of Mr. Welker. While here the whole crowd visited Venus' private museum.

It is Venus' birthday the last day of October. Last year we received some nice birthday cards. This year we expect to make a list of them and put it in our items.

A sand blast went off unexpectedly and blew sand in the eyes of Henry Hess and John Bost. John A. Peeler and Mr. Jossy have returned from Norfolk where they went to bid on a big job of street curbing that was let out there a few days ago.

The Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society of the Reformed church will meet at the home of Mrs. Leo Peeler on Saturday before the second Sunday in November. Every member is requested to be present.

Master Earl Peeler, son of Mr and Mrs. A. L. V. Fisher of Salisbury, is visiting his grandparents this week, Mr and Mrs. M. G. M. Fisher at Faith.

Millard Harrell, wife and four children, have moved to Faith from Mt. Airy, N. C., into of M. G. M. Fisher's houses. He works at the granite business.

Young lady at Simpson Carns October 15.

Mrs. P. M. Barger is at the Whitehead-Stokes Sanatorium in Salisbury, where she underwent a very serious operation and is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jones went with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Peeler in their auto to Newton and Star town Saturday and returned Sunday, where they visited friends and relatives.

The orphans' class from Nazareth Orphan's Home gave a fine entertainment at the Reformed church here Sunday night to a packed house. The collection amounted to twenty-one dollars and fifty cents.

John C. Barger and family went up to Mrs. Barger's brother's, John Rodgers, in their auto Saturday evening to spend the night.

Harvey Basinger and family went up in his automobile to visit his wife's parent Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Rodgers, near Summer siding Saturday.

Venus spent Saturday night at Mr. and Mrs. William Walter Canup's. There are 11 in the family. Mrs. Canup is a good cook and sets a fine table. We slept in a good old time feather bed and sat by a big open fire of logs just like old times.

Two of John Bost's big fattening hogs died a week ago and Bob Beaver lost one the same way. They showed no signs of being sick.

John Shuping had a corn shucking Friday night and Chas. Miller had one Thursday night.

Charles Bost has moved his family back home near Faith from Mt. Airy, but he will remain a while and cut granite. He boards at the Central Hotel run by J. D. Klutz, formerly of Granite Quarry.

John D. Brown of Salisbury, has been awarded the contract and is erecting a handsome bungalow for Robert Lyerly on Oak street in Granite Quarry.

D. M. Frick has opened a blacksmith shop in Granite Quarry next to the monumental yard.

YOUNG WOMEN MAY AVOID PAIN

Need Only Trust to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, says Mrs. Kurtzweg.

Buffalo, N. Y.—"My daughter, whose picture is herewith, was much troubled with pains in her back and sides every month and they would sometimes be so bad that it would seem like acute inflammation of some organ. She read your advertisement in the newspapers and tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She is now well and restored to health by this root and herb remedy."

If you know of any young woman who is sick and needs help, please advise, ask her to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Only women will receive her letter, and it will be held in strictest confidence.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill. I wish every suffering woman would give a trial. I still use Cardui when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good.

Headache, backache, side ache, nervousness, tired, worn-out feelings, etc., are sure signs of womanly trouble. Signs that you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. You cannot make a mistake in trying Cardui for your trouble. It has been helping weak, ailing women for more than fifty years.
