Court in Session.

Rowan Superior Court is now in session with Judge Frank Carter, of Asheville, presiding, and a number of cases have been disposed of, but nothing of much importance. The case of Robert Fuller, colored, who was charged with murder in the first degree in having killed his wife on Christmas in 1906, and was caught only a few days ago in South Carolina, was up before Judge Carter Tuesday and Fuller entered a plea of guilty. The sentence has not been passed yet.

DEATHS

Memorial services will be held at Union Lutheran church, five miles east of Salisbury, next Sunday, November 26th, for the late Cicero Kluttz who lost his life when the railroad bridge at Belmont went down during the high waters of last August and whose body has never been recovered.

Fred A Setzer, brother-in-law of Mrs O E Ludwig of Salisbury, died at his home in China Grove Tuesday from the effects of tuberculosis.

Louise, infant daughter of Mr and Mrs J J Miller, who died at their home in Granite Quarry Monday, was interred at Dunn's Mountain Baptist church cemetery Tuesday. The little one had been ill since birth.

The funeral of W M Kontz, who died Saturday afternoon from a stroke of apoplexy, being stricken while about his duties on the Southern Railway yards in Spencer, was conducted from Spencer Presbyterian church by Rev Luther Martin. He is survived by his wife, one son and one daughter.

Joseph A Brady, born September 8th, 1841, departed this life early Monday morning, November 20th, age 75 years, 2 months and 12 days. He leaves a wife, two sons, W A and O M Brady, and five daughters, Mrs Geo A Trexler, Mrs Josie Dry, Miss Jennie, Mary and Lillie Brady. Mr Brady was a native of this county, a member of Riley's Battery during the war and a member of Liberty M. E. church from which the funeral was conducted Monday afternoon. Rev H A Trexler officiating. The interment was in the cemetery at the church. Mr was a splendid citizen, a hard worker and was of a jolly disposition that made him many friends who will regret to learn of his death.

RHEUMATISM AFTER HIS DAY'S OUTING

Hunting Trip On a Wet Day Brings Painful Results.

Once upon a time Charles Mullen, of Philadelphia, went gunning. It was a dismal rainy day, and long exposure to cold and wet brought on a severe attack of rheumatism. He was confined to his home. A friend recommended Sloan's Liniment, citing his own case as evidence of its effectiveness. Mullen bought a bottle and applied it to his aching limbs. Soon improvement was noticed and he was able to return to business. Mr. Mullen writes: "Since that experience I have never been without Sloan's Liniment in the medicine chest." You will find it soothes bruises, sprains, toothache and relieves lameness, neuralgia, in fact all external pains. At all druggists, 25c., 50c. and $1.00 a bottle.
