ROCKWELL

Feb. 5.—Old Mr. Hunt who had the misfortune of a runaway accident between Salisbury and Spencer last Tuesday died last Thursday morning from a fractured skull.

The funeral services were conducted from the house on Friday at 10 o'clock by Rev. J. C. Koons. Interment was in the Rockwell cemetery.

He was 75 years old and leaves a wife and six children all of whom are married.

He was a popular old gentleman and highly respected by all who know him.

On Sunday, January 28th, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Harrington and claimed the spirit of their dear little daughter, Carrie Jarrett, at the tender age of three years, nine months and twenty-three days. The funeral was conducted from Lower Stone Church Monday afternoon at three o'clock by Rev. C. P. Fisher of Faith, and interment was in the cemetery at that place.

Everett Bost, Mrs. H. J. Bost, Mr. and Mrs. George Casper, Mrs. H. E. Huffman and Mrs. Ellen Sifford visited at C. W. Harrington's Sunday.

Rev. H. N. Bodie and daughter have been confined to their rooms with sickness for the week. Miss Bodie is suffering from a severe case of tonsillitis causing blood poison.

Winter Brines Colds to Children.

A child rarely goes through the whole winter without a cold, and every mother should have a reliable remedy handy. Fever, sore throat, tight chest and croupy coughs are sure symptoms. A dose of Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey will loosen the phlegm, relieve the congested lungs and stop the cough. Its antiseptic pine balsams heal and soothe. For croup, whooping cough and chronic bronchial troubles try Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. At all druggists, 25c.

FAITH

Jan. 29.—D. A. Wiley has been awarded the contract to erect a new residence at China Grove for W. L. Ludwick and is there now at work on it.

Venus took dinner Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Shive. Mrs. Shive is an extra fine cook and we got a fine dinner. They have been living at their present home about ten years. They have every thing plenty with an automobile for good measure.

Venus has just discovered one of the best remedies for the piles, a homemade one and will send a bottle full for 75 cent or tell any one how to make it for two dollars.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jones spent Saturday night with Mrs. Jones' sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Shive.

C. L. Shive and family spent Saturday night at John Parks'.

The hearth rock at the old E. Phillips homeplace is seven feet three inches long and two feet broad. Who can beat that?

Venus has discovered how to start a balky horse and will include the plan with his other information and history, for six cents in stamps.

C. J. Shive has got a little boy baby, one year old today, it can run all about, weighs 25 lbs. and commenced walking at ten and a half months old. If you can beat that trot out your little baby.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bame of Barber, died Sunday and was brought to Faith today and buried in the Lutheran cemetery. The burial service was conducted from the Lutheran church by Rev. C. P. Fisher.

J. W. Miller has an old bill of money dated February 20th, 1726. If any one can beat it trot out your money.

You Need a Tonic

There are times in every woman's life when she needs a tonic to help her over the hard places. When that time comes to you, you know what tonic to take—Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is composed of purely vegetable ingredients, which act gently, yet surely, on the weakened womanly organs, and helps build them back to strength and health. It has benefited thousands and thousands of weak, ailing women in its past half century of wonderful success, and it will do the same for you. You can't make a mistake in taking

GARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

Miss Amelia Wilson, R. F. D. No. 4, Alma, Ark., says: "I think Cardui is the greatest medicine on earth, for women. Before I began to take Cardui, I was so weak and nervous, and had such awful dizzy spells and a poor appetite. Now I feel as well and as strong as I ever did, and can eat most anything." Begin taking Cardui today. Sold by all dealers.

tract to get out the granite for the addition to the Eno cotton mill at Hillsboro, and has granite cutters at work on it.

Fisher and McCombs have orders for three car loads of millstones.

When we were up at the sale at Col. John Harkey's, Mrs. Mary A. Overcash, wife of Allison Overcash, told Venus that she had a counterpane made of blue and white by her mother when her mother was 15 years old. She carded and spun the warp and the fling and wove it herself. She was seventy-nine years old when she died and has been dead about forty years. Whoever can beat that for an old counterpane trot it out.

Kin Folks And Friends!

I have ten fingers and ten toes. I can count that much, but I just can't count all my good friends down South here—they are far too many. And I'm mighty proud of them. The men who make me, say you can tell real quality by the company one keeps. Blood will tell. A good name and good breeding count most of all.

And that same, I reckon, applies to cigarettes, too. More and more gentlemen of the South are smoking me, SOVEREIGN, every day, because they know I come from good old Virginia and Carolina stock—the finest, grandest stock in all the world. Quality is the thing, friend—you can't deny it. And I stand for Quality.

You Folks of the South KNOW good blood!
You Folks of the South KNOW good tobacco!

That's why I am so loved among you all down here. So I am proud to say—

I am guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co. —Buy me. If you don't like me return me to your dealer and get your money back. I have said it. A Southern gentleman is known the world over for keeping his word, and I have given you mine.
