Mr. Shuping is the owner of Rock roller mill and has a good custom. His flour can't be beat in this country. We got a fine dinner. Their boy has a lot of bees. They have a ladies with their escorts decorbydraulic ram that puts the water in the house and milk house near the kitchen. He has a home made auger, 21 inches. Who can beat that?

We visited the Taylor mattress factory in Salisbury and found James D Heilig, the manager, a mighty busy man. We were surprised to see how fast they could make mattresses. The machinery is run by electric power. We saw all the different parts in operation and the mattresses turned out ready for sale.

lawyer J R McCrary of Lexington, trustee of the Boone associa tion. came over in Mr McCrary's car to Faith to see Venus and his collection.

JT Wyatt has an old large copper kettle with letters and a date on the handle. He bough it 17 years ago at Milas Shuping's sale and it belonged to Milas Shuping's father, Micheal Shuping, and is very old. It was used to make apple butter

A man from near Bostian's X Roads was in Faith today who had an old-time deed for 36 acres of land dated Dec. 16th, 1791 No. 2255. The land was bought for ten pounds. Who can tell us how much that was? (about 848-Ed.) Griffith Rutherford was surveyor at the time.

We notice that Carolina has found a wheat cradle 125 years old. That beats us at present.

In the yard at W A Shuping's is a redoak tree 13 feet and three inches around. Who ever can beat it trot out your tree.

Pearl Wyatt of Rockwell is visiting her uncle and aunt in Salisbury, Mr. and Mrs. J M Wyatt.

John W May of Hannahsville. N. C., had a fine exhibit of curios at the Daniel Boone cabin some years ago when Venus was there with a wagon load of curios.

Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Fesper man are here on a visit to relatives and to attend the sale of the late P A Peeler's property. D A Wiley is making bee gums and hiving his bees along now. Chal. Eagle was in Faith today in his new automobile.

R A Raney & Son have just bought a motor wagon to delivr groceries to their customers. Barger has one at his store.

Robert Stirewalt the acropat man of China Grove, is in Faith. He is a mighty good barber.

Charley Raney has just had his residence repainted.

Wm. Wyatt and A Redwine are planting corn and beans in their bottom lands.

John Raney of, New York, ar. rived in Faith last nght to see his people and will remain here for some time perhaps.

Junius Fesperman has opened a fine ice cream parlor in one of the store rooms in Robert Stire. walt's big building next room to the barber shop restaurant.

D A Wiley is mowing a field of lover for George Peeler with his machine and two horses

Venus would like to know where he could hire seven young men to work in Montgomery County. Want them all at one time. Send two-cent stamp for more information to Venus, Sal-
