Ireland Changes its Feeling About the War.

London, May 28.—According to stories printed in the morning papers, there has been a complete revision of feeling toward the war in the south and southwest of Ireland, as a consequence of recent attacks by the German submarines on Irish fishing fleets.

A number of fishing boats have been sunk, and the victims of one attack off Baltimore, say that the Germans told them they had already sunk the Kinsale and Waterford fleets, and would soon put all Irish fishing boats to the bottom of the sea because they sent fish to England. They also threatened to shell the villages on the coast.

Mill Bridge Boy Killed by a Falling Tree.

Everett, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam A Carrigan of near Mill Bridge, met with a serious accident Monday afternoon when a tree on his father's place fell on him, causing his death that night. The little fellow was rushed to a sanatorium in this city, but his injuries were such that death followed within a few hours. His back was badly mashed and he was otherwise injured. The remains were prepared for burial here and taken to the home of his parents and the funeral took place at Thyatira Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon and the interment being in the church cemetery.

A fire had originated in a piece of woods on his father's place when he, in company with several men, were at work endeavoring to put out the fire. The boy attempted to push over a tree that had partly burned at the base and when the tree fell caught the little fellow beneath the force of which seriously injured his back. He was extricated immediately and, seeing that he was seriously hurt, he was hurried to the sanatorium.

The affair was a most distressing one and the parents, who are among Western Rowan's best people, have the sympathy of a host of friends. The boy was well liked by all who knew him.

CHRISTIANA

The hail did much damage through this section last week. Fruit and vegetation are damaged and some of the wheat is ruined.

Farmers are having much trouble to get a stand of cotton. At this time the prospect of a full crop is not much over 25 per cent.

D S Brown and Sons are trying their hands on improved farming. They have a plot of about 89 acres on which they put nine tons of pulverized lime last fall, sowed in crimson clover seed, turned that under this spring, harrowed, rolled, run off and subsoiled and planted it with guano. They have gone over it about several times this spring. The corn is now ready to come up. If the Lord will favor them with a season and protection they should reap a fair crop of corn. But we should remember the increase comes from the Lord, and without his blessings our labors are in vain.

Health is fairly good at this writing. VIOLA.

Clint N Brown, son of the late Adam M Brown, a native of this county and a popular and useful citizen, died at his home, about two and a half miles south of Salisbury on the Concord road, some time Thursday night. That night between 9 and 10 o'clock Mr. Brown returned home after a visit to his neighbor, J H Bringle, in good spirits and apparently in fair health, although he has been a sufferer for some time with indigestion.

His residence adjoined the Mulberry school and a neighbor called early Friday morning to get the school house key, being unable to arouse Mr. Brown the matter was reported to his brother, I D Brown, who, after effecting an entrance through a window, discovered his brother lying on the bed with his clothes on dead. Death, it is thought, was due either to an attack of acute indigestion or heart disease, and as he lived alone, no one was with him in his last hours. The funeral was held from St. Paul's E L Church Sunday afternoon with Rev. M M Kinard, Salisbury, officiating, and Rev. R S Sowers of Organ church and Rev. Troutman assisting. Some seven or eight hundred people attended the service to pay their last respects to their friend and neighbor. The interment was in the cemetery near the church. G W Wright, the undertaker, being in charge. Mr. Brown was nearly 59 years old and was an active and useful citizen. He was reared on the farm, taught school and was connected with the Salisbury Sun and later editor of the Salisbury Post from which he retired some years ago and returned to the life of a farmer. He was a member of the Lutheran church and of Mulberry Local, Farmer's Union, and was actively interested in the progressive and uplifting movements in his neighborhood. Mr. Brown was a man of good judgment and sound convictions and had the courage to express them. He had many close friends and was known and loved by a very large percentage of Rowan's citizenship. Surviving are four brothers, H M, C M, T C and T D Brown, and one sister, Mrs. H T Holshouser, of Spencer.

Board of Aldermen Meet.

The board of alderman held a meeting last Thursday night and considerable business was attended to among which was the following.

Bids were opened for the purchase of $75,000 worth of street bonds, Harris Forkes and Co. of New York, being the successful purchaser. It is said they brought a premium.

A new paying district, No 4 was created and extends from the old city limits on Fulton Street to a point where Main connects with Fulton. This street is to be laid with bitulithic from curb and the cost thereof will amount to about the same as confiscating the homesteads of some of the residents, they being compelled by so-called law to pay for one third of the same. Another district to be known as No 5, was created which begins at Shober's bridge thence south east on Kerr street to Fulton, thence southwest on Fulton to the city limits, connecting with district No 4. This is also to be laid in bitulithic. The city bears one-third of the cost and the property owners two-thirds. It was ordered that the contractor be urged to hurry the construction of the West Ward public school building so as to have it in readiness for the fall term.

Proper Food for Weak Stomachs.

The proper food for one man may be all wrong for another. Every one should adopt a diet suited to his age and occupation. Those who have weak stomachs need to be especially careful and should eat slowly and masticate their food thoroughly. It is also important that they keep their bowels regular. When they become constipated or when they feel dull and stupid after eating they should take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the stomach and move the bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

We see that some fellows want the suffragettes to join the army. Man, you cannot expect our good women to stand fire simply because they are accustomed to face powder.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

No Relief—Mrs. Brown Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains.

A friend who is a nurse asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home."—Mrs. W. C. Brown, 2344 W. 12th St., Cleveland, Ohio.
