

PAINS SHARP AND STABBING

Woman Thought She Would Die. Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Ogdensburg, Wis.—"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." —Mrs. ERRA DORON, Ogdensburg, Wis. Physicians undoubtedly did their best, battled with this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

Mild Protest.
"Gladys," said Mr. Comrox, "what's the idea of these extravagant clothes and the face make-up?"
"We can't ignore the fashion. I don't want to be different and conspicuous."
"Maybe it's all right. But it does seem to me that in a community that is still peaceable there's no need of so much camouflage."

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN!

Cincinnati man tells how to dry up a corn or callus so it lifts off with fingers.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted off, root and all, without pain. A small bottle of freezone costs very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin. If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house.—adv.

Getting Old Too Fast?

Late in life the body shows signs of wear and often the kidneys weaken first. The back is lame, bent and achy, and the kidney action distressing. This makes people feel older than they are. Don't wait for dropsy, gravel, hardening of the arteries or Bright's disease. Use a mild kidney stimulant. Try Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands of elderly folks recommend them.

A North Carolina Case

Mrs. M. B. Perkins, 302 Roundtree St., Wilson, N. C., says: "I suffered from pains through the small of my back and was caused no end of annoyance by my kidneys acting irregularly. Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of the pains and aches and benefited me in every way. I am troubled very little by my back or kidneys now."

The Red Cross Christmas seal stands for one of the greatest undertakings of our day, and a work that everyone can help along. Miss Boardman says in "Under the Red Cross Flag:"
"The charter of the American Red Cross places the duty upon it of mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence and the devising of measures to prevent the same. No more dangerous and insidious pestilence exists than that which is called the great white plague—no country or nation is free from its ravages. It requires not only the skill of the specialists to combat it, but the earnest co-operation of the entire nation, rich and poor, old and young."

During the past seven years over $3,800,000 have been raised by the sale of the Christmas seal for active work in combating tuberculosis. Ninety per cent of the profits on the sale of seals belongs to the community in which they are sold. The remaining ten per cent goes to the Red Cross and is used to defray the expenses of printing seals, posters, and other advertising matter. If any money remains after these things are paid for, it is divided between the Red Cross and the National Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

The seal was launched in this country by Mr. Jacob Rills, who lost one after another of six brothers with tuberculosis. One day near Christmas, 1906, Mr. Rills received a letter from his old home in Denmark which, carried besides regular postage many new strange stamps. He discovered that these stamps were sold to help the Danish people battle against tuberculosis. He wrote about this stamp in the Outlook a forceful article which fell into the hands of Miss Bissell, and she took the idea up in order to raise funds for antituberculosis work needed in Delaware, and this set of circumstances—the Danish stamp, Mr. Rills' letter, the need of money in Delaware, and Miss Bissell's insight and initiative, led to the Red Cross Christmas seal.
When we come to realize that the white plague kills an army of a hundred and fifty thousand people every year, we also realize that it is a calamity to rank with war. Tuberculosis is a preventable disease, and the Red Cross has entered the battle against it. The Christmas seals have had an immense educational value and are witnesses to its benevolent strength.

Conservative Styles in Suits.

The frame of mind in which the world of fashion finds itself just now does not encourage the unusual or conspicuous in styles, and new suits and coats reflect this mood. There is no lack of variety, however, in suits. Colors are quiet and rich, lines graceful and designing leans toward simplicity. In other words, styles are conservative, and for that reason the new suits presented for fall have about reached the apex of excellence. In colors what are called the glove shades are favored. They include brown, taupe, mouse, castor, gray and tan. There is a shade of brown with a hint of wine in it and a platinum gray that are especially effective in satin or other high-luster goods. The liveliest colors appear in shades of amethyst and dark wine color. There is a considerable range in amethyst shades and they are most beautiful. Dark blue, it goes without saying, is well represented in suits, as it is every season.

The suit of taupe broadcloth shown above is typical of fall styles. Its shirt is plain and correct as to length and width. The coat is long, with plaits laid in at each side furnishing sufficient fullness, and flat pockets of the material. The collar and cuffs are made of a fur fabric the cuffs pointed and set on to plain sleeves. Bands of broadcloth are applied at the edge of the collar and fastened down with buttons sewed to them.
In view of the certainty in the supply of wool and the certainty that prices of woolen goods will go up rather than down, suits shown early probably represent the best values that the season will have to offer.

Untrimmed Chiffon Frock.
There is a kind of demi-tollette which shares honors with black satin and is far easier to wear, and that is the untrimmed chiffon frock. A chiffon frock may be had in flower shades, such as hydrangea blues, orchid shades, cool, clear greens and odd blue violets. These single colors may be supplemented by a contrasting touch of color. A lovely chiffon frock is of hydrangea blue with an odd dash of mulberry velvet.—Vanity Fair.

To Brighten Gold.
Golo Jewelry may be cleansed by being placed for half an hour in a bowl of warm water to which a generous quantity of ammonia has been added. Stir the jewelry round in the water for a moment, then cover the bowl and let it stand.

Lawn and Gingham Useful.
Gingham has been revived after a long absence, and very welcome it is. Jumper coats or shirt blouses of gingham beat all records in the way of wear.
Duster check lawn is another useful medium. This makes into the most delightful shirts, especially when these fasten down the front with mammoth crocheted buttons. A checked material can be the most hideous as well as the most charming fabric, but some now seen are nothing short of fascinating in rose and white, blue and white, sulphur and white. Rather a pretty notion is a shirt of "cherry-red and white checked lawn worn with a cerise-colored linen skirt cut on the plain, simple straight lines as the best-made skirts still are, and bound round the hem with a narrow check border.

TAKES THE PLACE OF DANGEROUS CALOMEL

New Discovery! Dodson's Liver Tone Acts Like Calomel But Doesn't Gripe, Salivate or Make You Sick—Don't Lose a Day's Work—Harmless Liver Medicine for Men, Women, Children—Read Guarantee!

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.
Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated, or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight.
Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.—Adv.

"Got a mother, or a sister, or a brother, or a wife?"
"No."
"Then what do you want exemption for?"
"Because I belong to the naval coast defense service," he replied, "and I just got a letter telling me to report at once for foreign service."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Twins?
Two young boys were discussing the identity of a certain man who kept a store in their neighborhood.
"He is," the slim one, or the one who has whiskers," the first youngster was saying. "He doesn't wear glasses, either."
"Oh, he must be Mr. Jones," answered the other.
"Who is Mr. Jones look like?" demanded the first boy.
"Well," responded the one questioned, "he looks a lot like Mr. Smith. Yep, he does. I think they must be brothers."

"Mamma," exclaimed the little girl next door as she ran into the kitchen of her own home, "mamma, Mrs. Jones has an illustrated tooth!"
Her mother laughed.
"A what?" she asked.
"An illustrated tooth; one that makes your face swell up real big."
Her mother laughed again, and harder. "You mean an ulcerated tooth," she corrected.
Her father heard of the incident and thought he would question her, too.
"Did you say Mrs. Jones had the mumps?" he queried.
"No," began the little girl again. "She has an illustrated tooth."
Her father laughed, and corrected her.
"Daddy," she remonstrated solemnly, "I don't see why you laugh when Mrs. Jones has an ulcer—I mean—illustrated tooth!"—Indianapolis News.

In all weathers the skin and complexion can be kept wonderfully clear, soft and white by the use of this inexpensive lemon lotion which any girl or woman can easily prepare.
The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quarter pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Important Discovery.
Commercial and technical papers are printing an article from Manchester, England, in which it is said that an English chemist has succeeded in devising a method by which atmospheric nitrogen may be fixed in England at a cost low enough to make the process commercially practicable and that it is in operation on a small scale. That has not been possible heretofore because England lacks the abundant and cheap water power required for the generation of electricity.
