FAITH.

Oct. 26.—Miss Sallie Woodward of Portsmouth, Va., is visiting Misses Rattie Howell, Ruth Sides and Roy Pless, all of near Boston Cross Roads.

Venus took in the Rowan county fair one day. We met lots of our old friends.

We met one man at the fair who wore shoes 14 1/2 inches long. Can any one beat that.

Venus' birthday comes on October 31st and he is looking for a shower of birthday post-cards as usual from readers of his items from all parts of the country and France and other countries. His items go to many parts of the world and he gets lots of mail from across the ocean.

Lots of people are going from Faith today to P. A. Hartman's sale, near Union church.

Venus just got a fine post card from one of his readers at Massillon, Ohio, here it is: a visit to McKinley National Memorial, Canton, Ohio. It was from C. E. Stahl.

Clarence Klutz has had a new residence built and is in it.

J. T. Wyatt has shipped more paint mills to grind paint than any one in this county and still they come.

Bill Barger is selling out at his store here.

We notice that the correspondent from Eastern Cabarrus has beat us on the pumpkin again. They found one that measured 59 by 69 inches so we give it up.

The free school here at Faith starts the second Monday in November. All the parents are requested to have their children ready for the opening school.

Lot of new cotton is going through Faith today to market. VENUS.

President Endorsed Woman Suffrage in States.

President Wilson has given full endorsement to woman suffrage as an immediate issue in every State. Addressing a delegation of 100 leaders of the New York State Woman Suffrage party, who called at the White House to obtain an expression in support of the campaign in that State, the President in emphatic terms declared that woman suffrage is one of the fundamental questions of democracy whose proper settlement is demanded by the issues of the war. He praised the spirit, capacity and vision of American women in the war.

"I believe," he said, "that just because we are quickened by the questions of this war, we ought to be quickened to give this question of woman suffrage our immediate consideration."

Speaking as "one of the spokesmen of a great party," the President pledged his hearty support, and added: "I want to speak for myself and say that it seems to me that this is the time for the States of this Union to take this action."

War Won't Stop For Winter.

Washington military experts do not expect winter to halt the great allied drive against the Germans in Flanders, although this doubtless depends in some degree on the severity of the weather. Secretary Baker's weekly review of war operations discloses the belief of the War Department that plenty of material and men will enable the British and French commanders to overcome natural obstacles and continue to force the enemy backward without waiting for spring.

The review touches for the first time upon the American expeditionary forces in France, declaring that the men after three months intensive training, are in efficient fighting trim and splendid physical condition.

In dwelling upon the importance of the battle of Flanders and its effect upon the morale of the Germans, the war secretary declares it apparent that the German high command planned the recent expedition against the Russians in the Riga sector in order to bolster up morale and meet impending internal difficulties. By extending her lines in the east, he adds, Germany has merely added to the length of her line of communications and increased confidence in the final allied victory.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas in the providence of Almighty God, he has seen fit to remove from our midst our brother and co-worker, S. C. Beck, a faithful and loyal member of Winona Council, No. 18, Jr. O. U. A. M., one who was ever ready to do a man's part in and out of our noble order, therefore be it

Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to Him, who doeth all things well, acknowledge his sublime wisdom and recognize the fact that our brother has only passed from the trials and tribulations of this veil of tears to the mansions on high and unto the realms of eternal bliss and

Resolved, That in the loss of our brother our council is deeply grieved, that we shall strive to emulate his virtues, extend sincere sympathy to his sorrowing loved ones and bid them to look unto the Great Councilor of the Universe for the comfort that only He can give and, for the re-union in the world to come, and

Resolved, That the charter of our Council be draped, that these resolutions be spread upon our minutes and that copies be sent to the family and be published in his memory.

NERVOUSNESS AND BLUES

Symptoms of More Serious Sickness.

Washington Park, Ill.—"I am the mother of four children and have suffered with female trouble, headache, nervous spells and the blues. My children's loud talking and romping would make me so nervous I could just tear everything to pieces and I would ache all over and feel so sick that I would not want anyone to talk to me at times. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills restored me to health and I want to thank you for the good they have done me. I have had quite a bit of trouble and worry but it does not affect my youthful looks. My friends say 'Why do you look so young and well?' I owe it all to the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies." —Mrs. ROBT. STORIEL, Sage Avenue, Washington Park, Illinois.

If you have any symptom about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free of charge.

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY COMPANY

An Ambition and a Record. THE needs of the South are identical with the needs of the Southern Railway; the growth and success of one means the upbuilding of the other. The Southern Railway asks no favors—no special privilege not accorded to others. The ambition of the Southern Railway Company is to see that unity of interest that is born of co-operation between the public and the railroads; to see perfected that fair and frank policy in the management of railroads which invites the confidence of governmental agencies; to realize that liberality of treatment which will enable it to obtain the additional capital needed for the acquisition of better and enlarged facilities incident to the demand for increased and better service; and, finally— To take its niche in the body politic of the South alongside of other great industries, with no more, but with equal liberties, equal rights and equal opportunities. "The Southern Serves the South."
