Entered as second-class matter January 19th, 1905, at the postoffice at Salisbury, N. C., under the act of Congress of March 3rd, 1879.

Salisbury, N. C., May 1 1918

THE WATCHMAN thinks this is the wrong time to begin the costly and unnecessary sanitary campaign being agitated by the non-resident health officer of the county and now being considered by the board of aldermen. This man's picture is greatly overdrawn and the expense is prohibitive to so many families as to make a compliance with such an ordinance impossible, besides the people concerned and who have the alienable right to say what shall and what shall not be done, have not asked for such legislation. If Democracy and the fundamentals of this government mean anything at all, their wishes should guide the aldermen in important matters of this kind. The people can keep their closets clean now as heretofore and use the money saved in the purchase of Liberty Bonds. Secretary McAdoo is earnestly urging that every unnecessary expense should be laid aside for the present in order to buy bonds and win the war and then consider such matters at leisure.

Information Wanted.

Any information relative to Miss—Basilton who married—Brown—1776, will be appreciated by the Watchman. He was a Revolutionary soldier and his family is now living in Ohio, stated the above and that he was buried in one of the old grave yards here. He had two daughters, Rebecca married Robinson, and Ruth married Jacob Kiler, and moved to Frederick, Md.
