

The Wilson Advance.

G. G. WILLIAMS, Editor. FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1876.

GENERAL COX. His Election put to Shame.

We published the fact last week that General Cox, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, had been arrested on a false accusation, and carried to Wilmington to be tried before a United States Commissioner.

There was no truth or foundation for the charge preferred. It was a desperate conspiracy on the part of certain Radicals to make political capital by intimidation.

When the Committee met on the 15th inst, the quarrel was going on. The News after its long silence had been forced into it again by the persistent attacks of the Sentinel.

THE RALEIGH BIRINGBLED.

Dr. Howerton, Secretary of State, who has been accused of swindling the State, publishes a card in the Raleigh Sentinel in vindication of himself, and charges Col. Walter Clark with making discreditable propositions to him in regard to printing.

Dr. Howerton, in his official capacity, bought stationery for the State, and presented his account to the Auditor at figures far above the value of the articles.

NO TIME FOR WRANGLING.

The Democratic Executive Committee at its recent meeting unanimously adopted a resolution, declaring that the welfare of the party imperatively demanded that the warfare between the Sentinel and News should cease.

On this subject, the ADVANCE has already spoken in plain terms. Under the caption, "Harmony at the Centre," we respectfully appealed to our contemporaries several months ago to turn their batteries against the corruptions of the Radical party, and stop quarrelling with each other.

When the Committee met on the 15th inst, the quarrel was going on. The News after its long silence had been forced into it again by the persistent attacks of the Sentinel.

SENATOR RANSOM.

The strategy of the Radicals to protect themselves against the assaults of the Democrats is to assault leading men of our party without regard to truth or justice, but simply for the purpose of withdrawing attention from their own leaders now on trial before the bar of public opinion.
