People shoot and kill each other in Texas as usual. A Mr. W. R. Lance tried his hand on his neighbor Mr. Wm. Carne recently and was successful.

The Postmaster General has issued an order prohibiting merchants, manufacturers, inventors and their agents from sending through the mails, printed advertising cards, of various shapes and sizes, with one cent stamp affixed.

Justice Swayne, of the U. S. Supreme Court denies that he ever wrote the opinion of the Garfield matter attributed to him. The charge against Garfield however, of receiving the $5000 in the De Golyer paving contract, is not affected by this denial, and remains the same.

Dr. Tanner, the Champion faster, continues to receive all sorts of letters, sympathetic, scientific and otherwise. Of the former class, the Government Officeholders at Washington City, were the last to offer their sympathy. They say, they "know how it is to eke out an existence on a diet of water."

THE DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN

We clip the following sensible article under the above-caption from the New York Herald of a recent date. While there is nothing as to it to discourage the most ardent democrat, there is much to cause the unreflecting to consider well the strength of the enemy we have to meet. It is very gratifying to witness the enthusiasm with which the democratic nomination has been hailed throughout the country, also the numerous defections of leading republicans and their hearty endorsement of Hancock and English. But it should not be forgotten that we have to encounter "a powerful, proud, compact organization," with all the power and patronage of the government at its disposal. Governor Lyman Trumbull of Illinois uttered the keynote to the canvass when he said in the recent democratic convention of that State, "It is not Garfield and Arthur, but the republican party we have to defeat." he Herald says:

To trust the talk in their conferences and the boasts in their newspaper organs one would imagine that the canvass is a "walk over," that the four intervening months before election are as one day, and that all that remains to be done by or for Gen. Hancock is to pack his trunk and sit on a lid, waiting for an expressman to take it to Washington and deliver it to the White House.

The powerful, proud, compact organization of the Republicans, flushed with five successive presidential triumphs, experienced in all the methods by which electoral results are achieved and led by sagacious politicians, whose office, emoluments, influence, reputation, all hang in the balance, is not to be ousted by a mere hurrah or by the beating of tom-toms. The walls of its Jericho will not tumble at the blast of rams' horns, and its ramparts are held by veteran troops directed by competent commanders. Does any sane and sober Democrat want to comprehend the strength of the Republican array which must be met and vanquished before a Democratic President can reach the White House? Let him remember the magnificent persistence with which Gen. Grant's delegates sustained his cause in the Chicago convention; let him also remember the skill with which their solid square was flanked in the rapid manœuvre which resulted in Gen. Garfield's nomination and then let him reflect that all the formidable political fighting qualities which were displayed on both sides in that combat will be united in this canvass as North and South, East and West in our common country, whatever their domestic sectional discordances, would unite against a foreign enemy. If Gen. Grant had been successful at Chicago, perhaps Democrats might have counted upon a dissolution of the Republican organization somewhat like that which befell their own in 1860. But it is useless to speculate about a collapsed contingency. The occasion for a break-up was avoided, and every Republican faction is forming into a common line of battle.

PARTY INTEGRITY.

The State is now democratic in all its departments, and its remaining so, depends upon whether the party is true to its principles and shows itself worthy of the people's confidence. If it neglects its organization and thus encourages discord and division, the ambition and selfishness, of would be leaders, may ultimately break it down. This danger must be jealously guarded against. The people must look to it and look to it continually. From the days of Thomas Jefferson until now the path of the democratic party has been strewn with the wrecks of apostates and traitors. And this must ever be so as long as it subordinates men to principles. As long as it discourages personalism in politics and insists upon, and maintains a rigid party organization. Who that remembers those dark days—the years of anxiety and suffering that intervened between the close of the war and the restoration of the democratic party to power, can be indifferent to the importance of party integrity and the value of party organization.

WESTERN N. C. RAILROAD.

Considerable uneasiness has been felt along the line of the Western North Carolina railroad in consequence of the prolonged absence of Mr. Best in New York. Whatever the financial troubles may have been, which have occasioned his protracted absence, Maj. Wilson assures the public through the Charlotte Observer, that his contract will be carried out and all the different payments met, in a few days. This will be gratifying news to the employees of the road and other creditors, who have very naturally felt a deep concern in his movements of late. Major Wilson now in New York telegraphs the Observer as follows: "From unforeseen circumstances Mr. Best has been delayed in meeting his obligations in connection with the Western North Carolina Railroad, but I have no hesitancy in saying that his contract will be carried out and payments met in a few days."

POLITICAL NOTES.

Hon. A. M. Waddell, of this State addressed the Democratic State Convention of Vermont last Wednesday.

Judge Buxton sent his resignation to the Governor last Friday, which was accepted. It takes effect August 1st.

Hon. John Goode says Hancock can carry Virginia by 20,000 majority in any contingency. In the event of a compromise, which does not seem probable, he puts the Democratic majority at 50,000.

A Raleigh News special, dated Kennesville, July 24th, says: "Had a grand time to-day. We unfurled the Hancock, Jarvis and Shackelford flag. Col. Kenan, our honored countyman, made us a capital speech, and the campaign in old Duplin opens with enthusiasm."

Our types got D. A. Jenkins and A. D. Jenkins mixed. A. D., the Republican candidate for State Treasurer, was Kirk's paymaster. D. A. was treasurer of the State. A. D. was breveted colonel on the field, in the Holden-Kirk war, for conspicuous gallantry in charging the First National Bank of Raleigh. He captured $30,000.—Charlotte Observer.

The Democrats of this district will hold their Congressional Convention at Plymouth on the 12th of August. Every indication points to the nomination of Major Latham—Elizabeth City Economist.

The contest between Maj. Robbins and Col. Armfield for the nomination for Congress in this district has aroused some bitter feeling between the partisans of these two gentlemen Winston Sentinel.

Col. Thos. S. Kenan, Attorney General, and Dr. J. M. Worth, State Treasurer, will address the people at Grantham's Store, on Saturday, August 14th. The people of the surrounding country are respectfully invited. The fiat has gone forth that Mr. Hubbs must be beaten in his Congressional aspirations. The Republicans refuse to recognize him as their candidate.—Look out for squalls in the Republican camp.—Goldsboro Messenger.

The Campaign.

A joint Canvass has been agreed upon between Governor Jarvis and Judge Buxton. They will open the ball at Kennesville Duplin county Aug. 3rd. Governor Jarvis will address the people at Clinton, Sampson county, Saturday, July 31st. There will be a joint discussion between Governor Jarvis and Judge Buxton at the following places: At Kennesville Duplin county, Tuesday, August 31. At Jacksonville, Onslow county, Wednesday, August 4th. At Trenton, Jones county, Thursday August 5th. At Kingston, Lenoir county, Saturday August 7th.

Some other of the State canvassers will be with him at all of these appointments. Attorney General Kenan will address the people at the following times and places: Rocky Mount, Edgecombe county, Friday, July 30. Griffin's Nash county, Thursday, August 5th. Nashville, Nash county, Friday, August 6th. Grantham's, Wayne county, Saturday, August 14th. Meadows, Johnston county, Monday August 16th. Superintendent Scarborough will also speak at Meadows on the 16th.

A Lady's Wish.

"Oh, how I do wish my skin was clear and soft as yours," said a lady to her friend "You can easily make it so," answered the friend. "How?" inquired the first lady. "By using Hop Bitters," that makes pure rich blood and blooming health. It did it for me, as you observe." Read of it.
