Tanner is making the fastest time on record.

Campaign oratory now is heard in the land.

Question for the hot weather: "How is Dr. Tanner?"

"The world is full of them"—candidates we mean.

Marriages does the man; the woman was and before.

Col. Thos. S. Kenan will speak in Rocky Mount to-day.

The County Commissioners will meet in the Court House Monday.

For whom was Eve made? For Adam's Express Company.

The smaller the husband the bigger the trouble he makes his wife.

Rev. W. L. Cunningham has been holding a protracted meeting at Pleasant Grove.

Read the advertisement of J. F. Farmer offering a valuable house and lot for sale.

Dr. Tanner entered upon his 31st day's fast Wednesday apparently bright and in good spirits.

Since the introduction of false teeth the ratio of good looking women has increased 50 per cent.

Mrs. Moon is holding a series of protracted meetings at New Sharon church near Hillsboro.

Mr. S. R. Alby will reopen his photograph gallery next week. Now is the time to get good pictures.

A preacher at Cherokee advocates the introduction of lady officers in church, to make the young men attend.

We trust that a large number of our citizens will turn out to-night and aid in organizing a library association.

We cannot understand how Dr. Tanner can resist the tempting watermelons which are now so plentiful and so cheap. But he says that as soon as his fortieth day is ended he will eat a watermelon. Sensible man.

We call the attention of our readers to the commissioners notice which compels all hucksters and cider vendors to pay a privilege tax. After 10 days this ordinance will be in force and it would be well to comply with it.

We call special attention to the advertisement of M. S. B. Farmer who offers his farm near this place for sale. This is an excellent opportunity for any person who desires to settle near Wilson to purchase a nice farm. Read the advertisement.

A copy or grant of letters patent by the U. S. to me on the 27th was dropped on the street between Green's hardware and Griffin & Murray's factory on the 29th ult. The finder will be suitably rewarded for its return.

Strange.

Mr. Wm. High, of Old Fields town ship has twenty-eight children and grand children, and he says there has not been a single death in his family. We do not know that we have ever heard of such a healthy family. Mr. High is indeed blessed.

Wednesday at Stantonburg.

Our Stantonburg friends had a big time Wednesday. Mr. Chas. B. Aycock made a stirring speech which reflected great credit on so young a speaker. All who heard the speech speak glowingly of it. Arrangements were made for a grand mass meeting and public dinner for September 15th.

Death of a Former Citizen.

Mr. Lewis Rountree, brother of Mr. Moses Rountree of this place, died at his home in Vahosta, Georgia, Wednesday, July 21st, very suddenly of heart disease. Mr. Rountree left this place in the early part of the war and settled in Georgia where he has been living since. His friends in North Carolina were shocked to hear of his sudden death. He was 46 years old.

To Night.

There will be a mass meeting of the citizens of Wilson in the court house to-night at half past eight o'clock for the purpose of forming a library association. Some of our citizens are endeavoring to form a town library and we trust that every one, old and young, will be present and lend their aid and cooperation in establishing a library which will be a credit to our town.

It is a Beauty.

What's a beauty? Why the new dental chair which Dr. R. W. Joyner has just purchased. The fact is, it is so pretty and comfortable that in passing and looking at it we almost wish we had the toothache just to get a chance to sit in that chair. No wonder the poet said, as he looked at the doctor's new chair:

"I love it, I love it and who shall dare
To divide me for loving that dental chair."
And the doctor is a skillful dentist.
Try him.

Died.

Revolution in the Price of Shoes.

To those persons who have been in the habit of buying Northern made shoes on account of the high prices heretofore charged for home made ones Mr. A. B. O'Neil desires to state that he has brought the prices of shoes down to the lowest figures. He quotes the following prices and warrants all his work: New boots $5.50 to $6.50, footings $4.50 to $5.00, high gaiters $5.00 to $5.50, low gaiters and tie shoes $3.50 to $5.00, half spooling $4 to 50 cents. American calf and kip boots and shoes furnished cheaper.—Repairing done cheaply and at short notice. His new shop is next door to Rountree, Barnes & Co., over J. T. McCraws.

Improvements.

Lewis Washington, the house mover is at work moving the house formerly used as a residence by Mr. H. C. Wilkins to the vacant corner on Tarboro and Vance streets. Rountree, Barnes & Co. will commence at once building two large stores on this site which will be hurried to completion so as to be ready for occupation in time for the fall trade.

Work has already begun on the two stores which Mr. A. J. Hines is having built on Barnes street near the Primitive Baptist church. These stores will be completed in good time for the fall season when they will both be occupied.

From present indications it looks as if there will be more business activity in Wilson this fall than at any previous time in its history.

The Mordcau Hagans Homicide.

Suspicion having been aroused by the gossip of some irresponsible parties against Mr. J. Frank Eatman and others, relative to the murder of 'Mord' Hagans, Mr. Eatman was naturally very much shocked and mortified. He at once appeared before Mr. T. C. Davis, a justice of the peace for this county, and requested that the matter might receive the most thorough investigation. He also employed counsel, with instructions to search the matter to the bottom and bring out all the facts, regardless of their effects on him. The sheriff was dispatched to the neighborhood of the homicide, with instructions to summon all witnesses who could throw any light on the tragedy. The result was the triumphant acquittal of Mr. Eatman and the other suspected parties of the slightest taint of blame or guilt. It appeared that on the night when 'Mord' was killed his old, half idiotic wife received a severe beating and she charged the same on Mr. Pearson Eatman. The old woman testified that she was twenty two years and six months old (she appeared to be about seventy) and that she saw the perpetrators of the outrage by the moon-light about two o'clock in the night. (The moon set that night at one minute past nine.) She further stated that while the beating was going on she threatened to call on "Mars Frank Eatman"—"this acquitting him of complicity and showing her confidence in his justice and friendship. Pearson Eatman was bound over to court for assaulting the old woman. The justices who conducted the trial, the counsel who assisted and the sheriff who investigated the matter on the spot all agreed in exonerating Mr. Frank Eatman and his alleged companions from any participation in the horrible and revolting crime which thoughtless gossip had so lightly laid at their doors.

ARGUSTUS BRYANT.
STANTONBURG, N. C., July 29, '80

To my fellow citizens of the county of Wilson.

Gentlemen through the solicitations of some of my friends, at this late day, I have determined to offer my services to you as a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds in the primary election the first Thursday in August, of the Conservative or Democratic party, among the hundred and one other aspirants for the same office, but the more the merrier is an old saying, and thank I have as much claim upon the people of Wilson county as any other aspirant, for the reason that I have been a citizen of Wilson county since it was first established, never cast a vote out side of Wilson county, since it was a county, and every vote given during and since the war, was for the Democratic party, and if the county has been any benefit to the people, and thank no one will doubt it, then I flatter myself that I was instrumental in establishing the county, for I was in the legislature, (not a member) at the session the Bill passed to establish the county, at my own expense, myself, Amos Horn, Henry King, and John Hays, and worked among the members until I am satisfied we procured many Western votes for the county, and got the Bill through, now it is for you the people to say if I merit any credit, the Bill had been defeated the session previous to that, and think it would have been defeated again had it not been for our efforts. Since that time I have been a citizen of Wilson county, and have never asked the people to honor me with their suffrages for any office, for the reason that I did not need an office—did not want it, my aspirations lead in other directions, I was able to work and willing to work, but now things have changed, and you know circumstances alter cases, hence I am under the necessity of trying to prevail upon my fellow citizens to honor me with their votes for Register of Deeds, as my physical abilities are not sufficient to labor upon the farm or manual labor of any kind, yet my mental faculties are unimpaired, and flatter myself that I can discharge the duties of the office to the general satisfaction of the people, and should the people see fit to honor me with their suffrages, I should certainly feel under lasting obligation to them for their kindness, and I would further state that should I succeed in the nomination, and should be elected and satisfy the people that I will only ask them for the office two terms. Such is the doctrine of the Father of the great American Republic, and I think should be sufficient to satisfy any reasonable man.

Very Respectfully,
RORR. M. COX.

A Card.

STANTONBURG, July 27, '80.
MESSRS EDITORS:—You will please say in your next issue that I, as high as I appreciate the good opinion of my particular friends and the people of Wilson county generally, circumstances of a recent date render it impossible for me to accept a nomination to represent the good people of the county in the lower branch of the next Legislature of N. C., if such be offered me. This announcement can work no loss to the county nor detriment to the democratic party as I am happy to believe there are many in the county who can represent it as well or better than I can. I desire also to express my deep gratitude and thanks to the people of this county for all previous man ifestations of their appreciation of me and only regret that it was not more deserving. And now fellow citizens let us go to work. Let us organize. Let us be united and at the approaching fall elections, another great and glorious victory will crown the efforts of the grand old democratic party already historic from the achievements of the past which have showered and will continue to dispense the inestimable blessings of liberty to the American people for generations to come.
Very truly yours,
D. G. W. WARD.
