Election on Tuesday, November 2nd, 1880.

Senator Ransom will speak in Nashville, Nash county, on the 30th of October.

Cooking, Cameron, Blaine and Logan all met together at Indianapolis, Ind. last week. They visited 329 on their way, and all is supposed to be lovely now, between the arch conspirators for a third Term, and parson Garfield.

The late conduct of General Grant indicates the desperation to which the republican party is driven. His hearty commendation of Hancock immediately after his nomination and his late attempt to depreciate him in public estimation, shows plainly enough what determination his extraordinary popularity has sent throughout the radical ranks.

From our special reporter we received too late for insertion in this issue, a full and interesting account of the second day's campaign at Hilliardston in Nash county. After mentioning the speeches of the candidates for the several county offices he alludes to, in the most complimentary terms, to the speech of B. H. Bunn Esq. who, representing General Cox in his absence, thoroughly demolished Major Medcoe, the republican candidate for Congress.

The campaign is waxing warm in Nash and the prospects of democratic success are now very encouraging.

TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS.

As we go to press, the returns from the elections held in Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia, on last Tuesday are too meagre to enable us to state, with any degree of certainty, the result. Ohio, which is a republican State, went republican by a slightly increased majority. West Virginia is certainly democratic, and it is probable that all of the State ticket except the Governor, a clear majority of the Legislature and Congressmen have been elected by the democrats in Indiana. The news received thus far indicates the probable defeat of Landers, the democratic candidate for Governor in Indiana, who was personally unpopular and who, the dispatches say, was industriously scratched on election day. This indicates that Indiana will be certain for Hancock in November, as it is believed by leading men that he will run in from 3,000 to 5,000 votes ahead of the State ticket.

EX-GOV. BROGDEN.

We have received a circular from Ex-Governor Brogden in which he announces himself a candidate for Congress in this District, in opposition to Orlando Hubbs, who claims to be the nominee of the republican party. Governor Brogden charges him with being a disorganizer, a selfish demagogue and carpet-bagger, a perjurer and a proper subject for the penitentiary. The first of these charges involves a democracy, but everything to stimulate more earnest and determined efforts. Mr. Conkling claimed two weeks ago that Tuesday's elections would not affect the presidential election, for that New York was the pivotal State. With a fair election, New York would certainly go democratic and, with New Jersey, Connecticut and the "solid South," we could elect Hancock and English without either Ohio or Indiana.

But no good can be accomplished without earnest and persistent work.—Democrats everywhere should arouse from their lethargy and be up and doing. This is no time for inaction.—If every man in every township in this country will do his duty victoriously with all its coveted fruits will be ours.

LATER.

Since writing the above we have received the following dispatch.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 14th '80 (Special to the ADVANCE.)

Indiana is republican by five thousand majority. Probably eight republican and five democratic Congressmen elected. Ohio is Republican by twenty thousand, with fifteen republican Congressmen. Ohio is safe for Garfield, Indiana for Hancock, in November.

Accepting this information as true the result of Tuesday's elections can not materially injure the prospects of democratic success in November.

SOUTHERN WAR CLAIMS.

Many leading republicans at the North affected to entertain apprehensions, that if Hancock was elected an immediate raid would be made upon the United States Treasury to pay large amounts to the Southern people for the loss of property during the war, and usually denominated Southern war claims. But General Hancock with that promptness and frankness which so eminently characterizes all his actions, extinguished by a few words in his timely and manly letter all hope of making capital for the republican party out of this false and mischievous allegation. Since the publication of General Hancock's letter he Governors of nine Southern States have fully and unqualifiedly endorsed it. The New York World says, "to this letter replies have been freely received from the Governors of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, Tennessee,—the Governors of Virginia, West Virginia and Florida being now absent from home their replies will be published when received. Gov. Hamilton an Ex-Gov. Carroll of Maryland like Senator Whyte of the same State, have cordially endorsed in like manner a letter of Hancock."

REGISTRATION.

The books are now open in every Township in this county and all who are qualified and are required by law to register, are invited and urged to do so at once. The most important election which it is believed, has ever taken place in this county will be held on the 2nd day of November, next. And it is earnestly hoped that every citizen of the United States, who labors under no legal disability, will avail himself of his inestimable privilege to cast his ballot for the candidates of his choice. All who have resided in the State twelve months next preceding the day of election and ninety days in the county are entitled to register and vote in the precinct where they reside. All who have arrived at the age of 21 years since Nov. 5th 1878, the date of the last registration, will have to register, and all who have changed their residence from one Township to another since that date will have to register anew before they can vote. They are further required to present a certificate from the Registrar in the precinct or Township in which they registered, stating that their names have been erased from his book. The class of persons not entitled to register or vote are minors, idiots and lunatics, and all persons who have been convicted or upon confession in open court have been adjudged guilty of felony or other infamous crime, committed after Jan'y 1st., 1877, unless restored to rights of citizenship by the proper legal proceedings.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

THE CAMPAIGN IN NASH.

The campaign opened auspiciously in Nash county at Castalia Tuesday. There was an ordinary crowd present and good attention was paid to all the speeches, and a more orderly crowd never attended public speakings in Nash county, or at least so says the "oldest inhabitant." The Nashville Cornet band was in attendance and discoursed sweet music before, after and between the speeches. The band adds a great deal to the pleasure of the campaign, and it was a part of wisdom when the Executive Committee secured them to attend the speaking places of the campaign. About 12 o'clock, after the band had finished playing, Mr. J. J. Cockrell, of Nashville, the present Sheriff, announced himself as an independent candidate for Sheriff of Nash county. He said he was a good democrat, and said he had endeavored to perform his duties faithfully and impartially, and that if elected he promised to do even better in the future than he had done in the past.

He was followed by Mr. John P. Arrington, who said he was the regular nominee of the democratic party of Nash county, and that he expected to be elected by the democratic voters of Nash county. Mr. A. said he had nothing to say of Mr. Cockrell's record, either as a man or an officer, but he could not resist speaking of his political record, and of his claims to being a good democrat. Mr. Arrington said that no good democrat would run as an independent candidate. Mr. Cockrell replied, after which Mr. Arrington replied and the debate grew sharp though not bitter.

After music by the band Capt. J. J. Drake announced himself as an independent candidate for Register of Deeds. He asked the people to examine his record as an officer and a man, and if they thought him worthy of support he asked for their votes. Mr. J. G. Sills, the regular nominee for Register of Deeds, simply announced himself as a candidate, promising to perform his duties faithfully and impartially. Mr. J. Edwards also announced himself as a candidate for Register. He read an extract from a republican paper, the Raleigh Signal. The only thing we could learn from what he read was something about negroes stealing chickens. He spoke of Garfield, went for Capt. Drake, and made quite a humorous speech. Mr. Calhoun Griffin said he desired to keep the money in an independent way for the people. Said he was honest and asked for votes. Mr. N. W. Cooper said the democrats of the county desired him to keep the money in a regular way, and he hoped to be elected. Mr. Jacob Lamm said that for the second time he came before the people of Nash as a candidate for Treasurer. After more music, Mr. Wiley Robbins announced himself as a candidate for the Legislature. Said he was opposed to the present road law, and the manner of electing the county Commissioners, &c. Col. Lindsay followed Mr. Robbins, in an exhaustive speech, he took occasion to explain the road law, the manner of electing magistrates, county commissioners &c. He spoke of Hancock, showed how superior he was to Garfield. Took up Jarvis and the balance of the ticket and told of their lives and characters. Discussed logically the issues of the democratic party.

CONGRESSIONAL CANVASS.

Hon. W. H. Kitchin the democratic candidate for Congress in this district spoke at Toisnot last Monday, and at night in the court house in Wilson. His speech at Toisnot, we learn, was in his best style, and gave great satisfaction to the large crowd who assembled to hear him. His speech here at night was able and eloquent, and fully vindicated the wisdom of the party in his nomination, and his claims to a re-election. His arraignment of the fraudulent administration of Hayes and the misdeeds of the republican party, was in his usual bold, vigorous and aggressive style, and must have convinced all who heard him of the necessity of a change in the administration of the government. His speech throughout was practical, argumentative and occasionally eloquent, and fully sustained his well-earned reputation. We regret that owing to the shortness of the notice and the lateness of the hour, the audience was not as large as could have been desired or as usually greets our distinguished representative. Our people have not forgotten the brave stand which he made against radicalism in this district eight years ago, nor the labors and sacrifices which culminated in his success against that overwhelming negro majority, which has caused this to be denominated "the black district." And they will not forget him on the 2nd, day of November next, when they hope, as he confidently predicts, he will again be triumphantly elected.

NEWS FROM THE WEST.

WAYNESVILLE, HAYWOOD CO., N.C. EDITOR ADVANCE.—Having had an opportunity during the last week or two to acquaint myself with the sentiments of the people of these Western counties, I am prepared to say that Hancock and Jarvis will get a tremendous majority up here. In some localities, the vote will be almost unanimous for them.

Lieutenant Governor Robinson has been meeting Barringer and Dockery and has acquitted himself with credit and to the entire satisfaction of our friends. He is a first rate canvasser and makes his opponents feel the force of his blows.

Attorney General Kenan is canvassing with Lieutenant Governor Robinson, and is creating a fine impression among the people of the West. He is a man of popular manners and his plain practical common sense speeches have had a telling effect. Gen. Robt. Vance will be returned to Congress from this district by a very handsome majority.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At a special convention of Black Creek Lodge, No. 330, A. F. and A. M. held in their hall Oct. 2nd, A. D. 1880. A. L. 5880, the following resolutions were adopted: WHEREAS, it has pleased the Great Architect of the Universe, in His wisdom to remove from our midst Bro. Jacob Daniel a member of this Lodge who departed this life July 13th 1880. Resolved, 1st. That while we bow submissively to the Divine will, yet we recognize the fact that in his death the county has lost a true citizen, the community a good neighbor, his children a fond and indolent parent, and his Lodge a faithful member.

Resolved, 2nd. That we as a Lodge deeply sympathize with his children in their sad bereavement and that we wear the usual badge of mourning for 30 days as a token of respect. Resolved, 3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge, and a copy be sent to the ADVANCE and Sunny Home for publication. T. J. MEACHAM, JOHN P. BARDIN, Com. F. J. WOODARD.
