

The Wilson Advance

WOODARD & CONNOR Publishers and Proprietors.

JOHN E. WOODARD, Editor, J. W. LANCASTER, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1880

Speculation is ripe in republican circles, as to the composition of General Garfield's Cabinet.

Some of our republican contemporaries are making themselves ridiculous by claiming the election of Judge Buxton, when it is well ascertained that the majority of Gov. Jarvis will not be less than eight thousand.

The political complexion of the next Congress is said to be in doubt. The Senate at all events will be democratic, and thereby be enabled to check all unfriendly legislation toward the South.

OLD VIRGINIA.

The old Dominion has covered herself with glory in the recent election, and fully vindicated her claims to the title of the "mother of States and Statesmen."

THE SOLID NEGRO VOTE.

With a few trifling exceptions the negro vote in the recent election was solid, as usual, for the republican party.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."

The smoke of the battle has cleared away, and the result has been sufficiently ascertained, to determine who has won the victory.

wisely and to act indiscreetly. But a spirit of toleration and an honest recognition of what must be admitted to be a fundamental principle in all free governments, ought to disarm all bitterness of feeling and heal divisions and dissensions, among political friends, who have become temporarily alienated.

VOTE ON AMENDMENTS.

The recent vote on the Constitutional Amendments was as full as could have been desired or their importance demanded.

OUR NATIONAL DEFEAT.

It is idle we think to indulge in unavailing regrets over our recent national defeat, and to speculate upon the causes which led to this disastrous result.

Nov. 5th, 1880.

We are glad that Mr. Blount has seen fit to adopt our suggestion to write a card. The use of his name by the republican party, had certainly put him in a very awkward position before the public and nothing less than a full and candid statement from him could have set him right.

one who remembers how quietly the great fraud of 1876 was submitted by the same parties, will expect anything but submission to what appears to be the will of the majority.

A CARD.

To avoid the necessity of a card, my aversion to anything like notoriety, and the wish to be put right before this immediate community I asked Mr. Woodard, whom I regarded as a personal friend, to make the statement "that my name was put upon the republican ticket without my knowledge or consent."

I declare the statement made to corroborate the other, that I had said and a member of my family had repeated "I intended to vote for Judge Buxton" a lie.

I took sufficient means to prevent my election, if not that suggested by Mr. Woodard. I prevented a good number in Wilson. My brother to whom I wrote spread it over Nash that I was not a candidate.

I hold the political faith now that I held when I was the democratic candidate for Congress in this district. I have always been conservative—never partisan, and I hope I will always be on the side of right for the best interest of the whole people.

G. W. BLOUNT.

We are glad that Mr. Blount has seen fit to adopt our suggestion to write a card. The use of his name by the republican party, had certainly put him in a very awkward position before the public and nothing less than a full and candid statement from him could have set him right.

We have spoken of this as a political and not as a personal matter, for our personal relations with Mr. Blount have been of the most pleasant character. We have made no charges, and therefore have nothing to retract, but we do say that accepting Mr. Blount's statement, as true he has been badly treated by the republicans who made such free use of his name to defeat the democratic nominees.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

Editors 'ADVANCE.—In your last issue before the election you took ground against the Constitutional Amendments with regard to Deaf Mutes and Insane.

I think you and those who voted against the Amendment are mistaken as to the purport of the Amendment or the possibility of harm in it.

It was not intended to abolish or in any way cripple those noble institutions. The public sentiment of the State would not tolerate such an idea for a moment.

The Constitution says the State shall provide for the care of all deaf mutes, blind and insane of the State. The buildings for the insane being notoriously inadequate for the accommodation of all applicants the legislature (session 1876-77 I believe) passed laws for the erection of an Asylum for the blacks at Goldsboro, and an additional one for the whites at Morganton, and to have the care of those unfortunate more under the control of the State.

I do not know how much was paid in 1878 for outside lunatics, but in January February and March 1879—the last three months before the law was repealed—the Treasurer paid out $36,735.33 to these people. It was plainly to be seen that if some check were not put upon this drain it would go on increasing as the people found out its provisions and if all the eccentric people and idiots of the State could get a certificate of insanity it would bankrupt a Croesus.

I don't believe the Constitution ever contemplated providing for these people at home, but in the public institutions, such as we have built and are now building. But as it now stands without the Amendment, we are bound to provide for all the deaf mutes, blind and insane, whether rich, poor, able or unable to take care of themselves.

Nashville Items.

Misses Nina and Pugh Loyd of Tarboro, are visiting the family of Mrs. M. E. Scott.

Five stores in town and room for more.

Capt. A. W. Bridgers has been forced to close his school on account of protracted illness of himself and children.

Tournament on the tapis for the 20th inst.

Frank Sorby, aged about 10 years, died Thursday the 11th inst. He was a good boy and was unusually bright and intelligent.

John Wheelis, a little colored boy living at Dr. J. M. Earl's is a musical prodigy and imitates the E flat horn of the Band to perfection with no instrument but his mouth and hands.

Maj. George Evans was born in Nash county N. C. May the 5th, 1783 and died November 3rd 1880 within one mile of the farm upon which he was raised.

Mr. A. P. Clark and Miss Maggie Muse were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock this evening at 4 o'clock.

Dr. B. F. Arrington is in town this week.

H. B. Hart Esq., has commenced keeping house on the Nash side.

A good head of hair is desired by every one. The use of Hall's Vegetable Sulfur Hair Renewer will restore the hair if the hair cells are not closed up.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

BUGGIES!

We have just received the largest and best assortment of BUGGIES ever brought to this market.

Oyster Saloon.

I beg leave to inform the citizens of Wilson that I have opened a first class oyster saloon in Wilson.

FRESH FISH

received daily.

W. J. HARRISS.

Wholesale & Retail Dealer in—

GROCERIES & LIQUORS.

Now offer to his old friends and patrons his large stock of

SUGAR,

COFFEE.

FLOUR,

LARD,

BUTTER,

MEAT.

All purchased previous to the advance in prices, and will be sold cheap.

L. J. WEBER,

TARBORO ST., WILSON, N. C.

Next Door to Rountree, Barnes & Co.

BAKERY and Confectionery

—and dealers in all kinds of—

Fruits and Fancy Groceries,

Cigars, Tobacco, &c.,

I am prepared to furnish at short notice all kinds of Fancy Cakes.

Families and parties supplied at reasonable rates.

Bread and all goods promptly delivered at the residence of purchasers.

Nov. 9-11.

CONDENSED TIME.

North Carolina Rail Road.

TRAINS GOING WEST.

Table with columns: Date, Sept. 29, 1880; Daily; No. 48; No. 2019; No. 2017. Rows for Leave Goldsboro, Arrive at Raleigh, Leave Raleigh, Arrive at Durham, etc.

TRAINS GOING EAST.

Table with columns: Date, Sept. 29, 1880; Daily; No. 47; No. 1917; No. 1915. Rows for Leave Charlotte, Arrive at Salisbury, Leave Salisbury, Arrive at Greensboro, etc.

No. 48.—Connects at Goldsboro with trains on W. & W., and A. & N. C. R. R., at Salisbury with Western North Carolina Railroad, at Air Line Junction with A. & C. A. L. R., for all points south and south-west, at Charlotte with C. & A. R. R., for all points south and south-east.

No. 47.—Connects at Charlotte with C. & A. and A. & C. A. L. R., from all points south, south-east and west, at Salisbury with Western N. C. Railroad, at Greensboro with R. & D. R. R., for all points north, east and west, at Goldsboro with W. & W. R. R., and A. & N. C. R. R.

No. 45.—Connects at Charlotte with C. & A. and A. & C. A. L. R., from all points south, south-east and west, at Salisbury with Western N. C. Railroad, at Greensboro with R. & D. R. R., to all points north, east and west.

SLEEPING CARS WITHOUT CHANGE.

Run both ways with trains Nos. 48 and 47, between New York and Atlanta via Richmond, Greensboro and Charlotte, and on Train Nos. 42 and 43 between Washington and Augusta, Ga.

Through tickets on sale at Greensboro, Raleigh, Goldsboro, Salisbury and Charlotte, and at all principal points south, south-west, west, north and east. For equivalent rates to points in Arkansas and Texas, address

A. POPE, Gen. Passenger Agent.

November 1st, 1880. I PROMISED TO PAY Griffin & Murray.

GREAT EXCITEMENT! ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY HERE FOR THE LAST AND ONLY TIME. FAREWELL GREETING of the Champion of LOW PRICES of Wilson County.

The undersigned most respectfully announces to the public, that owing to unavoidable circumstances he is compelled to make this his last fall in the place, and therefore now offers his entire stock of goods, (the largest ever exhibited in this county) at the greatest possible sacrifices and inducements.

My Motto this Season is Not Profits But Sales.

I have on hand the most extensive and elegant assortment of goods that I ever carried and hereby extend a cordial invitation to the public to call and critically examine my variety.

25,000 DOLLARS WORTH of the most seasonable goods that can be imagined is now placed at your own disposal—that is name the price, and take the goods which consists of

DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS AND CAPS, FURNISHING GOODS, NOTIONS, TRIMMINGS, LADIES HATS, SHAWLS, CLOAK

and in short anything that is needed to supply the wants of any one at prices to astonish you. For my determination as I said before to sell all my goods at any price to close out my entire stock by January 1st, 1881. Now avail yourself of an opportunity (which rarely presents itself in a lifetime) to buy goods at your own price. Please note prices of some of my goods as I have been selling them and on which I have made still

GREAT REDUCTIONS:

Table listing various goods and their prices: 50,000 Yards of Calico at 5 cents a yard, Heavy Unbleached Muslin, Heavy 4-4 Bleached Muslin, Good Bed ticking, etc.

And other goods too numerous to mention. My stock of Genis, Youth's and Boys clothing is immense, and no one need be without a handsome suit or overcoat, as I mean to sell them, let them fetch what they may. Now then a word to the wise is sufficient. I have the goods and will sell them at low prices.

You will therefore do well to call and be convinced that I mean business. Now is your chance to buy in your Fall and Winter goods at a very unusual, on lay, and remember this is the last chance to buy goods at Wilson of the champion low price dealer of Wilson county.

L. EDWARDS.

Second Door Above the Bank.

P. S.—I tender my sincere thanks to the public for their liberal patronage which here and as a farewell remembrance and give you greater bargains than ever before.

DR. RYDER'S

AMERICAN FRUIT DRIER, OR

PNEUMATIC Evaporator.

Correct Principles, Correctly Applied, Entirely Original, Fruit Preservation, Tea First Premiums Awarded it during 1879 at State Fair, Cheap, Portable, Our Illustrated Catalogue sent free.

C. W. Westbrock, Nurseryman and Fruit Grower, my 21. WILSON, N. C., Agent for Central and Eastern North Carolina.

LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST.

MONEY SAVED IS MONEY MADE!

A larger stock of goods on hand than ever at

BYNUM, DANIEL & CO.,

country merchants will do well to call at Bynum, Daniel & Co's.

All Kind of Country Produce Bought at Bynum, Daniel & Co.,

HIGHEST PRICE PAID FOR COTTON.

Goods Sold For Cash or on Time at

BYNUM, DANIEL & CO'S.

Before you buy or sell come and see us. We have many things to show you and many more to tell you.

Thanking our customers for past favors and hoping they will continue to call and see us

We are truly, BYNUM, DANIEL & CO., Wholesale and Retail Dealers in GENERAL MERCHANDISE