She has traveled all over the world, and speaks English, German, French and Italian perfectly. Moreover, she sings very sweetly, and converses in the most lady-like and -intelligent manner. The reporter heard her sing last evening. She conversed with a German and a Frenchman present, and spoke English perfectly.

Kessler's band was present, and struck up a waltz, to which she reapoded by waltzing with herself in the most graceful manner. She and herself sang "Sweet Spirit hear my prayer" as well as we have heard it, and Afterwards went down the steps to-

After the crowd had withdrawn, the reporter approached and said: "You speak French, I understand." "Yes, I do. Do you?"

"No. It is difficult at times for me to speak English."

"That is only natural. One is fre quently at a loss for words."

"What do you think of the weather?" asked the reporter, by the way of relieving the silence which had enresponded the other half. "Ah, you come from Cuba then?"

"Yes, said the girl on the right. "Did you get sea sick?"

"No," said the girl on the left.

"Can you swim?" "No sir," from both of her.

"What would you have done, had the boat gone down?"

"I would have gone down too," said the left section.

"And you?" "I would have gone down with the balance of me." "To be sure," said the reporter. "I ever desirous of being separated:"
