Near Battleboro, January 12th., in his 25th year, Mr. E. T. Hamilton. He leaves a widow and two children to mourn his loss.

Married.

Wilson Encampment.

The following officers were installed at the last regular meeting of the Wilson Encampment No. 16, I. O. O. F.: J. J. Barfoot, C. P.; R. T. Stevens, H. P.; J. E. Farmer, S. W.; W. P. Wooten, J. W.; A. H. Bronner, Scribe; L. D. Pommers, P. Scribe; Jas. T. Cobb, Treasurer.

Costly Land.

The H. W. Edwards lot on Tarboro street, between the stores of J. T. Barnes and W. H. Morris, was sold last Saturday at public auction, and was purchased by Mr. W. H. Morris for $1,000, cash. The dimensions of the lot sold is 21 x 75 feet, and this price, we believe, the highest ever paid for property in Wilson.

Fire.

There was some excitement in town last Thursday night at the burning of J. L. Lamm's bar-room and grocery on Nash street, just over the railroad. Mr. Lamm says he lost between three and five hundred dollars in cash, besides a greater portion of his stock—no insurance.

New Enterprise.

Messrs. W. H. G. & A. L. Scott have opened a bottling factory in the brick building in the rear of L. Edwards' store. We understand they have purchased all necessary apparatus for bottling beer, ale, and fluid extracts. They are now at work bottling ginger ale.

Dedication of a New Church.

The new Missionary Baptist Church in Rocky Mount will be dedicated January 29th. This new church is a very nice one, and the dedicatory services will attract quite a crowd. Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., is expected to preach the dedicatory sermon. He is an able preacher and the sermon, on this interesting occasion, will doubtless be a learned and interesting one.

A Fair Remark.

We understand that it is rumored in the adjoining section of county that there are several cases of small-pox in Wilson. The fact is that there is not, nor has there been a sign of small-pox in Wilson in a number of years. The rumor is unfounded and is calculated to injure to our place if allowed to go without contradiction.

The First National Bank.

In the balance sheet of the First National Bank we notice a very suggestive feature in regard to the increased business transacted during the past year. The business of the bank in 1878 was $1,770,967.04; in 1879 it was $2,903,062.72; in 1880 it was $3,412,418.18; and in 1881 the business reached the amount of $6,293,422.36. We think it safe to say that the business of the past four years has increased in about the same ratio.

Stockholders' Meeting.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank of Wilson the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, F. W. Barnes; Vice-President, E. R. Southall; Cashier, J. M. Hute; Director: F. W. Barnes, Wm. Daniel, H. G. Whitehead, F. A. Woodard, E. Rosebush, J. E. Farmer, and J. E. Clark. E. R. Southall is a director. All the other officers were re-elected.

M. C. DANIEL, P. M.

We were shown this week by a colored man named Tony Parker, who lives with Mr. A. B. Williams, in Nash county, a perfect model of what he calls the "Wilson County Plow."

It has three plows to break up ground, a furrow sower, a digger or dibble, and a right and left hand which makes the ridges. Behind this there is an opener, which opens the ridge. There is a cotton seed planter, and drag to cover up the seed. It requires one man and two horses to manage the plow, but the amount of work it can do, will make it pay farmers to use it. Tony makes a wonderful amount of money with this invention and we understand that many of the farmers in Nash and Wilcox county are very much pleased with the plow, and are desirous to have it patented and placed on the market. A large plow of this pattern has been made and used on Mr. Williams' farm, and we learn that its operation was all that the inventor desired.

The Wilson Graded School.

The Graded School continues to increase in numbers, about sixty new pupils having been received since the holidays, many of these coming from other counties. The school is now represented by Wilson, Edgecombe, Nash, Pitt, Beaufort, Johnston, Carteret, Alexander and Jones. At the last meeting the Board of Trustees elected an additional teacher, Miss Lena Sutton, who was expected to have arrived last night from Griffith. Miss Sutton has the reputation of being a good scholar and a ready teacher, having spent several years in a highly successful school in Rhode Island under the very shadow of Brown University, to the learning of whose noted professors the school has access.

A Superb Family Bible.

One of the most remarkable features of the book-trade is the enormous sale of bibles. The demand is chiefly for large illustrated Family Bibles, for, strange as it may seem, there are many families who do not possess such a bible.

Prominent among the publishers who have recognized this demand is the National Publishing Company, of Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis and Atlanta, who whose superb edition of the Standard Family Bible, we desire to call attention to.

The binding of their magnificent bibles first claims our attention. It is rich, beautiful, and substantial. As our readers well know, a bible may be very showily bound, and yet put to pieces in a few years. Although covered with showy stencils and apparently well bound, the work may be done in such a loose and unsubstantial manner that with only ordinary handling it will crack and finally fall to pieces. This bible is made upon a very different plan. Only the best materials are used in its manufacture, and all the work is done by the best workmen, and the most highly improved machinery. Every stage of the work is carefully supervised. It would be impossible to devise a plan by which greater care could be given to the manufacture of bibles, or by which the interests of subscribers could be more carefully guarded. The publishers have a high reputation to maintain, and they are determined to maintain it. They realize the fact that a family bible may be subjected to very hard usage, and must be bound substantially as well as handsomely.

The ad. H. G. I. m. uter is very rich and complete. The text is printed in a slightly abridged edition of Dr. W. Smith's Dictionary of the Bible. This is really a complete work in itself, and would make an octavo volume of over six hundred pages.

Another valuable feature is a history of all the existing Denominations of the World, and a very full and complete account of the various sects, both ancient and modern. These accounts are clear, concise and comprehensive.

The additional matter which accompanies the books of the bible is very full and interesting. A large section is devoted to a collection of Scriptures and illustrations, consisting of a series of articles explaining and illustrating the manners and customs of the period, biblical antiquities and scenery. The animals of the bible are carefully described, as are also the trees, plants, flowers, etc., referred to in the Scriptures, each being accompanied by a colored and life-like engraving. The wanderings in the wilderness, the tabernacle and temple are described with great minuteness of detail. These explanations and the maps and plans which accompany them are of great value to every reader of the bible. A topographical sketch of Jerusalem is given, and the cities and towns mentioned in the bible are also described. It is impossible to enumerate all the valuable features in a notice like this. They constitute a complete encyclopedia of bible knowledge, and present to the reader all the information and explanations he can desire. The work is bound in a heavy, durable, and is published in both English and German.

It is magnificently illustrated. The larger plates consist of exquisite steel engravings, and a number of superb designs by the greatest living artist, Gustave Doré. The additional matter contains twenty-five hundred fine illustrations and maps. Nearly every place and object of interest mentioned in the scriptures is shown in this collection.

The Family Record is beautifully lithographed; and facing it is a magnificent marriage certificate, a feature which makes this bible a very appropriate and desirable wedding present. At the close of the volume is a handsome photograph album, with spaces for sixteen portraits, a novel and appropriate addition to a family bible.

The price is astonishingly low, and within the means of every family. We advise our readers to examine this great bible. It is sold by subscription only, and Rev. G. A. T. Whitaker, who is the sole agent for this section, is now canvassing for it.

Sectional News.

GOLDSBORO.

DEAR ADVANCE:—

It seems that the new Opera House is already known to the numerous travelling troupes, and our people will be entertained by a much better class of performers than have hitherto honored us with their presence. The Orpheus Duet Byron Combination Company has engaged the house for the first of February. Adam Forepaugh's Humpty Dumpty for the 9th, Collier's Banker's Daughter for the 13th., Col. Robinson's Humpty Dumpty for the 15th., and it is probable that the talented and popular actress, Miss Kate Caxton will pay us a visit sometime during the same month while on her southern tour.

The Grand Lodge of the order of Knights of Pythias will hold their annual meeting in this city on the 14th of February.

It is gratifying to the friends of Mr. Best and the Midland Railroad to learn that the first installment of steel rails have arrived at Beaufort. It is to be hoped that the people and the press of the State will extend to Mr. Best all the encouragement and assistance in their power, and not imitate the conduct of a prominent Western paper in giving publicity to a misrepresentation, and rejecting the "imaginary" defeat of the project. As far as we have been able to see, and we have had some opportunities for observation, the gentlemen connected with the Midland who have made Goldsboro their headquarters are gentlemen in every sense of the word. They seem intent on doing earnest and honest work, and we say give them a fair showing, hands off and fair play is the word.

Goldsboro still in the line of improvement has a steam laundry under the management of Burch P. F.

On Tuesday night last, at the Baptist church in this place, Mr. John E. Crow was married to Miss Mattie Cox, both of this city.

We refrain from remarks on the condition of the streets.

BARNES CROSS ROADS.

DEAR ADVANCE:—

The roads in this section are in a worse condition than has been known for a number of years. Owing to the long spell of wet weather the farmers are behind in their work. I find that in Wilson and Johnston counties more wheat has been sown than I have ever seen before, and the crops all look very promising. The people in this section are on the alert to know at what point near here the Wilson & Florence railroad will touch. Almost every man thinks the road will pass near his residence, and they search the maps with avidity to justify their desires, and as the wish is father to the thought, every man within an area of six or eight miles is confident that the road will "run right across my meadow," or "run just by the corner of my barn," etc.

One people also rejoices with you that Wilson is to have a cotton factory! Mr. Gaston Raper was married Thursday, January 12th, 1882, to Miss Melinda Campbell, at the residence of Mr. Henry Atkinson, T. A. Thompson Esq., officiating, and on the same day, the same efficient justice officiating, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Irvin Perill was united in marriage to Miss Pennie Atkinson, daughter of Mr. Calvin Atkinson.

We are glad to know that Rev. A. McCullen, pastor of the M. E. Church of this circuit will make his home in our community.

More anon.

WHITAKERS.

DEAR ADVANCE:—

News items are scarce this week. We are having plenty of bad weather.

The friends of Mr. S. Knight will be pleased to hear that he is now improving from recent spell of sickness.

The patrons of the ADVANCE are very much pleased to learn it is soon to be enlarged.

We met the sheriff of Pasquotank county on his way to Goldsboro with a subject for the lunatic asylum. This gentleman says his county is out of debt and their paper is worth dollar for dollar. He also says they have made a good crop of cotton, and a fair crop of corn.

2nd Capt. Barry says if the weather is not too bad he will have the Scotland Neck branch finished by March 1st.

Messrs. Carr Bro's & Co., are building a large shoe store in Whitakers.

The sheriff of Edgecombe county handcuffed and carried Christopher Sears to the public boarding house at Tarboro.

A good many of the colored people are going to Georgia to work in the turpentine business.

The people in our section are highly pleased at the anticipated railroad from Wilson to Florence.
