PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT WILSON, NORTH CAROLINA

HE EXECUTION OF CHARLES JULIUS GUITEAU.

The culture of jute is on a boom money to the Wesleyan Female in Pamlico county. A boy at Charlotte killed him was to honor my mother, to whom, self eating cherries.

Smithfield had a $12,000 fire world beside. I admire the South-Wednesday of last week. The House of Representatives ties in the Sothern women not will adjourn July 10th. While in Texas Oscar Wilde ac quired the title of Colonel.

An Ohio lawyer has been disbarred for stealing sheep.

The corner stone of Kinston college will be laid August 20th. The remains of Jefferson will may strike the reader that New not be removed from Monticello. The decrease in the public debt tions pretty high, and that young during May is over $10,000,000, men had better keep away from A colored man died in Wilming, girls with a 875,000 affections, un-ton Thursday evening from sun-less they mean business. stroke. Queen Vic doesn't want to marry. She has an income of 86,270 month.

and killed 'em all. printer in two weeks.

Scotland Neck shortly.

formed and became farmers.

Very many of the clerks in the Post-office Department at Washington, are obliged to work on San-

$5.00 a barrel. There are in this country 1,000,-

0.00 working oven and 12,580,80 milch cows, other cattle, 22,401,565, Grand tatal, 36,093,851, Asheville is to bave a daily newspaper to help the Citizen tell of the wonders of the grandeur of the Blue Ridge mountains, &c. Goldsboro merchants contemplate placing one or more light draught steamers on the Neuse river to ply between Newberne and Smithfield, a point about 20 miles above Goldsboro.

Mr. Arnold Borden, of Goldsboro, has 17 acres in tobacco which promises to turn out well. Farmers i other localities might try raising the weed with profit. .

The republicans of the second district will meet in Wilson Jul-19th at 12 o'clock to nominate a can didate for Congress. Aspirant for the nomination are as thick a blackberries.

The Wilmington military curted to Smithville last Thursday Miss Hill of Goldsboro was relect ed" the preffiest young lady and Oldham of the New South presented her with a beautiful boquet.

An agricultural editor says: "Plant your pitchforks under the shade of your cherry trees, point up. Should your neighbor's boy fall from the tree they might pre vent him from striking the ground.

Mr. T. B. Kinsbury's spech a the laying of the corner stone at Haywood's church in Halifax county, Saturday, June 24th, is prenounced an able effort. It was production of great literary merit

Pamlico county people must be double jointed and twisted. Read the following from the Kinston Free Press: "A young man in Pamfice county fell from a two story window while asleep and was not injured at all. $425,000,000 is the sum that will be required to pay pensions within the next four years-just one fourth of the public debt. The pension arrears bill was passed to catch the vote of the soldiers, and will be an expensive campaign fund to the people.

The commencement exercises of Chowan Baptist Female Institute at Murfresboro last week were largely attended. Several parties from this section were present and spoke in the highest terms of praise both in reference to the exercises and the excellence of the

A cranky negro named Debnam was arrested in Washington city for claiming that he was a Senator in Congress from North Carolina and was fraudulently deprived or his seat. The crop is increasing. but the execution of Guiteau will we hope, have a wholesome effect

Resolved, That the present system of county government is based upon the monarchical principle of taxation without representation, and is utterly subversive of the rights of the citizen, and should be repealed. - Republican - Coalition Legislature that passed the county Chewing Tobacco, he thus spoke to government bill and claim to be its one of the reporters; "I was torte take back now .- Folk, the Republican Coalition candidate for entirely cared me."—San Francisco

Geo I. Seney said: "If any one College, of Georgia, tell them it

Guiteau Executed at 12:40

His Farewell Prayer and verse extent of $75,000, has brought suit for breach of promise of marriage for that amount against a young Jail for Safe Keeping.

York girls are rating their affec His Brain Found to be in a Normal Condition.

U. S. JAIL, WASHINGTON,) June 30-9:45 A. M. following which we pronounce good: "James A. Davis, of Oxford, has most of the latter part of the night, been afflicted for six years and just not sleeping more than 20 minutes found out his ailment. He says at a time. Towards morning he fell The Canadian government will six years ago he voted the Demo, into a sounder sleep from sheer exbegin to issue four dollar bills next eratic ticket and he has been sick haustion. He rose a few minutes ever since. He has put himself after 5 o'clock, and breakfasted Georgia owns a hundred year under Dr. Mott's treatment, and heartily at 6:30. When the cook Bluebeard-he's had seven wives taken a three ply sugar-coated took his breakfast into the cell Gui anti-Prohibition-Liberal-Republican teau told him to bring his dinner in The new code has been com, any-office-we can get-pill, and is now at 11 o'clock promptly. Rev. Dr. pleted and will be ready for the calmly reposing in the arms of the Hicks, who remained at the jail all night, was called into the prisoner's Mr. Stainback will begin the pub. Jas. E. Sheppard, Esq., a former cell soon after he rose, and held a lication of the Commonic calth at resident of Wilson, now one of the conversation on religious subjects leading lawyers of Washington, N. with him. At 8 o'clock Dr. Hicks Three prominent Tennessee edit C., has been nominated for Judge saw the prisoner again, when he ors have within a few years re of the First Judicial District. Mr. made a request to have a bath, and Sheppard is only about 35 years asked the reverend gentleman to go old, but less for a number of years out and see the scaffold. Guiteau enjoyed a large and energetic pract desired him to arrange with the practice which has fitted him to Warden to have the trap sprung as wear the judicial ermine. He is soon after 12 o'clock as possible. He an able lawyer, an upright man, also expressed considerably anxiety C. W. Hollowell, of Pasquotank and will do honor to the bonch in lest some accident should occur, and county raised a crop of 1400 barrels the State. Mr. J. H. Blount, of insisted that Dr. Hicks should see of Irish potatoes and sold them for Perquimans was nominated for So. that the scaffold and its appurtenances were all in a proper and safe ty, or Religious Baby Talk." After jail office. reading it aloud he attempted to 12:46 P. M .- Guitean's neck was Thee and the Saviour, I have which would have appeared quite less solemn. Guiteau then talked remarked that his heart was tender. "I don't think," he said, "I can go through this ordeal without Weeping, not because of any great weakness, for principle in me is strong, but because I am nearer the other world. I hold to the idea that God inspired me." word the drop should be sprung.

John W. Guitean arrived at the jail at 9 o'clock, and was followed in a few minutes by Warden Crooker. These two gentlemen, with Dr. H's, had a consultation as to the disposition of the body.

the corridor and exercised for fifteen minutes. He walked very briskly, making it rather difficult for his guards to keep pace with him.

stream of persons coming into the that of a great gala occasion. At 10:10 o'clock Guiteau express large tub was taken into his cell. 10:45 A. M .- The rotunda was newspaper men flocked in. There were few others there except the John W. Guiteau went out to see have mercy on us. Lamb of God, her, and persuaded her to make no that takest away the sins of the further attempt to gain admission. World, have mercy on us. Amen 11:85 A. M .- While Dr. Wicks was and amen." in the cell at 11 o'clock, Guiteau During the prayer Guiteau stood made some request as to the execu- with bowed head. At its conclusions, But he rallied a little and The funeral, such as it will be, will in this town. McAllister, 206 Front street, gen- tion, and having made copies of his sion Dr. Hicks opened the Bible

Its Star Still Ascending.

(Cal.) Call.

ings, tore up the originals. He had "I will read a selection from the if was right then and have nothing lived or died. I tried St. Jacobs brought in, and Guiteau ate it with He then read in a clear, strong I am going to the Lordy, Glory Hallelman! Glory Hallelman!

much relish.

under God, I owe more than all the ern women. There are possibili-equaled anywhere else on earth."

An attractive young New York

heiress, who estimates that her af-millionaire of the same city. It

The Wilaston Leader got off the Mott-ly crowd."

licitor.

He Dies Without a Struggle.

fections have been smashed to the

The Body to be Buried in the Guiteau was very restless during Guiteau subsequently asked that n his books all the complimentary remarks about President Arthur and his administration be eliminat ed. Then he presented to Dr. H. he books that have been the companions of his lonely hours. He told Dr. Hicks that he wanted him to offer the first prayer on the scaffold, saving that he (Guiteau) would then read his favorite Scriptural passage, the 10th chapter of John. and offer prayer on his own account. Then he intended, he said, to read his poem, "Simplicity." He desired to have the execution so arranged that just as he uttered the last

At 9:15 the prisoner came out into At 9 o'clock there was a constant jail, and the scene outside was like ed a desire to take a bath, and a ment.

In a recent call upon Mr. W. H. platform.—I was a member of the eral agent for the sale of the Star clast prayer," poem and other writer and Guiteau, in firm tones, said, his boots blacked, and as the Doctor 9th chapter of Mathew, from the But they have murdered me for it, tured with pain from acute rheuauthor and draftsman. I believed matism, and cared not whether I was leaving the cell his dinner was 28th to the 41st verse, inclusive."

12:05 P. M .- At 5 minutes past 12 showing little if any nervousness. I am going to the Lordy."

o'clock Gen. Crocker read the death | Dr. Hicks produced the manuscript Rev. Dr. Hicks.

has just started for the gallows. ing his farewell address.

The drop fell at 12:40 p. m. the jail has got word that the pris- read to you my last dying prayer." oner has been hanged, and is rendmatters he read a poem composed ing the air with shouts so that it is with a distinct and deliberate voice by himself, which he calls "Simplici- impossible to hear a voice inside the the following: "My dying prayer sing it, but broke down in the effort broken by the fall and not a move finished the work Thou gavest me ment of the limbs or body was per- to do and am only too happy to go ridiculous if the occasion had been ceptible. Death ensued instantly, to Thee. The world does not yet When Dr. Hicks came out of the appreciate my thission, but Thou cell he said the prisoner had not the knowest it: Then knowest Thou slightest fear. "We have had a didst inspire Garfield's removal, pleasant religious talk. He feels and only good has come from it. now that his preparation is finished This is the best evidence that the and he is ready for the last formali- inspiration came from Thee, and I ty. He commits himself to God have set it forth in my book that with the utmost confidence. I think all men may read and know that > seemed to break down completely, act I know will meur Thy eternal and burst into tears and sobbed emmity, as did the Jews by killing hysterically. After the death war- thy man, my Saviour. The retri-from a man whose arms were but blood will satisfy them, and now autopsy, were assembled.

which the gallows was placed. Guitean in the meanwhile gazed est ill win toward manan Farewell, ye men of earth." jail guards and a squad of artinery, paraphenalia. As soom as the men, Early this morning the prisoners in that part of the jail overlooking the court where the gallows Crocker waved to them to uncover leaving this world. If set to music Charles H. Reed, Guitean's comstands were all removed to other and all heads were bared. Dr. they may be rendered effective. The sel, did not witness the execution, result in bringing many souls to stands were an removed to other Hicks made an invocation in these lidea is that of a child babbling to At half-past 2 o'clock Dr. F. B. Christ.' posted along the road way outside words "Father, out of the depths it this morning about 10 o'clock." the building. In addition to the we cry to thee. Hear Thou our He then commenced to chant these jail guard all available men of bat-supplication for the sake of Jesus verses in a sad, floleful style: tery C. United States Artillery, are Christ, the Savior, who has made "I am going to the Lordy, on duty inside the jail. Shortly be full, propitiation for us. Behold I am so glad, fore 11 o'clock, Guiteau called for this Thy servant. We humbly I am going to the Lordy, paper, and for 20 minutes was en-pray that Thou wilt deliver him at I am so glad I am going to the Lordy. gaged in copying what he calls "his this supreme moment of his life. Glory Hallelujah! Glory Hallelu Let Thy light descend upon him. Af 11 o'clock Mrs. Scoville arriv. Liberate his soul from prison. May I am going to the Lordy! ed and besought admission. She he appear to You absolved by Thy allove the Lordy with all my laboring under great excite. great mercy. From the blood of Glory, Hallelajah Guitean deliver him and us. Christ And that is the reason voice and with good intonation,

I am going to the Lord,

went on with his chant :

And that is the reason

Glory Hallelinah!

jah!

Glory Hallelujah! Glory Hallelu-

Here Guiteau's voice failed and I am going to the Lordy."

"I saved my party and my land,

Here again his feelings overcame warrant to the prisoner in his cell, which was prepared by the pris- him and he leaned his head on the The only persons present were Gen. oner this morning and held it be shoulder of Mr. Hicks and sobbed Checker, Deputy Warden Rush and fore him while Guiteau read. While pitifully. Still he went on: Dr. Hicks was arranging the man- "I wonder what I will do 12.25 P. M.—The death procession uscript Guiteau exhibited slight nervousness, and moved several I guess that I will weep no more 12:35 P. M .- Guiteau is now read-times from one foot to the other. Glory Hallelujah !" He soon recovered his exposure, looked over the sea of upturned 12:45 P. M.—The crowd outside faces, and said: I am now going to

EXECUTIONER 2 CLERGYMAN. 3 WARDEN. 4 ARTIST. 567 PHYSICIANS

on the gallows: Father, now I go to he will show some emotion because Thou, Father, didst inspire the act the nervous strain is so great." for which I am now murdered. This Shortly before 12 o'clock Guiteau government and nation by this rant was read to the prisoner by the bution in that case came quick and crowd, which was kept back from my pace. I turned this way and Warden he became much more com- sharp, and I know Thy divine law the scaffold by a line of officers, said that, peered into every window and posed, and turning away, began to of retribution will strike this nation that those who desired could pass' shiffed the air. Still my prospectbrush his hair, with his old ap- and my murderers in the same way, alongside of the scaffold and view ing was in vain, and at, last, dis-paroxysm was over, and he gargled pearance of swaggering sang froid. The diabolical spirit of this nation, the body. The crowd of spectators prited and weary, I went back to forth, as he struck his kneed At 12:25 the loud steam whistle its government and its newspapers was formed into line and passing the church. Returning to Brook was blown at the workhouse, which towards me will justify Thee in between the scaffold and the wall of lyn that evening I was fully compen reporter? Come down states and in our mand one or two states are was near the jail. Two minutes cursing them, and I know that Thy the jail, viewed the body. Some of sated for my abstinence during the have another drink!" hater the iron gates at the end of divine law of duration is inexor. the jail officers, two or three physical day. Strange to say, I started down to the ex-Confederate Soldiers the corridor clicked. Then War able. I therefore predict that this cians and Dr. Hicks stood about the to Southampton, the next morning den Crocker made his appearance, nation will go down in blood, and coffin. John W. Guiteau joined without providing against the post and a moment later the familiar that my murderers, from the Ex this company, and fanned his dead sibility of another day's suffering. Collaborational beformed with figure of Guiteau was seen, his face ecutive to the haugman, will go to brother's face to keep away flies. In the morning I went out for a proaches, Thursday of State Fair the gentleness of love and the firm was pallid and the muscles about hell. Thy laws are inexorable, O John Guiteau did not go upon the walk with a number of the elergy, week) on which we are, by resolt ness of sagrences ancionaty, but his mouth moved nervously. Other Thou Supreme Judge. We unto scaffold, but stood during the scene and by the time I returned I felt tion adopted at our first convention, whether these are at the emission than this there was no sign of the men that Eviolate Thy laws, just within the line of the officers at like taking a drink. The desire again to assemble and exeminge of the parent or pot, there is one of 250 or more spectators were parallel in history. Thou Right Dr. Hicks, who left the jail soon this was a chance, probably my only pushing and jostling through the cons Father, will judge him further, after the hanging, will return in one. I shook the clergy, turned up handful will remain to tell the tall door leading from the rotunda to Thou knowest me, but the world the morning and then the question another way, and then down to the of battles lost and won, and the the corridor, at the lower end of hath not known me. Now I go to of insanity will be settled. John main road, and again met the jolly loved cause over thrown. see my Saviour without the slight- Guiteau, when asked if the rela- nosed man. est ill will toward human being. tives would not ultimately remove upon the crowd, looked up at the When he had finished reading his the body, said, "I don't wan't to made a survey of all the dread and said, still with a firm voice, "I will not be able to protect it. If and then he stopped. know it, at the time at least."

When 1 get to the Lordy;

When I get to the Lordy,

his mamma and his papa. I wrote Loring concluded his examination I hope so, indeed, said I faintly, is at an end. of the eyes of the dead man. Both for my hopes of a drink went down, We therefore precommend, may ments of harrowing carry, if they eyes were so indistinct that no and sank still lower as he added: opinion could be formed of their condition or expression.

showed that Guiteau's neck was people need a lesson in peace and by electing-suitable officer's and on quiet observations in our theat broken, and that the rope had cut harmony.' deep into the flesh of his neck. I coincided and made a few comthe purpose. Then send a copy of they are, and to prepare to answer cost. The jail officers took the rope man lifted his hat, said good morn Hicks said, when asked about the back. burial, that he did not wan't to say he bowed his head and broke into where the body would be interred. take place to-morrow, and will be as private as possible. Press was the only newspaper man a little stimulant—do you know a Cause," dead comrades, but living admitted to the chapel where the place where I could get something issues, social fellowship and history. Glory Hallelujah! Glory Hallelu-body was being dissected. The on- to drink! erations of the three surgeons en-were disinclined to go into the de forward the goblet. tails in regard to the results thus far reached. Dr. Hartigan left the him Guiteau's brain. Dr. Godding. who has maintained that Guiteau was insane, said, when asked what the result of the autopsy was, "I have nothing to say now." Another off with a relishing smick. physician remarked, "We are all know nothings." A bystander expert public it was thought at the ter.' of the dura mater. None of them came into his eyes. until after the examination has been you city elergymen do this on the completed." Dr. Bliss said that sly, don't you?"

He Played Pious.

development.

A CLERGYMAN.

For at least forty seconds after the drop fell the body hung motion-"I went to Southampton to reless, then there was a slight motion port the proceedings of the Synod doubtful tone; T've often heard their culture, feel that there is of the shoulders and legs, due to for the Bowronville Magnie. It is a tell on it, but I never believed it something in the streets at high muscular contraction. Three min- fact, though you may not credit it, till now.' While you're up here ntes after the trap fell the body was that I occasionally include in a life you feel like taking anything, day-something that exercises lowered to be examined by the phy- the stimulant. After sitting all the come round. But if I were you I apprehension, or creates clarm or sicians. There was a decided ac- morning in a cramped position, wouldn't say nothin' to the others, gives license. Boys that are tion of the heart for fully fourteen listening to much fraternal and because there ain't much left, and demure by day will say things at minutes, and the pulse fluttered two pious talk, I went out at recess to if the hull Brooklyn Presbyiery night they would blush to inter in minutes longer. When the body stretch my legs. I likewise felt come, there won't be enough to the day light, had hung with feet just touching day. When I got out of the church go round." the ground for over an half hour, if I walked a short distance and was lowered into a coffin which was glanced judiciously from under my waiting for it under the scaffold, sombrero to see whether there was ably that I felt it a shame to de exactly where their children pare The physicians decided that his a place for liquid comfort near by, 1 ceive him. You may smile, but from sandown to sunrise, No box neck had been broken. When the saw hone. I walked a little furbody was lowered the black cap was ther, but not a sign was there of removed and the face exposed. The anything of the kind. Still 1 kept made a mistake about me.' features were pallid and composed, on hoping and expecting every mo-About the mouth there was con- ment to discover some familiar in. siderable moisture. After the body dication of-well, whiskey. My had been arranged in the coffin search was fruitless. I grew des-Warden Crocker; ascended the steps perate. The time was passing and of the scaffold, and addressing the the thirst increasing. I increase the Bowronville Magnic Only weeping and gnashing of the bottom of the steps. / grew on me and became controll the grip of former fellowship and regardless of the bottom of the steps. / grew on me and became controll the grip of former fellowship and regardless of the bottom of the steps. The procession moved quickly teeth awaits them. The American At 1:40 p. m., the lid of the coffin ing. I did my best to discover a new old recollections, the under

to the scaffold, and Guiteau ascend- press has a large bill to settle with was put in place, and the body was spot where I could satisfy my signed, in discharge of the duty de satisfy of the could satisfy my valend more than a start of the could satisfy my ed twelve steep steps with as much the Righteous Father for the vin borne to the jail chanel where the thirst, but the search was again mits the following suggestions; steadiness as could be expected dictiveness in this matter. Nothing physicians, who were to make the vain. We were going into church On the 22nd of July, proc., twenty tightly pinioned behind him. At my blood will be on them and this While the autopsy was in prog- looking pretty bad. At length, as the first great battle was fought in last his steps faltered for a moment, nation and its officials. Arthur, the ress Warden Crocker said, as to a we were walking. I met a man who be grows older, natid he but he was assisted by two officers, President, is a goward and an in-report that the manner and place looked like a well to do farmer. I our ranks have been as much deple who walked one upon either side. grate. His ingratitude to the man of Guiteau's burnal had not been spotted him at once. He had a fed by natural dissolution as the Upon reaching the platform there that made him and saved his party determined upon, the body, he jolly, rubicand face, and the tip of were in war by the weapons of the was a slight delay while the crowd and land from overthrow has no said, would remain in iail to-night, his nose gave him away. I felt foc. Increasing with acceptated he is in bed before Havelock.

Good morning, sir,' said 1. Good morning, sir,' said he, lift beam over his head, and quickly prayer, he again surveyed the crowd say what we will do, for if I do we ing his old hat. Then I stopped, by attaches to their paternity? There are a good many strangers

*We are looking to you ministers A close examination of the body there'll be no quarrelling; as our county associations of survivorship,

There was a disposition on the monplace remarks which I don't rethe roster to the secretary of the to God, our inservedy father for the part of some of those present to get member, for I was trying to pluck State Association, L. L. Polk, Ita painstaking care which they give for mementoes of the occasion at any up courage. Just then the jolly leigh, in order that it may be enter from the gallows and secreted it, ing,' and was about to go. I saw As soon as the noose was removed my last chance disappearing, and from the dead man's neck, Dr. in a fit of desperation F called him State organization. If all could man, of New Orleans, was cured of

Say, my friend, said I, you seem very stret temperance people vails here, you know. A reporter of the Associated Fact is, said I Tve been used to "The old man fixed on me a look aged in the autopsy were watched of reproach and rebuke. If it had with the greatest interest by the been possible for me to feel ashamed others who crowded about the of such a thing I would have been. table. After the examination of As it was, I was considering how Selections for Sunday Reading the eyes, his brain was removed I could get out of it, when he took and inspected. Then the body me in with a steady gaze and said: was cut open and a thorough and "Come with me."

"We walked along side by side, complete examination made, with the view of determining all the and I endeavored to be social, but physical facts that could be of in it was vain; he replied only in mon night is universally perceived terest in connection with the case, osyllables. At last we came to a and universally acknowledged, The brain was found to be in a quiet, old fashioned looking house and the varieties of E afford a normal condition and weighed and entered. The old man led the large field of intelligent obserforty-nine ounces. The heart way to the cellar and I followed, variou, weighed a little over nine ounces. The lower we went the higher my We shall not go into this subject and was in a healthy condition, as hopes rose, and when we reached extrasively, showing the reciprocal were the other internal organs. At the bottom of my joyful eyes were influence of the physical and 3:55 the autopsy was adjourned un. greefed with the sight of a plump psychical natures of men and the til this evening, when the brain will cask, gently tilted forward. He modification of this influence by be taken to the Government Medi took a goblet and put it beneath broad day light and dark night. cal Museum, 10th st., where a the tap. The liquor within res There is one point, however, for minute and critical examination ponded with a good-good-good which we wish to call special attenwill be made of it. The physicians -google.' Then the old man thrust tion, and that is the relation of jail soon after to'clock, taking with it. I was just going to say That's one thing for a child to do at friend was pions, and said in stead Another reason is Chat "the writer, 'That's very good.' Then he filled alas! knows very little child hie in the goldet for himself and drank it the country. He knows something "Have some more? be asked.

there were many points showing a . "For the first time I tumbled to good healthy mental and physical the fact that he mistook me for a elergyman.

"'Yes, said I, we do. You see we have very heavy duties, and they wear us out, and then there's wholesome temperament, is grown BUT HE MISTOOK A ROPORTER FOR the tension of nerves and the pastoral visitation, and so forth.'

gyman,2 I said. "Well, ain't you? he asked

"'No,' said L. Tin the reporter of he would choke. At length the volved upon them, respectfully sub-like family -a insely, that while the

for a long session, and things were ty one years will have clapsed since certainty as the years speed on, the low here this kannot be selly of b Is it not meet that we know and digest the story, and proclain Since that eventful day, the habe who perchance may first have seen the remainder of his enterthe light in its lurid dawn, in and tained to man's estate, and would 'Yes, sir,' said he: 'I hope it will fain know the meaning of the told tal day. Shall be learn it from formen ! Heaven forbid, or tilial pride urge you by every consideration of country and self-respect to meet at your respective county towns on the be seed, parents who ed in the general roll of the State, their children. At the same time let delegates beappointed to attend the next convention and perfect the general or there assemble so much the better. A distinguished comrade will be invited there to address you.

Recollect the day, the duty and the object. Two or three, or even Yees, said he local option pre a single individual can take the imtiative in each county. Let us, brothers, give one day at least of each recurring year to "The Lost Fraternally.

W. J. GREEN. President of the Association

THE WILSON ADVANCE.

RATES OF ADVERTISING: One Inch. One Insertion. - - $1.00 Liberal Discounts will be Made for Larger advertisements and for Contracts by the Year. Cash must accompany all stover-NO. 25 disements unless good reference is

THE QUIET HOUR.

After Dark.

BY REV. DR. DEE: 48.

The difference between day and night to children in cities.

"Applejack-try that," said he. We say in cities, because only ed put it to my lips and drained narrly in the country there is but -good, when I remembered my night-namely, stay in the house. of if in the city. He was been in the city. Until he was ten years of " As drink is so scarce here age he knew nothing of country replied, "To the uneducated, non- abouts," said I, I think I had bet life. He has spent more than fall his life in ches in Euro e and i time of the autopsy all the physic "He drew up a good nip, and, as America. This has given him cians would agree that there were he was handing it to me, the some experience and some open lymphæin the brain and hardening same old expression of reproach tunity for observation. He has watched the growth of many care to express a positive opinion "I guess,' said he, snigh anto all children in many families, and has talan pains to notice the effect of different kinds of culture.

Almost invariably boys, who have been allowed to rount free at night have come to fooral shipwacek and social destructions. The exceptions have been where there was a intellect, and peculiar social influ ences. Men and boys, women and "'Ye'es,' the old man said in girls whatever may have been

The result of our observation is "Then, we went unstairs. The the clear conviction that it is about old man had treated me so hosbit butely necessary that parents know ougal to be allowed to go alone off "Friend," said I, 'I think you've the pavement of his father's house after sundown. If ought for be "'W,' he asked in a half startled a hand restriction; to a boy thus trained from infancy it will not be: "You evidently think I'm a cler. It is a matural that a child, should want to to go to play in the dark with other children. The descrihever comes untill the cold has "The old man dropped into a chair begunto be corrupt. Sometimes got red in the face, and I thought children to go would the corner "Well Tothink I was playing earlestance. We never know it to off pious before a d-d newspaper Lal to end disastrously. and a leaded for alkis, liberty for their child en afet are now reading the recorded time. During that period becomes of age, his parent cought endure eight often years of such to our posterity that no shame there he if than to have that child raine t and all of the family suite, through

We have spoken of her a becan fie thunder that ushered in his bat of decent families are allowed to be to set us a good example, and I hope day designated and organize into article to lay it to heart, to make rolling your names, rank, company children at night, tofind where

Ex Sanitary Com, Rafa , K. Hire a severe attack of rhegmatism by 3 St. Jacobs Oil, so we see by an algor in the Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer sa

Death Distanced

ALEXANDRA, Va., Aug. 4, 1881. H. H. Warner & Cor Sine I should have been in my grave to day had it not been for your Safe. Kidney and Laver Cure.

Mrs. BURGESS,