Jones, L. G. Gandy,
Hay, Corn, etc., J. G. Reid,

The Graded School will open Monday. A large attendance is expected.

Wilson loses and Goldsboro gains in the removal of Mr. E. Rosenblatt's family to the latter place.

Wilson cotton buyers are on the alert for a bale of new cotton. Who will be the first to bring it?

Let every Executive Committee member read the card of F. A. Woodard, Chairman, in another column.

Mr. O. Littman will occupy one of Moore's new stores. Mr. Littman is now North purchasing his fall stock.

We are requested to give notice that Rev. Henderson Hamilton will preach at South Bethel church in this county next Sunday.

The Rocky Mount Graded School opened Monday with one hundred and thirty-nine scholars. It now has one hundred and fifty.

Wilson county now has two representatives at the University: S. A. Woodard, of Black Creek, and Sterling Kufin, of Wilson.

The revival conducted by Rev. A. McCullen at Buckhorn M. E. Church in this county closed last Friday night. There were two additions to the church.

"Dolley" Brownley, the well known conductor on the W. & W. R. E., has accepted the Republican nomination for Treasurer in Halifax county.

We are requested to state that visitors from the town are not expected during the first week of the Graded School, and teachers and visitors from abroad will only be admitted.

The Messenger says that the first bale of new cotton put upon the Goldsboro market was sold there last Saturday by Mr. J. T. Daley, of Lenoir, to Borden Bros., for 12 cents per pound.

September 20th the Armstrong Bros. Minstrels will appear at the Opera House and at the Madison Square Theatre Company will render "Hazel Kirke," and October 2d "Esmeralda."

H. G. Connor, Esq., and Capt. J. S. Battle will address the people of Cooper's township at Colwell's Alley Saturday, Sept. 23d. On the same day, H. H. Dunn, Esq., will speak at Ferris's township.

Prof. Brown has been in town all the week supervising work on the graded school. Some new rooms have been fitted up for school purposes and other improvements have been made.

We call attention to the new advertisement of L. Heilbronner & Bro., agents, Tarboro, N. C., which appears in this issue. This firm is too well known to need any commendation from us. Read the advertisement.

We regret to learn of the sad death of Mr. A. D. Brooks, who was enrolling clerk of the last Legislature, at Wanchese, Wisconsin, last Friday, whether he had been for his health. His death will be very generally regretted.

Capt. Carraway, of the "News-Observer," Johnson and Cobb, of the "Messenger," Fitzgerald of the "Reporter" and Holcomb of the "Sunny Home" were in town for the week attending court and looking after their list of subscribers at this place.

The Wilson Collegiate Institute opened Monday with the usual number. We are pleased to welcome Prof. Hargrave, who has accepted a position in the school, back again to Wilson. The prospects for a large attendance this year are flattering.

Mr. C. G. Peelle, who lives about ten miles from Wilson, killed a steer a few days ago, and found in his stomach two pounds of shot, a handful of nails, some horse shoe nails, tin scraps and a piece of knife blade. The query is, how came there?

In addition to the resident bar Judge Strong, of Raleigh; W. T. Dortch, W. S. O'Brien, Robinson, F. A. Daniels and C. B. Aycock, of Goldsboro; H. H. Dunn and Jacob Battle, of Rocky Mount; Col. E. C. Yalloway, of New River, were in town this week in attendance upon court.

The Duplin county Teachers' Institute, under the management of B. F. Grady, Jr., the efficient Superintendent of Schools which closed last week was very successful. Twenty-three teachers were present. Prof. Rayburn's number of teaching education is highly complimented.

The new town ordinances which are just out and which take effect Sunday, Sept. 10th, are to our mind the best set of ordinances ever put into operation in Wilson. The present Board of Commissioners and our worthy Mayor, are determined to have better town government, and in this determination they will be upheld by our citizens.

The Republican Convention of Edgecombe nominated Jas. T. Taylor, white, for Sheriff; Jas. C. Daney, colored, for Recorder; H. S. Spragins, white, for Clerk; B. J. Keech, white, for Treasurer; Bob Gray, colored, for Senator; Aaron Bridges and Bill Belcher for the House. There was the utmost confusion. Hubbs was endorsed for Congress.

S. H. Hill, editor of the Wilson News, who was present at the Republican Convention of Craven county tells us that the confusion and disorder were even worse than at the Wilson Convention, and that Mayor had to be called in to quell the riot; that two candidates for Sheriff and other offices were nominated; and a general pandemonium was witnessed.

Black Creek News.

Two pigs belonging to Mr. Augustus Barnes in Black Creek strayed away from home and going under Warren's store fell in an old dry well and remained there six days without a morsel of food. They were found Sunday morning by the pigs were heard grunting and squealing and were rescued from their prison cell. They were very thin—and it is said one was too thin to make a shadow. The other was in better condition. Black Creek is now practicing Tanner's method. It is a cheap way to raise meat and is commended to farmers elsewhere.

An Encouraging Sign.

We note with pleasure that the educated young men in the State are beginning to steer clear of the crowded professions and are devoting themselves to agriculture. Among others we recall our talented young friend Mr. B. F. Lane, of Stantonburg, this county, who graduated last Spring from Trinity College with the highest honors, having taken the Wiley Gray medal for oratory. Mr. Lane gives promise of being able to do anything he turns his hand to and we commend the good sense which has led him to avoid the brilliant but barren fields of law and medicine and devote his time and talents to the cultivation of his native soil. We need educated farmers and we bid God speed to every accession to their ranks.

A Rich Treat in Store.

The beautiful young English actress, Lillian Scott, supported by S. K. Colburn and a strong dramatic company will give a rendition of "Lucretia Borgia" at Willis' Mamona Opera House Monday night, September 11th. The company comes to Wilson highly recommended. Having visited most of the leading towns in the State it is not unknown to the theatre-going public. This company opened the new opera houses at both Goldsboro and Durham last night. The Charlotte Observer said last December, "Miss Lillian Scott and Company played at the Opera House last night to a very large audience, and one that gave decided approval to the powerful play as rendered by Miss Scott. She is unquestionably an actress of merit, and her rendering of some of the thrilling scenes in the tragedy was very affecting." She presented the delicious melodrama of "Lucretia Borgia" in a highly creditable manner. Her support is good? See advertisement.

Superior Court.

Court has been in session this week. It was opened promptly on time Monday morning by Judge Mae Eas, who made an excellent charge to the grand jury, which was called to order at 1:10 P. M. by B. H. Dunn, Esq., chairman of the Executive Committee of Nash county, who explained the object of the meeting and made a short and appropriate speech. He then announced the convention ready for business. John E. Woodard, was appointed temporary secretary.

On motion John E. Woodard, Esq., of Wilson, was elected permanent chairman by acclamation, and Joseph Daniels and Theodore Hobbogood were elected secretaries.

On taking the chair, being introduced to the people of this district who knew him too well to require any eulogium at his hands.

Mr. T. M. Arrington placed the name of Capt. J. S. Battle in nomination as the choice of Nash county for the nomination of Senator. On motion H. G. Connor and J. S. Battle were nominated by acclamation.

Political Speaking in Wilson Tuesday.

A large crowd assembled in the Court House on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 19th, at 3:50 o'clock, H. G. Connor, Esq., in a few appropriate remarks, introduced Capt. Swift Galloway, who spoke for thirty-five minutes on the political issues. He argued that an affection of the throat prevented his speaking longer was very general as the people of Wilson always listen to Capt. Galloway with pleasure. On this occasion he was particularly foreword in his arraignment of the liberals and the revenue officials of whom he said no class of people had so much greed, impudence and brazen-faced rascality. Capt. Galloway urged the people to go to the polls to see that their neighbors voted. Nothing will defeat the democratic party this year unless it is apathy. The speaker warmed up on this subject and brought the importance of every man's voting and the fact that the school fund was to be paid to the people in such a manner as will prove beneficial. Capt. Galloway will speak again in Wilson county during the campaign.

At the conclusion of Capt. Galloway's speech the speaker called upon Capt. J. S. Battle, candidate for the Senate, took the stand and spoke briefly in announcing his position. He said he stood unreservedly on the platform of the Republican party and that his action in the Senate on the prohibition question—said that he voted to submit it to the people because he, in his capacity as a representative, did not feel that he should arrogate to himself the power to vote for or against the bill without any expression of his constituents. Mr. Battle said that he was no speaker—that he was a manufacturer and a farmer, and that he should not attempt to make a set speech. He said this was no time for discussions—that all white men must stand together to defeat the hybrid-headed monster, the republican party. He favored the entire repeal of the internal revenue system; he favored a tariff for revenue only; he favored the present system of county government or any other system that would accomplish the same results. Other issues were discussed by the speaker who closed by urging the white men to remain united and preserve this as the white man's government.

On the Wing.

The little village of Whitakers is becoming a busy little place. Mr. W. T. Taylor is doing a thriving business at his manufacturing shops, with many improvements in mechanical inventions.

The male and female academy is improving every day. But alas, with this to gladden our hearts that monster death will come among us and claim its victims from infancy to old age.

Mr. Robert Vick found his infant dead in bed last Thursday morning smothered to death accidentally by his mother. Then came the horrible death of Mr. W. H. Carlisle, who was a great sufferer. The injuries he received, the amputation of both legs, and his extreme old age, 72 years, hastened his death.

We wandered our way on Monday to Warren to attend the Superior Court. Found the Lawyers plentiful with Judge McKoy on the bench looking as well as ever.

Mr. Williams a mulatto negro was sentenced to 15 years imprisonment in the penitentiary for assault and attempt to ravish Miss Jennie Hendricks, aged 14 years.

Mr. R. H. Dunn, Esq., was the next speaker. Mr. Bodie made a very pleasant and effective speech in which he reviewed at some length his record in the legislature and in public life.

Concluding his speech, which was listened to with marked attention and which was received with much pleasure, he urged a vigorous campaign, and called on the Democrats to lay aside personal considerations and go to work for the ticket.

On motion of W. P. Wooten the proceedings were ordered to be published in the Wilson Advance, Rocky Mount Reporter, Toisnot Sunny Home and Franklin Times. The convention then adjourned.

Kenan, Williams and Aycock at Cross Roads.

Last Saturday was a great day for Cross Roads. Announcement had been made that Col. Thomas S. Kenan and H. G. Connor, Esq., would address the people of a number were in attendance. Col. Kenan made a speech worthy of the man and the occasion—full of truth, full of sound arguments and full of fire.

On taking the chair, being introduced to the people of this district who knew him too well to require any eulogium at his hands.

Mr. T. M. Arrington placed the name of Capt. J. S. Battle in nomination as the choice of Nash county for the nomination of Senator. On motion H. G. Connor and J. S. Battle were nominated by acclamation.

Kenan and Connor at Spring Hill.

According to announcement Col. Thomas S. Kenan and H. G. Connor, Esq., spoke at Spring Hill last Friday. A very good crowd was present and marked attention was paid to the speaking. The good was accomplished. Mr. Connor led off in a calm, practical, plain and convincing speech of about an hour's duration in which he discussed the questions now agitating the people of the State. Mr. Connor early excited his hearers to enthusiasm as does Vance, but he meets all the questions at issue in such an honest, reasonable and straightforward manner as to win friends and set men to thinking. His speech on this occasion was no exception. At the conclusion of the speech of Col. Kenan, who has a strong hold on the affections of the people of Spring Hill, he addressed the people in a masterly and telling manner. He urged them with all the arguments at his command to continue in their fidelity to the democratic party which had done so much for them. He referred to what Spring Hill had done in the past—how when war and desolation swept over the land they were true to their trusts and upheld their country's flag in the midst of danger. He urged them to be equally courageous in the cause of right and good government now that peace had been established; urged them to vote and work for the democratic ticket in the coming election; and to do this through a thorough and complete organization. Col. Kenan's speech was just the thing needed. He spoke in the right vein and he spoke with good effect. The mouths of the people in all that section were full of praise and they were anxious to hear him again. Several residents assert that the speaking gained us votes.

Our Public Schools.

DEAR SIR:—The duties of my office calling me continually from home, I have not been able to give you the promised notes from the public schools, but will do so soon.

I wish to call the attention of the committees of the various school districts to the fact that they are required by law to take and return ple on this question.

That if a Prohibition bill were introduced in the Legislature he should vote against it.

The question of the present system of county government was discussed. The speaker thought that the present system, the only system North Carolina ever adopted, except under the Canby constitution, should be continued.

CAPT. JAMES S. BATTLE was then called on, and in response to the call made a very earnest and stirring speech accepting the nomination, and pledging his best endeavors during the campaign.

He believed education to be the open sesame of all substantial progress, and in the last legislature, where it was his honor to represent this district in the Senate, he had on all occasions favored and worked for the common school system.

At the residence of Mr. W. E. Farmer in this place Tuesday night, Sept. 26th, Mr. James R. Nelson, a successful young merchant of Scotland Neck, to Miss Florence Greenwood, of this place, Rev. J. H. Gunn officiating. After the ceremony had been performed the happy couple took the train for Scotland Neck, their future home, where they carried with them the best wishes of friends and acquaintances, to which the ADVANCE adds its congratulations and the wish that they may have a long life of unalloyed conjugal bliss.

At the residence of Mr. Wm. Winstead in Nash county, Tuesday morning at half past nine o'clock, Mr. D. W. Hackney, of Wilson to Miss Sue Cooper of Nash, Rev. John N. Cole officiating. The following were the attendants on the occasion: Mr. C. S. Surry with Miss Sue Rice, Mr. J. W. Hines—Miss Carrie King, Mr. J. W. Hines—Miss Mabel Cooper, Mr. Willie Winstead—Miss Ella Hackney, Mr. Wm. H. Barnes.

Miss Cooper is held in high esteem for her true womanly character. We congratulate our friend Douglas upon his auspicious entrance into the holy estate of matrimony, and wish for the young couple all the happiness that life is capable of affording.

At the residence of the bride's father in this place, Wednesday morning at half past 9 o'clock, Mr. Edw. Barnes, Jr., was united in marriage to Miss Laurie Davis, Rev. R. S. Bronson, Rector of St. Timothy's Church, officiating. Only the family and a few friends were present, and the bride and groom immediately after the ceremony had been performed left on the Northern bound train for an extended Northern tour.

Mr. Barnes is a member of the firm of Rountree, Barnes & Co., a successful and thorough going business, and occupies a prominent position in business circles. Miss Davis is a beautiful and accomplished young lady—one of Wilson's most charming and popular daughters, and Mr. Barnes is to be congratulated on winning so accomplished a bride.

The presents given to this newly married couple were numerous and costly and evidenced the high esteem in which they are held by our people. We but voice the sentiment of the community in wishing for them the full realization of all the happiness they anticipate.

DEED.

Mr. John D. Mustian, manager of the Griffin House, died in Nashville, N. C., on Thursday, August 24th, aged 34 years. He was a native of Franklin county, was a Mason and unmarried. His death was quite unexpected. He was up the day before, but had an ague and is supposed to have died of congestion of the stomach and bowels.
