Money can be sent by Money Order or Registered Letter at our risk. OFFICE-Tarboro Street, in the Old Post

NEWS OF A WEEK

OF THE WORLD.

ed a pole would you call a man When I get married, I suppose." born in Holland a hole !

The average an thodist preacher's all. salary in New England is $1,200. In North Carolina it is $525.

who picks out 125 pounds of cot- wise.

ton every day. Prof. W. C. Kerr has resigned his position under the general government. He would like to be

State Geologist again. Don Williams, Jr. was severely wonn led in the right wrist by the accidental discharge of his gun, Norfolk to Goldsboro. In regard quite a quantity of agricultural while he was out hunting, says the Tarbaro "Southerner." sisters has a son. What relation husband, are their children!-Record. Sullivan must give up the belt as the champion slugger. The North Carolina darkey who knocked an elephant and his keeper out in two rounds, take sthe bun. The best way for negro politicians to get all their rights is to dron-polities and go to work. You never hear of an industrious negro complaining of any lack of rights.

position before the people of the Northern States.

A correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer" suggests that a meeting be held at the Yarborough House at 10 o'clock, a m., on Friday of Fair week for consultation and organization of the "Confederate Home."

Mormons eighty-one missionaries were appointed to go on missions to Europe and the United States. Of this number eighteen were set Since Let then be driven out at the point of the bayonet!

Before the Senatorial Investi, is firmly believed that the road will gating Committee Dr. A. M. Bell be speedly built to Goldsboro. of Brooklyn estimates that the value to the community of a child years old $260, and at the age of village, lost his wife by death on for the front end of his plug of to-Wednesday of last week, and then bacco, "O, Sage, we mourn the on last Wednesday, he was united loss of a good man," was the reply. loss of a good man," was the reply. he was and readiness always add a women will be there; strong midness always add a located men and their wives will the name of Smith, who resided on Cartledge's Creek, in this vicinity.

This we regard as quick work, of your project.

The Charlotte "Journal Observer" he looked around him. And a hush lation, all exhibitors and visitors and visitors and drink red lemonade. Yes from different parts of the distortion and drink red lemonade. The distortion of the distortion and drink red lemonade and drink red lemonade. The distortion of the distortion of the distortion and drink red lemonade. The distortion of the distort Says is reported about town that feil upon the crowd and no one re-from different parts of the State, everybody, your sisters and your property of the State, everybody, your sisters and property of the State and the state of the State the enterprise of starting another death," whispereds the Sage, "does daily in Charlotte this winter. He not even cut down the undertaker's and from other States.

The Fair Grounds are situated be there and if you don't go you'll tives in almost every county in daily in Charlotte this winter. He not even cut down the undertaker's within the corporate limits of the has been the most successful edi-

who has been visiting this country, says: "America may be a republic but socially and socially and all points of the socially and social and soci

VIISON ADVANCE.

"LET ALL THE ENDS THOU AIM'ST AT, BE THY COUNTRY'S, THY GOD'S, AND TRUTHS'."

VOLUME 13.--

WILSON, NORTH CAROLINA, OCTOBER 19. 1883.

--NUMBER 36

The woods were draped with the

A Cincinnati girl who has $80,000 | ROCKY MOUNT FAIR in eash in bank has been trying to elope with the chamipon pieeater of America. That's the way GATHERED FROM ALL PARTS to eatch an heiress-become a champion of something or other. They see a halo of glory around the head of even a champion loafer.

PENCILLANGS - GLEANINGS At the wrong door: At the baths an impatient young man walked p to the door of one of the compart A general stock law went into ments and, knocking on the same A general slock law well into testily inquired: "When in the trousers on?" There was a faint If a man bara in Poland is call giggle and a silvery voice replied: he had mistaken the door, that's

We were talking yesterday, says the information we have it is safe the Wilmington "Star" with a gen- to predict that the exhibit next The "Southerner" says Maj. Mayo tleman, a native of Granville, and tweek will far surpass any thing is moving for a new post office in he agreed with us that the tax on heretofore seen in the State. The Nash, between Whitakers and Cas, tobacco has made the farmers to races will be more spirited this A Brooklyn youth broke off an er than to injure them. We are as ment having been turned over to by I. J. BATTLE, PRESIDENT ROCKY MT FAIR, prosper in the tobace section rath- year than heretofore, this departengagement on account of a differ- thing in which dollars and cents All the departments will be full in view, we trust that there may ence of opinion as to the color o enter. The farmers of Granville, and those who fail to attend will be no laggards to put a drag upon Person, Caswell, Orange, &c., have miss seeing much that would be of the wheel, but that heartiness, There is an old lady near Ring- never paid one cent of the tobacco interest as well as of benefit to manliness and zeal may push the present to the readers of the Anwood, Halifax county, 87 years old tax It is misleading to say other them.

Another Rail Road Project.

Norfolk is seeing another out let and has made a proposition to a Northern Symbolicate. The Hall Grange held a Fair at Mcproposition will, it is thought, be Kendreeville, Edgecombe county, accepted and a railroad boilt from at which there was on exhibition ada has stricken the word "obey" An old man and his two sons in from the marriage service. It is Cleathern county married three asking enough of a woman to make sisters, and now each one of the her promise to love and honor her ed that the Church only desires her to love and honor him and do as she pleases when she pleases she shall do right.

to this matter, the Charlotte "Journal and Observer" says:

bers of the Seney syndictae to Nor- sum asked for was readily subfolk is likely to result in the build- scribed and it was determined to ing of a line road from Norfolk to hold the Fair at this point. The Goldsboro, and the long cherished first exhibition was held in the fall There are nice fittle stories about dream of L. W. Humphrey will be of 1881 and it attracted a State the return of "The Prodigal Daugh fulfilled. The Richmond and Dan- wide notice and was successful far ter" The son can return and ville is endeavoring to secure a di- beyond the expectations of the have the finest yeal served up for rect line to Norfolk for the freight founders. In 1882 the second exhim, but the daughter must stay which has heretofore gone to Nor- hibit, much larger and better than folk over the Norfolk and West the first, was held, an immense A Convention of Northern born tern Railroad from Knoxville by number of people attending. The virtue of the connection with the unprecedented success of the two East Tennessee, Virginia and Geor-first exhibits lead the managers to measures as are deemed best to gia Railroads at that place. The expect even a greater success with place North Carolina in proper plan is to build a road from North the third which will be held next folk to Goldsboro in this State at week. which place the line of the Richmond and Danville system ends and thus secure the carrying of all | The managers of the Fair pulfreight put on any of its lines lish the following appeal to the for Norfolk entirely over its own public: lines. It is understood that the The pronounced success of our burg; T. T. Cherry, Bethel; C. L. business men of Norfork alone efforts, and the substantial en- Murphrey, Snow Hill; E. Cromhave pledged $250,000 to the en- convagement that has been exterprise. A very liberal charter tended to the Association from the In the Episcopal General Con- was granted by the Legislature of patrons of industry in its varied vention, the election of Dr. Ran- this State in 1872 for the purpose branches will ment our thanks. dolph as Assistant Bishop of Vir of building their road, A Mr. and a pardonable exultation in the ginia was confirmed by the House Owens, of New York city, is Presi- results of our work. A broader of Deputies; the House of Bishops dent and Colonel L. W. Humphrey comprehension of the requirements refused to concur in a division of of Goldsboro, is the moving spirit. of such an Association, and a larger He has been working at this pro experience in the management of Swine, &c .- T. P. Braswell, uperject for eleven cears, andnow thinks its verious departments warrant visor. short time. The Atlanta Condi enterlaining, more instructive and tution says that a year ago the more profitable in this, the third Rachmond and Danville people year of our organization. The made a strong effort to buy a mar recognized purpose of our Associajority of the stock of the Seaboard tion is to arouse a generous rivalry & Roanoke railroad and failed. It in our producers, manufacturers, Exum. Supervisor. is asserted here that this spurt of mechanics, and inventors, to call There used to be a large hollow the Richmond & Danville folks is our people together in friendly tree in Y meet county, in a mount made for the purpose of inducing competition of skill displayed in tain cove in which a squatter nam the holders of the Seabaard stock the nature of live stock, the perfeced Brown, his wife and six children to sell, so that the Richmond & tion of garden products, the utility spens two years and endured all the Danville owners may thus obtain of household articles, and the ingevigor of the evere mountain win control of the line from Norfolk to muity and beauty of decorative ters, subs sting or root, acorns and Raleigh, which would do away with work. the game that he could kill with the necessity of building a road to We extend a cordial invitation to Goldsboro, as connection would then be at Raleigh. If t'ey fail it

A Parable and a Moral

twenty $560. Then he estimates journey to Wisconsin, came upon a the loss by death in New York at crowd one day and observed a sadness on all faces: "Why this gloom?" queried the old man, as William Webb, of Pee Dee he laid down his bundle and felt This we regard as quick work, of you praised and encouraged their valued aid. We will glad! handsome made occasion with their presence; testent Episcopal Church, Superintent valued aid. We will glad! -Rockingham Spirit of the South" him in life?" asked the old man, as he looked around him. And a hush their valued aid. We will glad ditions will be there to ride on the ditions will be the ride on the ride public, but socially and sentiment if you want to get rid of it, you track has been greatly improved all points from Goldsboro and all points was give it a warm recention with and is in excellent order.

No bet ally it is a woman's kingdom. From must give it a warm reception with and is in excellent order, Cape Cod to the Golden Gate the Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the stand- No effort will be spared to render

ITS THIRD ANNUAL EXHIBI-TION, OCT. 23D-26TH.

BRILLIANT PROSPECTS.

The Third Annual Exhibition of the Eastern Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical Association will be held at the Fair Grounds, at Rocky Mount, next week, commeneing Tuesday, October 23rd. The prospects for a very large exhibit and attendance are very fine. From

ORIGIN OF THE FAIR. without interest. In the fall of 1880 the members of Temperance The Methodist Church of Can- products. The success of this exmanagers to choose Tarboro or Powell, Battleboro. Rocky Mount as a location for permanent fair. Propositions were therefore made to Tarboro, in effect that if they would subscribe certain amount of money, the Fair

would be held at that place. Tarboro failed to comply with the conditions of the proposition and a similar proposition was made to The recent visits of the mem- the city of Rocky Mount. The

the road will be built in a very us in promising a display more the citizens of Edgeeombe, Nash and the surro inding counties, and to the public generally to meet at law Hon Zebulon B. Vance, U. S. or Court of Edgesomber season of the exhibition and bring ral Address. This of itself will with them a generous display of draw thousands. exhibits. To this end we heartily invite farmers, manufacturers, mechanics, stock raisers, inventors them, are large and worth competand workers in all the branches of ing for. We have atready publication usefulness and art, to aid in perfeeting the avowed object of this contested. Association, which is to encourage home prosperity and independ- Everybody is going, or ought to this sketch.

to welcome him again to the ranks. Moral: The widow will be expected adapted to their varied purposes. Fair at 7:25 a. m. and arrive at University, Richard H. Battle, the Geq Δ. Sala, the English editor port herself.—Detroit "Free Press."

adapted to their varied purposes. These embrace a Grand Stand, a Floral Hall, a Mechanics' Hall and The way freights and morning the control of their varied purposes. Fair at 7:25 a. in. and the control of their varied purposes. Fair at 7:25 a. in. and the control of their varied purposes. These embrace a Grand Stand, a Floral Hall, a Mechanics' Hall and the control of their varied purposes. The way freights and morning the control of the control of their varied purposes. The way freights and morning the control of the co

American woman is queen" And ard cough remedy of our age. For the exhibition of 1883 replete with this he might have added, is one of sale by all druggists at twenty-live the elements that conduce to suc-

The high character of the offi-

The officers are PRESIDENT.

VICE-PRESIDENTS.

V. B. Batchelor, Nashville; W hibit, held in the country, away C. Gorham, Wilson; Jno. King. from all railroads or means of Falkland; Jno. R. Mercer, Toisnot; transportation, encouraged the Jno. D. Wells, Toisnot; J. W.

D. H. Barlow, Tarboro; S. T. Cher-derness from her children.

R. Winstead, Rocky Mount. SECRETARY. James Dø Jenkins, Rocky Mount ASSISTANT SECRETARY. T. M. Arrington, Rocky Mount.

TREASURER. B. H. Bunn, Rocky Mount. CHIEF MARSHAL. Josephus Daniels, Wilson.

ASSISTANT MARSHALS. W. H. Griffin, Rocky Mount; D W. Thorpe, Rocky Mount; A. H. most improved methods, and has Ricks, Battleboro; Dr. H. B, Mar- made his large farm one of the riott, Battleboro; H. W. Stubbs, Williamston; Y. T. Ormond. Hookerton; W. N. Hadley, La. Grange; W. M. Ward, Wilson; Jas. ideas about farming, but is practi-W. Hines, Wilson; G. W. Baines, cal in all his operations. Progress-Stanhope; R. Z. Egerton, Louis- ive, practical, energetic, he stands well, Jr., Tarboro.

The following is the list of the SUPERVISORS.

Department A .-- Field and Gar den Products-Jesse Brake, Super-

&c.-R. H. Ricks, Supervisor. Department C .- Cattle, Sheep,

O. Bulluck, Supervisor. ducts,-G. C Battle, Supervisor. Department F .- Pantry Supplies,-Erastus Cherry, Supervisor, lina. It must be a matter of con-Paintings, Drawings, &c .- J. H.

Department H .- Orchard Pro ducts,-S. T. Cherry. Supervisor. Departmen, I.-Vehicles, Saddles, Harness, &c .- M. A. Knight, has ever been at the disposal of Department K-Machinery,&c .-D. A. Barlow, Supervisor.

ATTRACTIONS.

The premiums offered, many of cousins and your sweethearts will

will be given.

President Battle

It is with much pleasure that we old in the prime of his manhood left behind. se Br. ke, Rocky Mount; T. P. His father "passed over the river" Whitakers; C. L. Killebrew, Rocky er is still living, at an advanced Mount; Erastus Cherry, Tarboro; old age, the object of love and ten-

A. Knight, Old Sparta; M. B. Pitt, of Dr. J. J. Phillips and sister of Old Sparta: R. H. Ricks, Rocky Judge Fred Phillips, Messrs Jos. Mount; M. C. S. Cherry, Bethel; W. and John Phillips.

They have eight children, the oldest of whom, Henry Battle, is the junior member of the firm of J. J. Battle & Son. Although in business not a year this firm has built up quite a large trade, which will be largely increased next year. In mercantile pursuits Mr. Battle is the same safe, cautious, enterprising man as in other departments in life. As a farmer he has always been successful. He has used the best to be found in Eastern North Carolina. He has no visionary in the front rank of North Carolina's best farmers, and we would we had many more John Battle's! But it is not so much of his life that we wish to speak as of his great in terest in the Rocky Mount Fair. From its inception he has been its Department B.-Horses, Mules, leader, and its remarkable success is due, perhaps, more to him than to any other man. He has labored for it in season and out of Department D .- Poultry .- W. season. Its success has been the uppermost desire of his heart, and make it the Fair of North Caro Department G.-Fine Arts, gratulation to him to see his labors so signally rewarded. He has been the President of the Fair since it was organized and his time, his parse, and his influence the association Mr. Battle has always been a Department L.—Trials of Speed- quiet unassuming man and has had no ambition to gain the plaudits of populace. He has The attractions at the Fair will filled the positions of Justice of be many and great. In addition the Feace, County Commissioner.

A charitable, christian man, up tives in almost every county in the State, among whom we might tor in the State and we'd be glad sawing wood for his widow, to welcome him again to the ranks. Moral: The widow will be expectwell known lawyer of Raleigh, and

> No better man could have been elected at the head of the Fair. Sans peur et sans reproche he has The music will be furnished by a strong hold upon the affections of the people among whom he lives. sights in the display is a house

FREE PRESS' OPINION:

RECEPTION OF THE PRESS

ed because it is so seldom that a old Neptune and Ervin (the sweet black gum, mulberry, hemlock, rieties, showing that our waters left home this morning, if I came ceives that recognition from the make the editors forget they didn't locust, wild red cherry, witch hazel, wealth.

ments had already been made. A rangements and surrendered to the "Yankees." In keeping with the programme marked out, the American department of the Exposition, was Friday morning, visited. The building is a large one and is well filled with nseful and valuable minerals, machinery, collections from different sections of the natural products of the soil. Most of the exhibits are from the New England States and the majority of the displays are made by individual enterprises and of Tennessee has a very fair exmostly of building stones. The Union Pacific Railroad Company has a very fine display, showing the products of Nebraska and other Western States, while the display of machinery is excellent and a machinest could spend weeks looking over this department and examining the many unprovements here exhibited, many of them for the first time. The different exhibits made by various manufacturies of the country of almost every kind of goods are very attractive and great taste is showed in the arrangement of them all. The art department is very fine. But it is not of the Exposition as a whole we wish to speak, for we have not space for that, but of NORTH CAROLINA'S DISPLAY especially. Great care was partment. shown in the gathering together of much of so that which shows what our State really is. The products of ment were well filled with the beauthe mountains, the soil and the water tiful "golden deaf" for which the are all there and the sight of them old North State is so famous. It day Hon. Zebulon B. Vance, U. S. or Court, of Edgeombe county. In charge this display of North Caro from nearly all the tobacco-grow-swear or throw a card, the well didn't.!" our Fair Grounds at the appointed day Hon. Zebund day Hon. Zeb been called he has ever proved much credit for the excellent ex tractive things in the exhibition asking sent to the United States faithful, and has held throughout hibit he has collected of the pro- was a throne made of raw cotton Senate by the aid of both pelitithe confidence and esteem of the ducts and resources of the State. in which sat "king cotton," and cal parties, the statesman and of his life at Washington before people who knew him best. We The tide of immigration must over the throne floated a banner Senator who was then returned the war is familiar. A party of know no man who possesses in a change and the chances are on which was written, "cotton is home for our darling of a boy, Zeb Congressmen, Whigs and Demo. ing for. We have the strongly in North Carolina's favor king." Every thing about it was alon of the West, to take his place, crats, were sitting in front of the usned a new will be hotly esteem of the people, among whom for it to turn this way. A few made from the fleecy staple. There the quiet, solid, hard-working, dig-hotel discussing the ding-dong old he was born and has lived, in more exhibitions of this kind will were several bales of cotton and nified lawyer who has since his doctrines to determine the differ a large measure than the subject of accomplish no little in this directibe cotton in the boll and on the return to private life been manful-ence between tweedle dum and will be most interesting to our from the cotton seed in different S. Merrimon.-Reidsville "Times." said he, and he beckoned to a As you enter the hall the first mills of the State were on exhibisight that meets your eyes is a tion. Formerly the seeds, which banner, stretched across the larg- are separated from the cotton by H. Mills, Esq. Dear Sir:-Before est and most varied collection of the cotton gin, were considered leaving the good old State of North politics. I say you are a Demonatural products, in the most con- worthless, but a few years ago it Carolina, a State from whose 'peo- crat." spicuous position, which bears the was found that they could be util- ple I have received so much kindwords, "North Carolina," Just in ized. The bulls are used for fuel front of the North Carolina display in the furnace, the ashes forming herewith a check for $100, to go to orphan, I am an infidel, I have no is an office occupied by Commis- an excellent fertilizer; the kernals the endowment fund of the Ox- friends, I am sick, I have no credit. sioner McGbee, State Chemist, are pressed and from them is ex-Dr. Dabney and State, Immigra- tracted cotton-seed oil, which is tion Agent Patrick, over which a used to a great extent for cooking helping the orphans. May God never shall!" And the argument sign hangs on which is written purposes; the pressed cakes being help you, my dear friend, for the ceased. "Information," and here these ground into meal for cattle. gentlemen stay and give any in- Prepared pine straw for stuffing are engaged, and may He shower As the doctor turned sadly away

THE EXPOSITION. built of wheat, rice and oats is a new departure in the industrial and grasses with shelves on the pursuits of the State and we hope sides for samples of different grains, to see it become a more common Inside of this house is a pyramid of one. The oil obtained from the

THE EDITOR OF THE KINSTON shelves which are filled with wheat, straw pays for the preparation and SOME OF HIS SIDE-SPLITTING rice, peanuts, &c. The display of the straw is clean profit. wheat and rice attracts consider. The juniper, cypress and pine able attention, because the New shingles were there. Englanders did not know we could raise such fine wheat and rice in gray moss found so extensively in the swamps around Kinston. the old Rip Van Winkle State. The turpentine still of McMillan That which seemed to be of more Bros, of Fayetteville, and Worth Having adopted at its last ses interest than all else was the dis & Worth rosin was quite a novel sion a resolution to attend the Bos play of woods. There are one hun, sight to some of the visitors, ton Exposition in a body, a number dred and fifty different varieties to Col. W. J. Green's wine made of the North Carolina Press Con. be seen. Small polished specimens, from the Tokay vineyard, Garrett which will interest and amuse the vention boarded the D. H. Mille, at show the grain of the wood when & Bro's made from the vine-Norfolk, Tuesday evening, October it is prepared for ornamental or yard in Rahfax county, were beau-2nd, en route for the Hub. The domesticuse, and large logs, from pully arranged on two different The Celebrated Cabbage Seed, steamer which bore the editorial which a section has been cut, show pyramids while a third was filled craft through the briny deep was the wood in its natural state. In the with North Carolina whiskeys and large, well arranged, perfect in all display are specimens of the curly brandies, and a fourth with samits equipments and officered by a poplar, black oak, water oak, pies of the soil and marl from dif- the State one of the candidates clever set of men who showed us Spanish oak, red hickory, carled ferent sections of the State. Our for Congress left the ordinary canmany courtesies. Barring a little maple, backberry, persimmon, cot- people bave long considered vass and went out on what is sea-sickness, in which Bros. Ashe, ton, gum, beech, maple, tupelo gum, whether or not silk culture could be known as a still hunt." He roue London, Ervin and others took an a very white wood, sycamore, wil made a profitable business in North up to the gate of Mr. Smith.active part and distinguished (if low oak, red bay, horn beam, laurel- Carolina and an excellent exhibit "Hello!" "Hello yourself." "Is not extinguished) themselves, the oak, junip r, palmetto, ash, red of silk, in its different styles from trip was pleasant and highly encelling clm, gum poplar, bitter-nut hickory, the cocoons to the manufactured of silk, in its different styles from the different styles from the companion of the manufactured of silk, in its different styles from the companion of the manufactured of silk, in its different styles from the companion of the manufactured of silk, in its different styles from the companion of the co joyable. The eracking of jokes, holly, black-jack oak, yellow focust, article, will convince them. We said Mrs. Smith, coming to the spinning of yarns, telling of hair red cedar, sour wood, white holly, noticed with peculiar pleasure that loor; "but I'm here. Light and work onward to its legitimate re- VANCE this week a correct likeness breadth escapes on sea and land swamp chestnut, oak red birch, some of the silk was from our own come in." "No, thank you ma'a-n, of Mr. J. J Battle, of Rocky Mount, (it was noted that those who had sweet gum, over-cup oak, old-field county of Lenoic. Some canned haven't time; I wanted to see Mr. President of the Eastern Carolina never been in a battle could tell pine, short-leaf pine, yellow pine, goods were on exhibition. A lew words as to the origin of cers and supervisors and judges in- Agricultural and Mechanical Assometer beautiful pine, short lear pine, yellow pine, goods were on exhibition.

Agricultural and Mechanical Assometer beautiful pine, short lear pine, yellow pine, goods were on exhibition.

The display of fish was very learning pine, white pine, white pine, white pine, white pine, white pine, learning pine, le the Rocky Mount Fair will not be sures that the Fair will be well ciation. This pleasure is increas the scarced veteran) songs of sassafras, white shellbark, hickory, fine. There were thirty-seven value of sassafras, white shellbark, hickory, fine.

> solid, practical farmer, who has singer-not of Israel, but of Mor- spruce, chinquepin, dog wood, contain a greater variety of the within ten miles of your house to devoted all the energies of a life-ganton) and so forth, etcetera, ten- white spruce, weeping willow, inny tribe than are to be found in stop and get some of your celebra-J. J. Battle, Rocky Mount, N. C. time to agricultural pursuits, re- ded to drive away dull care and to sumach, balm of Gilead, honey the waters of any other commonpress and the public to which he is own the whole ocean, the vessel umbrella, mountain maple, white North Carolina is well represent- were the best in the country. The and the world, and that they bay, black mulberry, white walnut, ed, in fact it takes the lead and no old lady hearing that her cabbage Mr. Battle is now forty five years hadn't payed the printers they curled pine, black walnut, scrub person visits the Exposition withoak, rough and smooth bark en out being astonished at the variety and has many years before him of The party reached Boston Thurs cumber, laurel, crab apple, huckle- of our exhibit, and the resources of usefulness and honor. His father day night about 7 o'clock and were berry, service, chestnut, china North Carolina. There was to be fixed up about a half peck in a met by Col. Pardee and others and tree, black ash, black cypress, hem-G. C. Battle, Rocky Mount; Jes his mother was Miss Mary Horn. taken up in fine style through the lock, striped maple, magnolia, ivy, or lives or is made in North Carolack asin, black cypicss, neinbrilliantly lighted street (electric water ash, snow dip, iron wood, lina, and anything like an accu-Bruswell, Battleboro; J. H. Exum, a number of years age, but his moth- light is used in Boston) to the red hickory, wax myrtle, balsam rate and full account of our whibit mighty polite and kind. The can-Crawford House, where arranges fir, sugar maple, yellow wood, would occupy several pages of our didate pursued his way, a few n.iles > swamp dogwood, wahoo, fed elm, paper. It is a creditable display, and came to Mr. Brown's. Mr. programme for sight-seeing had yellow poplar, post oak, black and our only regret is that every Brown, like Mr. Smith, was also ry, Tarboro; W. O. Bulluck, Rocky Mr. Battle was married early in been mapped out by Col. Pardee, birch, cypress, lim. and many North Carolinian cannot go and Mount; L. B. Knight, Tarboro; M. life to Miss Sue Phillips, daughter Col. McGhee and others, and the press men fell readily into the ar- woods suitable for veneers are crease his State pride, give him Brown, how are you off for cab shown. The display of minerals, broader views, and benefit him in bage seed !" "Lord bless your ores and building stones far sur, many ways. It will close Novempasses the most sanguine expecta- ber 3rd. tions of those who had great con- THE RECEPTION OF THE PRESS. fidence in the almost unlimited. The North Carolina press never me this package, saying, that if I supply of valuable stones of the was so cordially received, and so came within ten miles of your State. Some of the most valuable magnificently entertained. The house to give them to you, as she and rarest minerals known were City Council, the Boston Press, and had heard you were scarce."to be seen all around, such as the individual citizens vied with each Thanking him profoundly the lady topay, hiddenite, which is next in other in their attentions. We were took the seed, and the candidate value to the diamond and takes feasted, we were banquetted, we rode away, feeling that though his its name from Prot. Hidden who were taken to see all the places of use of the truth had been sparing, first discovered it in North Caro interest, carried to Lowell to see he had made himself dear to the lina, who was present with his the immense cotton factories, principal of the family and caused collection which is a very fine one. Every wish or desire seemed to a judicious distribution of celebra railroad corporations. The State There were numbers of the largest have been anticipated, and the ted cabbage seed." and most beautiful crystals known, "culchaw" of Boston seemed dihibit, but rather small, consisting Among the ores there were iron, rected and focussed in the endeagold and a number of others in Vor to make the North Corolina large quantities and from different press have a pleasant visit. - And sections while the most beautiful we had it. We saw more than we bilding stones in the world showed have ever seen befere; we ate to great advantage. There were more, by a large majority; we several different kinds of granite heard better speeches; some of the black and the mottled. The our party had more and better sand stone, the brown stone and champagne than they were used to the Supreme Court bench, and

A Sell Made Man.

A Generous Contribution

of my beloved wife, one, who while living, delighted in assisting and good and noble work in which you beautiful building stones ever ex, words we had the most 'glorious hibited. The sandstone is a flex. time on record. ble stone and you can take it in your hand and bend either way tome, but the visions of Bunker and the leopardite is so called be- Hill monument. Fancul Hall, Ben. cause it has spots like a leopard. Butler (big, fat and ugly) the tree Dried fruit occupied a promit under which Washington first took nent place in the exhibition. It command of the army, the hum of was very tastefully arranged in Lowell's machinery, the roar of jars and glass cases. The peach, the grand old ocean float before apple, blackberry, goose berry, us and we would fain lay down our and other fruits comprised this de. pen, and make another visit to the city of baked beans, Ben Butler, Bunker Hill monument, fine stores, North Carolina has long been elegant residences and excellent noted for tobacco and this departis doing the eyes and the hearts of was arranged in show cases in And the man that hanled, wood If I had done right," said the Sen

Leopardite and some of the most

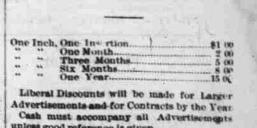

the New Englanders good and it such a manner as to show off to the when a goslin of a boy to a coun- ator, "I would have laughed at the will ere long reap a golden barvest best advantage. Considerable at try town in the mountains, the old man's ignorance and told him tention was attracted by this de young man that afterwards could I didn't write the book. Yet I Commissioner McGehee in whose partment. There were samples never be persuaded to drink, or would have lost the lift. So I tion. We shall not attempt to stalk to be seen. This was a curi-ly at work at his profession of the tweedle-dee. Vance 'saw the give a full report of our exhibit at osity to New Englanders, many of law-this is the man that the State ridiculousness of the situation and those things which we believe Samples of the meal and oil made the Governor did it-this man is A. stages of preparation from the formation asked for concerning the State. One of the most attractive Wilmington cotton seed mills came State. One of the most attractive in for its share of attention. This ford "Orphan's Friend."

His blessing upon the poor orphans now in your care, is the prayer of your friend, Isaac Ettinger.—Ox said. "It beats me every time."

WILSON ADVANCE

VANCE'S HUMOR

ANECDOTES

NOBODY LIKE HIM.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Raleigh "Chronicle," published a lew of Vance's famous anecdotes readers of the ADVANCE.

were called celebrated became all smiles, and with nimble fingers soul, I haven't hardly any." "That is what my wife told me when I left home this morning. She gave everything Whigism. I could not make any kind of compromise with

"I happened to pull through, get the position, and, after I went to Washington I sent him a copy of the Patents Office Reports, con taining these double section, self regulating, cut-and come-again pumps, and other things of tike to hear me, paid strict attention and after the speech was over me to one side and said: "Look here, Vance, I've been reading the book you sent me, and I like yer doctrines pooty well, and if I find nothing no more Whig than I have so far, I'll give you a lift next time has risen up and pointed at tor determined to put an end to the Governor Jarvis to place him on old argument. "Gentlemen, I'll settle it for you," tramp who happened to be pass-

"Stranger," said Vance, "we's, Raleigh, N. C., Oct, 9th, 1883.-J got a little bet here about your

"Gentlemen," said the fellow, lines to tell you farewell. I inclose "I am poor, I am ragged, I am an ford Orphan Asylum, in memory But I'll be hanged if I've sank so low as to be a Democrat, and I

His blessing upon the poor orphans from the patient whom he found