OF HIS YOUTH.

tice me, and I don't know yet 'Come along, I tell you, or line of despair. "We are glad to see you here," what made him do it.' Well, you see the like of that fell over her shoulders in waving tresses, and what beautiful hands and feet, and how fawnlike she locomoted about-andabout, and how shy and startled she was when I began to and then her teeth-her pearly teeth-that were almost as pretty as those she has now. I was in earnest, and then how suddenly she surrendered with tumultuous affection, and I re-

When he

beautiful lines of Coleridge: "She wept with pity and delight, She biashed with issee and virgin sh
And like the murmur of a dream
I heard her breath my name. She half enclosed me in her arms; She pressed me with a meek embrace And bendung hack her head Jooked up And gazed upon my face,"

e im-

urary

one wn of

ining Julia ining

Augs.

it, I'll make another remark: up on a boy as slyly as a cat "Why, jist becaze I want them place where the light is warmest, in some of the older States in the When you woo and win and upon a rat, and catch him makwed, you had better keep on wooing and winning afterwards would hover over him a moor leave the country. It takes ment, and then pounce down becaze I need 'em. Oh, if you don't way, waiting for the Spirit of Love from an exchange, and yet we were well educated and smart, who were well educated to do the smart to speak, opening their simple board who will slash out a half collate to receive His word. There board who will slash out a half collate to receive His word. There is a woman, old, deformed, who will slash out a half collate to receive His word. There board who will slash out a half collate to receive His word. There is a woman, old, deformed, who will slash out a half collate to receive His word. There is a woman, old, deformed, who will slash out a half collate to receive His word. There is a woman, old, deformed, who will slash out a half collate to receive His word. There is a woman, old, deformed, who will slash out a half collate to receive His word. There is a woman, old, deformed, who will slash out a half collate to receive His word. There is a woman, old, deformed, who will slash out a half collate to receive His word. There is a woman of the chicken, and the ducated to me, an inguit, and to speak to the chicken, and the chicken, an were well educated and smart. pictures with his nose. One day in 'em to haul some apples to the her worn face, pure and meek, us who they are. - Wil Star. But they never taught school Jim Harris was up at the black- still house." .-- Arkansaw Traveler. turned now and then to the sky. very long, for our widowers board blundering along and married them about as fast as making all sorts of mistakes, they came. You see, our high- and old Isham got mad and, strung blooded girls wouldn't seizing him under the arms, marry widowers, for they could lifted him up bodily and moppliking, but a well-to-do widower and rubbed out all his figures, had a fancy for a settled woman and set him down again and who was raised to economy, sent him to his seat.

The first teacher I ever went to was a Yankee woman, and she had a dunce block set up in the middle of the room for the lay scholars to sit on. The mischevous ones were made to stand on the table or in the corner with face to the health of the heaves were with face to the health of the heaves were whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never whipped us and was slyly operating a kole in She never went to school and so the bills of heaven more fair?

The foutrage of heaven more fair?

Nothing remains to tell that the pour set to support we want to the pull in She all works and it is in the new so matter what it is, It would be almost dishonest to support we can't help it for it prize in we can't help it for it prize in the news no matter what it is, It would be almost dishonest to support we can't help it for it prize in the news no matter what it is, It would be almost dishonest to support we can't prize in the news no matter what it is, It would be almost dishonest to support

THE WILSON ADVANCE.

"LET ALL THE ENDS THOU AIM'ST AT, BE THY COUNTRY'S, THY GOD'S, AND TRUTHS"

VOLUME 18 .--

WILSON, NORTH CAROLINA, FEBRUARY 9, 1888.

NUMBER-2

aid him on her lap and tried Some of the little boys saw him to spank him, but he bit her on and whispered: 'Gimme some,

He Warns Young Men Against turns telling of their schoolboy along, sir,' said George. 'You the Prefly Girls With Hazel trolics and adventures. One must be very cold this morning. The Yankee School said, while I was going to Tom warmed awhile and took school to old Greer I picked a the shovel and pulled out the lot of wet mud off my shoe potato and put it in his pocket. heels and made it into a ball Gimme some, Tom; gimme and thought I would just toss some,' was whispered all around it over and hit Ed. Omberg, as he marched back to his seat. who sat on the other side of the 'Gimme some, or I'll tell.' The older we grow the often-that side too and right between snicker and point at Tom as he stood head in the spelling class here; come here; come right warming up will do you good, the woman were laying straight the for a month at a time, and she along here; and he met me sir.' And he gave him about a limbs and cleaning the cell, Deboremembers the speeches I spoke half way and gave me about dozen over his shoulders and chalf way and gave me about dozen over his shoulders and and with a pretended regret twenty-five that lasted and lin- lower down, and then divided that day, this woman alone had black, glossy hair, and he had boy, and chock full of mischief, fill a book, and I wish that sed to cast sheep's eyes at him the historic pin in old Greer's another. then, but I dident, for I was too split-bottom chair, and when he young to be a sweetheart then, came in and called the roll and but he had them. Yes, he was then took a seat in his accussmart and good-looking too, tomed seat, he didn't stay there and he knew it. Yes, he knew long, but rose up with great He Believed "a Powerful Sight" it. He had a fight once at school alacrity. His eyes flashed fire about his sweetheart. Her as he gazed around the room, name was Penelope McAlpin and he caught Jim in the same and another boy called her way he caught me, and seizing Penny lope just to tease your a long, keen, supple hickory meeting house, an old fellow, whom pa, and he hit him right said: 'Come up here, sir. You church, came forward and knett straight and they fought like villainous scamp. I'll show you down at the mouraer's bench. He -come along, sir.' Jim apwas a young man and I was in proached trembling and slow. that he soon attracted the attenmy teens, he was the dressiest Come along, I tell you, sir.' tention of the leading exhorters. youth in the town, and wore Jim stopped and stuttered with The exhorter finds his highest enthe tighest boots. Oh, my! I pitiful accents: 'Yer ger-ger- joyment in "working with" a mourn had no idea he would ever no- gwine to wh-wh-whip me.' er who has crossed the frontier

'Ger-ger-ger-gwine to wh-whcalled for a response, and so I whip me hard.' Old Greer have come to the right place to seek beautiful hazel-eyed creole she started towards him, but Jim comfort. was-what long raven hair that had lost confidence, and wheeling suddenly made tracks for mourner answered in blabberthe door with old Greer after ing accents. him. Jim bounced over two benches to get there first, but one course to pursue, my dying Greer had to turn a corner around the benches, and in doaddress her, and what juicy lips ing so tripped and fell broadcast and rolled over besides, viction?" that seemed pouting for a lover, and we boys just cackled. He told them how hard it was to has lowed bearin' uv the case the jury 'lowed win her until she found out I if you dare.' And we dident key."

"You don't understand me. When

Well it is curious that most lost?" every deveeish boy in every "When I got down in the botcited with tender pathos those Madison and James Monroe and good. And bending back her head looked up And gazed upon my face.

Just then Mrs. Arp stopped sewing and gazed at me sure

And Jimmy Blaine is cavorting around and thinks he came

"My friend, my deluded friend, in may say, when did you feel that you must pray?"

"Night afore last wife looked up higher and brighter and more solutions that will be must be there ever such a story-teller cause his name his Jim. If do a power uv good." Why, you know I didn't do any there is any other good reason "Your wife then wants you to such thing. You ought to be I don't know it. And I went to lead a better life!" 'I was just telling how 'Gene- Jim Alexander and Jim Ward- live the sort of life that suits her deeply moved with remorse or pity, vive' did,' said I, 'and how law and Jim Linton and Jim I reckon. I git her a caliker coat "thee shall begin thy life again,-Coleridge won his 'bright and Walker and they were a sight. ever' spring, a pa'r of shoes ever' there on the hills. I came too late: beauteous bride.' She had hazel eyes, too.'

Young man, you had better

Young man, you had better

There is another thing to be noted about schoolboys. They always call their teaeners 'old.'

Young man, you had better not try to flirt with a pair of They called Dr. Patterson 'old

'old Pewt,' and there was old better go in to win or leave the said : 'I went to school to him, yourself," said the disappointed ex- wooded slopes and clover-crimson country. And while I think of and sometimes he would slip horter.

and would be so grateful for I went to school to old crowd yelled out: having bettered her condition George, said another, and there "Say, what do yo in life. Of course they did not was a fire place at one end of tariff Give us your views." all marry widowers, but they the long room, and when it was married, and they made good cold weather the small fry were don't know a blame thing about every soul from one eternity to anwives and good mothers, and allowed to sit up near the fire the tariff." southern blood and northern ing, freckle-faced boy, who was everlastingly hungry. One

BILL ARP'S LETTER a kind motherly woman. Jim the ashes and suddenly dropped Wardlaw 'fit' her once and she the potato in and covered it up. IN THE IRON MILLS. times--to-night, for instance—the curtain is accidentally drawn back, and I see a bare arm street. ARP TELLS OF THE DAYS the knee and she screamed Tom, when its done gimme mercy' and let him go. 'Hush,' said Tom, 'and The other day I chanced to I will.' In about half an hour be one of a party of assorted Tom got very cold again and the tater among the little boys. not spoken to her, -- only once or Jim Jones was a stuttering These school boy tales would

BILL ARP.

The Efficiency of Prayer.

NEEDED THEM.

During a revival at Calico Rock no one had ever before seen at said an exhorter, as he got down beside the earnest mourner. "You "So I've hearn," the earnest

"Do you feel that you have only friend?" "Yas, an' I've tuck this as the last chance." "When did you fall under con-"I wa'n't convicted a tall. They bounced up as mad as Julius took me up and snatched me befo' Cæsar and said in a towering the gover ment jedge, but airter that laughs. Now laugh again, that mebbe I did't make the whis-aid you first feel that you were school is named Jim. The very toms an' couldn't find the way out. name seems to make a boy dev- Staid thar two days an' the best elish. They generally make part uv another one, but we got enough, as she said: Was ought to be president just be- ez it couldn't do no harm, it mout school with Jim Wilson and "Didn't say nothin' about that. I one who speaks from a strong heart

"Yas. You see our steers got

He Knew Nothing About it.

ing announced himself as a candidate for congress and while stand-reached some day. There may be they are doing it strong. They are ing on the court house steps mak- in her heart some latent hope to relizing that somethl ngis wrong,

"My friends," said the orator, "I Something is lost in the passage of be.-Elizabeth City Carolinian.

A TOUCHING AND BEAUTI- ing mine: a wan, woful face, through which the spirit of the FUL STORY.

the Iron Mills.-The Sirivings -they say, whothing beyond !of a Divinely Talented Spirit to no more;" Why, you tell me you Escape from a Life of Stavery. damp brates, -horses dying under

This Story was begun January 5th. There was outery and crowd there the objects which lie scatterenough in the cell the next day. ed through the room: only faintly, er do we reverse the telescope me and Ed. but I thought I was peeling and blowing on his addition. Kirpy himself and hove me and Ed. but I thought I was peeling and blowing on his could flip it over his head 'tater' behind his deek. 'What with their hands thrust knowingly they each recall some task or pleasyears since I was a little boy and it came down on old his hickory. 'We was laughing one woman. She came late, and work; homely fragments, in which trudging along to the first school Greer's head kerflop and flatt- at Tom Jackson over yender out tayed them all. A Quaker, or lie the secrets of all eternal truth, ened out like a pancake. I eatin' his 'tater.' He roasted it Friend, as they call themselves. I beauty. Prophetic all! Only this school mates and magnify the me, and a pointer dog couldn't I'll have you to know this no sorrow, in her face; the stuff in the dickering, nebulous crimson, teachers, and she tells them as have spotted a bird any better. schoolhouse is no cook kitchen. out of which murderers are made God has set the promise of the how I was a smart boy and 'Come here,' said he. 'Come You are so cold I think a little instead. All the time Haley and Dawn. Quaker's face. Of all the crowd twice had put some cordial to her lips. After they all were gone, the plenty of it then. The girls Early one morning he fastened 'Philemon Perch' would write woman, in the same still, gentle way, brought a vase of wood-leaves and berries, and placed it by the pallet, then opened the narrow over the dead face. Deborah looked up with a quick wonder.

> t? Did hur know Hugh ?" "I know Hugh now." The white fingers passed in a worn face. There was a heavy and said: shadow in the quiet eyes.

shrill tone, catching her arm. This had been the question hang ing on her lips all day.

sake, take hur where " air blows!" fur yerself!" The Quaker hesitated, but only for a moment. She put her strong tists,' replied Samuel. arm around Deborah and led her

-where the blue smoke is, by the your seat. Brudder Johnson! trees. Look at me." She turned the evening wore on, she leaned make such statements?" against the iron bars, looking at the hills that rose far off, through the thick sodden clouds, like a bright, unattainable calm. As she looked, a shadow of their solemn repose fell on her face: its fierce discontent faded into a pitiful, humble quiet. Slow, solemn tears notable men, and some of them the coon all the same, and had a gathered in her eyes; the poor climb very high. There is James fight that did us all a power uv weak eyes turned so hopelessness to the place where Hugh was to rest, the grave heights looking to her at last, and touched her

"When thee comes back," she said, in a low, sorrowful tone, like and when once deceived do not pine away in grief, but raily for revenge ond take it out in scorn.

Nahum and old Beeman, and old Fouch and old Isham.

We were talking about old that mebbe pra'r would fetch and one of these bills.

Nahum and old Beeman, and away from us two weeks ago, an'ez patient Christ-love, needed to make we have hunted and s'arched, and healthy and hopeful this impure body and soul. There is a homely that mebbe pra'r would fetch am pine house on one of these bills. If you tackle them you had Isham, and one of our party that mebbe pra'r would fetch 'em. pine house, on one of these bills, meadows,--niched into the very A woman much loved by these silent, restful people.; more silent than they, more bumble, more lov .. ing. Waiting; with her eyes

An honest politician has been turned to hills higher and purer call "the common people"-those always get young men to their ed the blackboard with him found in Alabama. Just after hav-

The Outrage.

The 'outrage' of making Mr. La. the bills of heaven more fair?

ed out imploringly in the darkness. and an eager, wolfish, face watchdead korl-cutter looks out, with its thwarted life, its mighty hunger, its unfinished work. Its pale vague lips seemed to tremble with a ter-A Well Written Picture of Life in rible question. "Is this the End !" have seen that look in the eyes of the lash. I know. The deep of the night is passing while I write. She gas light wakens from the shadows here and and look data seem the scenes of our youth. Seem the scenes of our youth. If I did not know better I would say it has been a hundred seem the scenes of our youth. If I did not know better I will pass the sem says there is absolute side, jammed into the corners. Coming and going all day. Only a bough of forest leaves; music; in the House." days are a notable part of every- never saw a man more astonish- here in the fire and promised think this woman was known by dumb, woful face seems to belong days are a notable part of every one's life. My wife and I frequently indulge in these memories, for we went to school together, though I was six years the senior. We tell ever to the children all the funny things that nappened, and discuss the line would look in wonder, and they would look in wonder, and they would look in got to its logical that name in heaven. A homely that name in heaven. is yet steeped in heavy shadow, a from the ocean .-- Augusta Ga- she has so many great (?) men that happened, and discuss the in wonder, and they would look ing out of your pocket?" 'A watch-dog, if any of them touched its groping arm points through the frailities and the virtues of our at old Greer and then lock at tater, sir.' 'Give it here, sir the body. There was no meekness, broken cloud to the far East, where

BROTHER GARDNER.

THE END.

Kiln Club.

A solema silence fell upon Paradise Hall just before the meeting opened. All the old members felt window. The fresh air blew in, that something was wrong someand swept the woody fragrance where, and the new ones held their breath and wondered if the plaster was to fall off. Brother Gardner "Did hur know my boy wud like looked very serious as he mounted the platform and removed his overcoat and pulse warmers, and his tones were very solemn as he pickslow, pitiful way over the dead, ed up a memoranda from the desk culated to excite much interest. it will be for that dignified oldest business of Greenville, died bury Hugh !" said Deborah in a sowara Johnson, Peaceful Davis remembrance .- N. Y. World. an' Judge Holdback.

"In t' town-yard ! Under t' mud Brother Gardner said: "Brudder to start her cotton factories graret of history where all use. like a piano box. and ash! T'lad 'll smother, woman! He wur born on t' lane man! He wur born on t' lane pledgin' dis club to de Baptist icle advocates a soap factory.

Brother Gardner said. Brother Gardner said.

Shin, you has bin goin' around and canning factory, the Chronless governmental heirlooms belong. In a country like this ported that the the net earnings of likes to locate Oxford on the pr moor, where the air is frick and Charch. Ise heard of you in fo' or We make a suggestion : Get a strong-box tor the safekeep. the Blackwell Durham Tobacco Co. posed railroad from Henderson strong. Take flur out, for God's five cases. What hev you to say the operatives in the canning ing of public officials from crit. of Durham, for the year 1887 were Danville. This line, as we have been

'Dat makes no diffunce, sah! You had no 'thority to state that "Thee sees the hills, friend, over this club would stand by de Bapthe river? Thee sees how the light tist Church till de roof fell in. Brud stripes driving a team to a Hatchet. lies warm there, and the winds of der Shin, you am fined $2,900 and wagon and a white gnard at $20 God blow all the day ! I live there de costs amount to $2,584 21. Take per month seated in the wagon and earnest. "Thee will believe trade speeches, an' you has gibben per month would pay the wages A Million Nogrous About to Amime? I will take Hugh and bury de people to understan' dat dis of a teamster. Economy is club would wade in blood fur free greatly to be commenced .him there to morrow."

Club would wade in blood fur free greatly to be come beforeh did not doubt her. As trade. By what 'thority did you Washington Gazette. "I reckoned we was free trade

meetin.' Brudder Davis!'

behind you." "Yes sab, but I beard Elder

Toots and Judge Cadaver say so.'
"You are fined fo' thousand dollars, sab, and if you repeat de ofthe rolls. Judge Holdback!" "Yes sah."

"When did dis club eber declare in favor of protecshun?"

$3,000. You kin sot down. I will lotte Democrat. now remark, for de bentfit at large the Quaker began her work. I end dat dis organization am pledged to hazel eyes. It is a waste of time and dangerous. They are time and dangerous. They are to neither religion nor politics, and the leading carpet and blanket time and dangerous. They are to neither religion nor politics, and the leading carpet and blanket time and dangerous. They are to neither religion nor politics, and the leading carpet and blanket the removal to neither religion nor politics, and the leading carpet and blanket t 'But you say that your wife my story here. At evening-time to neither religion nor politics, an' sunshine, and fresh air, and slow, self up a tree befo' de week at' haf manufacturers, the Government an exodus from the Southern noticent Christ lave needed to be a south of the southern and slow.

Not North Carolina Ways.

The Texas editors seem to be in advance of their editorial brethren upon him like a hawk upon a want to talk to me, all right," and to speak, opening their simple know some along the Atlantic Sea-

The Common People.

that she shall find him whom she ry as to the cause—are reading "Say, what do you think of the lost, and that she will not be all more and investigating as they unworthy. Who brames her ! never did before. This as it should other, -- something pure and beauti-

EDITORIAL TALK.

OUR RROTHER QUILL DRI-VERS ON PASSING EVEN 18.

What they say of Politics, Religion and Other Things that Contract their Attention. THE Charlotte Hornet mentions Capt. Syd B. Alexander as 'the next Governor of North -Carolina."

If the high tariff doctrine boro Courier.

The quickening of public inreflected in the multiplication of bills before Congress to prevent the formation of such pools, trusts and combines.—N. Laurinburg Exchange. Y. World, Ind. Democrat.

Senator Chandler's present "De follerin' members will please in relation to the Tilden-Hayes ever was an excuse for this in bad health a long time. "Did hur know where they'll step dis way: Samuel Shin, Cas count are still held in lively rusty relic, it has long since > ward, and after a painful silence Charlotte, having got ready it should be relegated to the Her coffin is described as looking 'I-I thought we was mostly Bap factory before they peel the to- ally. The opinion of Senators, The Washington Gazette has dis matoes.-Tobacco Plant.

A negro convict in prison to prevent the escape of the "You has been makin some free prison bird, Fifteen dollars

Mr. Cleveland's bid is tariff shall fine you $3,500, sah, and we people, free raw material, to people from the worse than serviney and his work. Dr. Dabney long farms they would be much better shall want the money at de next make better wages, steadier cm- under that prevails in the extreme served North Carolina at the head off, and we believe they are legal, ployment and greater prosper- Southern States, especially Louis of the Experiment Station. "Yes sah."

"You has bin sayin' around dat That's a pretty good bid, Mr. ling. After campfully studying the Mexico orter be annexed to this Cleveland. It looks as though plan of government of the various tion for the purpose of entering the ing November 30, 1886. The Dr. kentry, and dat you had de club American people would accept countries open to them, they ar- ministry. He will take a course at states that since the Asyldin war it .-- N. Y. Herald, Ind.

The new Cotton Factory business for Charlotte is on a safe fense your name will be struck off footing, and it is no mere spec-"An' yet you has been tellin' Now, let us start some other their principals quietly effected a aroun' dat we hadn't a free trade Factory, not Cotton-"diversiman in de club. I shall fine you by" as the farmers say.—Char- at Topeke, for the purpose of local back, The growth of that in the State, says: Mr. John Hans statistians, a strong minority of will carry off more than a million wool-growers both east and laborers from the cotton, sugar and west of the Mississippi, practi- rice fields, where they are now at cally the whole of the importers, work, while the tobacco fields will many of the leading dealers of yield their full quota. Boston and many of the largest boro Reformer.

briet .- Goldsboro Argus.

"Trusts," that is but another word for monopoly, is a viper made by the Brazilian ane Argen fixed within its cells during the well, but the stubborn fellow discountries. ing a speech, some one in the meet there the loved one here, and they are making earnest inqui- that has been warmed into time Governments in the way of baneful life upon the hearth- lands and immunity from taxation, stone of the Republic by the and aid in transportation, which The New Bern people are making met with an impudent sally from protective tariff system of our will place this new haven within big preparations for their Fish, the son, and the father very justile government, and is now strang-News Editor, Daily Civilizer—

News Editor, Daily Civilizer—

News Editor, Daily Civilizer—

News Editor, Daily Civilizer—

Solution of laborers throughout this line to death the great masses of laborers throughout this line to death the great masses of laborers throughout this line to death the great masses of laborers throughout this line to death the great masses of laborers throughout this line to death the great masses of laborers throughout this line to death the great masses of laborers throughout this line to death the great masses of laborers throughout this line to death the great masses of laborers throughout this line to death the great masses of laborers throughout this line to death the great masses of laborers throughout this line to death the great masses line to death the great wives and good mothers, and the big boys had to do the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land.

The Ontrage.

The Ontrage.

Allowed to sit up near the fire and beauth ful, which might have been and was not: a hope, a talent, a love, over which the soul mourns, like left the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and have proved a splendid cross between the sunny land, and the big boys had to do the was not: a hope, a talent, a love, owing to the mixed blood already owing to the sunny land, and the Conscientions Editor-Well, it is proportions. Reduce the taif she took her lost hope to make the hells of heaven more fair?

the duty of a newspaper to print the hills of heaven more fair?

the duty of a newspaper to print the news no matter what it is. It eastern part of the State, and NEWS OF A WEEK. of no one more entitled to advancement than Judge Shep-berd. He has made an honest, conscientions and upright judge of our Superior Court, and the people of the State would honor themselves in honoring him. -Beaufort Record. The blizzard is a terrible A condensed report of the news as source of human suffering. I don't refer to the Oil City Blizzard, but to the plain, everyday blizzard of the Wild and Wooly West. It is responsible this year for the loss of several hundred human lives and is answerable to the charge of mayhem on a large number of The New York Tribune thinks counts. The Western boom itthe Blair bill will pass the Sen- self has had its value impaired ate, but says "there is absolute some extent by the recent ever, for which the blizzard will yer, lectures at Raleigh on the 17th not be held responsible. The loss of sheep this winter will were caried out to its logical probably be credited next fall to the President's low tariff Goldsboro. message.-Hatchett.

in her bordors that they don't to the Onslow and East Carolina The fight for the Democratic Congress longer than four a railroad on let. nomination for Governor is nar- years. This Congressional dis- The residence of G. S. Bradshaw tween Clark and Stedman while different men in the last twelve of Randolph county, has been burn working establishments. the massive figure of ex-Gov. years to the House and all of ed, we regret to see. Jarvis still remains prominent- them have done little if any | Charlotte has a canning estab ly in the back ground .- Ashe good, not for lack of ability lishment. It will employ only about but lack of experience. Just so twelve hands at first. This is a step it is in all the other Congress- in the right direction. ional districts of the State, her | The Kinston Free Press gives and omnivorous Trusts is fitly most of them are serving toeir section are exhibiting: first term. Now are you surprised that North Carolina got truck farmers of that section have no chairmanships of note ?- been pretty busy. Truck farming is labors in behalf of honest elec- reaches this conclusion, as the ful can carry that state. tions and "a fair count" are cal- people already have, the better Mr. Marcellus Moore one of the His patriotic labors in Florida body's reputation. If there last Thursday, Mr. Moore has been station is a sub-department, and factory to patronize the soap icism is an insufferable anomnot less than of Representa- carded its double sheet patent busthe people. - Washington

A BLACK EXODUS.

A disputch to the New York Star

from Tereka, Kansas saus : Three years ago several colored revision, in the interest of the the best method of relieving their rived at the conclusion that South Randolph Macon College first. America was the land that would give them shelter and bome. tributions, but these men sent out lative, buble-boom. The men Brazil and the Argentine Confederoom. engaged in the new enterprise eration were examined as to clihave plenty of money, and they mate, lands, laws and privileges, know how to manage affairs. While these agents were out spreading the news by means of town has been phenominal. trustworthy agents, throughout the Southern States. The men thus It is a fact that the removal organizing represent nearly $2,000, been notified by a New Hampshire woolen manufacturers.-Battle- or outflitting points established in State work for their college as do the efficient tele uph operator, main efforts of this new organiza-Judge Wm. M. Shipp is being colored people to South America. spoken of by his friends as a There will be settlements establishvery suitable candidate for one ed in the Guiana Highlands directfall. Judge Shipp, as all know, is a fine lawyer, and he has one qualification that would commend him to the favorable commend him to the favorable depots will be established in the consideration of the bar, and Argentine Confederation for people The people that Liucoln use to that is, his disposition to be from Kentucky, Tennessee, South Carolina and northern Alabama, their color will not debar them H. S. Nunn, D. S. Willis,

The Weldon News tells of the death of a negro boy in that county, who drank a quart of whiskey and died from the effects of it is Whiskey is ar metime a very slow killing out its victims, but it uso-WHAT IS HAPPENING IN ally 'catches 'em' if they slick to it. THE WORLD AROUND US. It does not treat all that may however as is illustrated by this exam.

sentenced to pay a fise of $25 and gathered from the columns of go to jail for three months for sinuour contemporaries, State and dering a stateen year old girl near that place. There is no more despicable character than the deliberate, malicious slanderer of purs woman. The severest punishment It is proposed to establish perceof the law is not too barsh for such

The Baptises are building a new She proposes to have electric lights Belva Lockwood, the woman law-The next General Assembly of was caused by the rate being redu-Knights of Labor will be held in ced from twenty five to twen y obs. on the $100 worth of property.

The Salisbury Methodiste have We gaze upon the prosperity of increased the salary of their pastor North Carolina with no small de Unfortunate for our State Rev. C. W. Byrd, to $1,000 a year. gree of pleasure. During the year Oaslow county has voted $6,000 1887 there were established in this permit each other to stay in Railroad. That county sadly needs 27 cigar and tobacco factories, 26 rowing down to a contest be- trict for example has sent five Esq., Clerk of the Superior Court 9 street railroads, and 67 wood oldest Representative not hav- the following cheerful evidence of ing the wagon body from its bed dignation against the greedy ing been four years yet and the good sense the farmers of that and catching Chavis under it,

> The Weldshoro Argus says the a profitable business. Judge Lowry says that Indiana lain works near Asheville.

$5,000 church at Durham.

Oxford is evidently on a boom.

The Executive session must is solid for Cleveland, He thinks ment station, located in this city, go and the sooner the Senate the Democrats, if they are watch an annual revenue of $15,000 from passed away. As an heirloom boro, a tew days ago, we see from State by the sale of of the days of stilled formality, the Patriot, who weighed 700 lbs. cense.

to the public weal belong to print newspaper. We call this a denear Goldsboro, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night last, Loss was probably accidental, county, has tendered his resigna- Grissom's Report for the year end-

They were not called upon for con- gro, was probably tatally burned in and 849 females. The total num-Raleigh last week. He fell into ber of discharges for the same time educated agents, whose reports are the fire, while having a fit, and was is 1,600, of which 897 were males now coming in. The Guinas, badly burned, being alone in the and 703 females. Of those dis-

The Asheville citizen says that over reventy thousand dollars worth of city property changed hands-was sold to new comers- the way, one of the newsiest papers gross per day. The location of the erty in Texas. His prospective posfactory has not been selected.

Wake Forest, now has 213 students. Steadily and surely is that annually. institution of learning growing in . The following we clip from the popular favor. The Bantista of the Fayetteville Observer: Mus Collier Hondurns and Costa Rica, the the people of no other denomina was badly frightened last week tion and their work tells in results. while sitting at her deak. Just as was found dead on Wednesday of cated to the Wilson instrument by last week in a roud of water in the wires coming in contact, and Joshna's creek . Jones county. He | the instrument was in a few mittewas not of sound mind and left his lutes melted and rendered ussiein. house during the night, and is sun | Miss Collier was afraid to touch the posed to have accidentally drown out off, and no one cles would so very few persons have an idea of year's end to another. Jeilor Brad. year old son of John Page had been ford in summing up his first year's suffering with the itch. The father record as keeper of the jail, finds had ordered the son not to visit that 450 prisoners have been con- among the neighbors until he was

A stock company has been or- counts,

A white man at Asheville was a consul enceness devil.

We see it stated in an exchange that the abstract received from all the counties in the State show an nerease in the fax valuation of the property of $7,342,000 over 1886. The amount of taxes collected in 1887 is, however, 886,500 short of the amount collected. This

State 12 carsinge and wagon works, cotton and woolen mills, 21 flour and grist mills, 13 lee factories, 33 mines and quarries, 15 raticonds,

At Palmer's Springs, Va., thirteen miles north of Warrenish, N. O., while Jacob Chavis, colored, driver for J. W. Hendricks, was engaged in hauling coal, the mules became frightened and ran, throwbreaking his neck and fracturing his skull, resulting in instantdeath Chavis was 19 years old.

The News-Observer says the completion of the listch Law by Congress gives to the State experithe United States Government, commencing October, 1888, This will be a great relief to the Department of Agriculture, of which the which has hitherto been maintaind from the funds arising to the corps of surveyers were lath A informed, will be built by the Hateigh and Gaston Railroad Company and will run via Rozboro and tives, on everything pertaining iness and returned to an all home probably take in Oxford. The comto ascertain if such a route be prat

> $6,000; insurance $3,500. The fire commercial fertilizers will be gold The Goldsboro Argus says the them have bought none this season Furniture Factory and Broom Fac and those who are still handling tory are both doing well. These are them are buying in a t hear so enterprises that have recently been large quantities. This is a good The Tennesee papers speak in commercial fertilizers and chiling very flattering terms of Dr. Dab the material they have at their ning to do so.

M. H. Tuttle, sheriff of Caldwell We have received a copy of Dr. Gray Pool, a deaf and damb ne- 1,892. Of these 1,043 were males charged 503 were considered cared. 260 much improved, 335 naimproveed and 501 died.

to that bir Teaan estate, was in town last week, He feels very such irrs worth of land and other proper of couglies, and the reuts of the farming lands alone yield $35,000

the electric light was turned on the Mingo David, an old colored man, current of electricity was communithe instrument was left to burn. The wires of since been regula-

Page was improving at incl no-