torials always have him standing around when any big rascality is going on at Washingthis circular of the National Tribune. A copy has been sent to me and it says, "Comrade." Well. I'm no comrade of that sort, and if I was I would be ashamed to have such a circular sent to me. If that concern needn't worry any more about the surplus, nor about the tariff. nor the internal revenue, for it will take them ail to foot the bills and they will last forever, more or less, for pensioners increase as the years roll-on, Bu few die and none resign. takes eighty millions now f pensions, but not a dollar for Dixie, and we have helped to pay if for twenty years and made no fuss. The whole of this one-sided business is as mean as a dog and as vindictive as Satan. "How long, oh, Cataline, wilt thou abuse our patience."

"Comrade: We have 125,000 subscribers to our paper and wish to number you as one of for the passage of the "arrears lilize them, too, and will keep whip them Yankees with popguns. bill," which will distribute mil- on importing and civilizing un- After the war clouds had cleared dependent pension bill and never failed. other similar measures, etc., der if they want the earth and through? Was any such bill said: "Jedge, ain't you the man the fullness thereof. Now, we ever paid? There are scores of that said in this very court bouse first thing tomorrow morning." rascality and if Mr. Cleveland pigeon-holes or some old box. ruined. Let the invarid soldlers eighteen years ago, and the be pensioned just like they proof was all made jam up, and one dies let his widow draw it Vandiver, of Maryland, the Winchester Sun.

very man who did the damage; But there will never be any but they never got further than real national peace and brother- the vestibule, and were switchhood in this country until our ed off on a side-track. If Mr. soldiers are pensioned, too, and Clements has any encourageput on an equal footing. Like ment, I wish he would hunt up the old fellow and his bull, we the old papers that came from the land, according to the contact the land, according to the land, can pass and repass but there all along the line, and then figuration of the surface, divided "And did her mother really let will be no affectionate familiar press alkalike. There were two off into sections as near level as for fifty years. We didn't want would be paid for. But there others could be run by it. If nect term--unusual undertaking. Nor to fight, nohow. We just want- was our beautiful cemetery at essary let them run around hills did she. The fact is her consent ed to dissolve the partnership and be let alone, and they would'nt let us alone. They in with his wandale broken. back with alacrity We thought where he was buried. What do lanns.—Tarboro Southerner. we had some state rights, but you think is the prospect of lanns. - Tarboro Southerner. they said we didn't, - We think ever harmonizing that boy's so yet, and maybe they will mother? Some of this pension think so, too, sconer or later money is going to the very When congress takes protection of lumber Maine will be work. Well, I reckon they had properties the sure of the su fighting mad. When wool is better grab al! they can in this decided the last trious Washington:—"Do right, made free, Ohio will shoot off world, for pension money will decided the anti-treat law unconmade free, Ohio will shoot off be scarce in the next. But these her mouth if she don't her guns. be scarce in the next. But these little bills for southern churchner of the suit pay the fees. The in pursuit of knowledge was entireand folder and mules and and the bill is not big enough six $2 apiece. He immediately remember that she was an only cattle and didn't pay nor stop to furnish a margin. It is too stood up in court and queried : to give a receipt, nor say, "I'm little to split. There is no much obleeged to you, Uncle grease in it. A man can put Billy," but just went on like through a fraudulent hundred he didn't live there, and then thousand dollar cotton claim he got desperate and called for easier than a two thousand dolhis gun, and swore he'd be dad. lar church. They say that some blasted it he didn't fight 'em southern democrat voted for forever and ever before he'd be that dependent pension bill horn-swaggled in any such a goes back a hundred and ten had a job on hand and was log ing for fees.—Carson Appeal. years, when our forefathers did rolling. He wanted to get some most of the fighting under our local matter put through and own Washington. The first re- would vote away a hundred millions to get it done. He bellion was fixed up at Meck swapped votes and the idea lenburg, in old North Carolina, was, you tickle me with a straw and the second in old Virginia, under Jefferson and Lee and and I'll tickle you with a tele-

VIISONAT

VOLUME 18.--

to New Orleans and whipped rat, try it!

civilized all the negroes the south.

yankees stole and brought over, and we have since raised up six millions more in good order and condition, and are making democrats of them just as fast

I see that Mr. . Clements has Georgia gave him territory to would be delighted if we were

Yes, sir, our people set them up They would just clap their ungrateful children have got so would rejoice with exceeding

WILSON, NORTH CAROLINA, FEBRUARY 23, 1888.

"LET ALL THE ENDS THOU AIM'ST AT, BE THY COUNTRY'S, THY GOD'S, AND TRUTHS'."

with land and farms, just like hands and say, "Bless the Lord, a father sets up his children we have got 'em now-hallewhen they marry and leave lujah." Old Sherman and Forhim, and now some of these aker and old Musrat Halsted

The Charming Story of Sweet Ivy shove us off on a plank if they three. Old Musrat would cover Geer as She Tread the Flowered Pathway of Learning.

ed and living comfortably on and truth and boldness. He The billions of acres of public I do believe that a few year's lands all came from us. In 1812 residence down here will make words were mental, intangible, un- save a little door-knob at the right Oh, my country—where is old England took the Missis- even a republican become a spoken; the sobs physical, palpa- hand side of the door, -- a thing Uncle Sam? that watchful old fellow with the striped pants of northwestern commerce, and wish that we could get more of don't core if I don't and bell-crowned hat. The pic- we sent General Jackson down them to come. Try it, old Musold Packenham and got it back | I had a very good letter yesagain. Later on we had to send terday from a man who says why we can't be let alone and have first one way, then the other; but deed, but it was open and genial, them out, and later on we gave them, and lived among them a fresh start. O, dear! I never knocked. Nobody came. Twist supposed everybody knew that. the Democrats. If nominated Texas to Uncle Sam—a state big for twenty years, and they are shall go to heaven, if I am so bad again. No use. Knock again. Everybody calls it so."

he would be enough to give her 2,200 United the very best people up north.

Then she went down to the distribution. Then she went down to the distribution. Then she went down to the distribution. States senators, if she had as many in proportion as Rhode island. It is the big-hearted, unselfish south that has been foremost in securing the land and building the house, and be the very best people up north. They hate the very best people up north. I've heard that before. They diden' care. But then he would have liked me to go to school. But there, I won't! I will not! I've heard that before. They are good to everybody but us. They vote for our slanderers every time. They take the papers that slander us, and building the house, and be station before the door, and began to pound away. In a moment a gentleman in dressing-gown and knew everything, and could teach they believe them. They hate Jackson, and Stonewall, and cymbal. When they are good Merrill goes out of town every day easy it is to do a thing, if you only state's rights, too, if there are to us we will make friends, and and there's Dr. Mix, to be sure, but know how!" any left. And we have clothed in no other way can they ever he smells so strong of paregoric, either; and there's nobody else in him me, I should be glad to help were not quite satisfactory to herself, but she was not to be daunted and when morning came, she took son; or perhaps it was the illustrichild, and a spoiled child,- contrary, notwithstanding my re are their natural guides, their the world with our cotton, and break the ranks of the solid I don't believe he knows much, Woudn't Fight That Way.

its friends for the good work it as we can. I see that the rein the course of his heated and wore the blue and will be foi- We can get as many more from sanguine remarks exclaimed : lowed by legislation in congress Africa as we want and will civ- 'Why, fellow citizens,! we can lions to the veterans and a bill til all Africa is redeemed from away and the Judge nad settled for bounties which will pay barbarism. The yankees tried down to the practice of his profesmany millions more and the Liberia and failed, but we sion, professional duties took him back to this same town. He was defending a criminal in his usual anybody. They say he is as proud way. He assured the jury earnest as Lucifer. If he were ten times put in a bill to get pay for some ly that that every word thet fell damages the federals did to a from his lips was true. At this which I suppose stands for church in Marietta. I wonder point a one-armed, long-haired, as well do something as not. I am fraud, cheating and lying, or what that means. Don't he juror arose in his seat with doubt some other devilment. I won- know that he can't get that bill written all his countenance and have had about enough of this them up there now, in the in '60 that we could whirp Once seeing a possible way out them Yankees with populus ?" of h r difficulties, her sorrow van-The Judge was silent a mement, ished. Not quite so gayly as usual, We sent three from Rome, and then with great vehemnence it is true, did she sing about the exclaimed: "Yes, I said it; but, house that night; for she was sumd-n their dirty souls, they have always been, and when it was certified to by General wouldn't fight us with popular."- an introductory speech to Felix the highly enlightened system of ity. Back pay and arrears will colleges and three churches possible and convenient to make its errand, to a perfect stranger ?" have to come, and slander will burned right here in Bartow, Of course attention is first paid to "Humanly speaking," nothing have to stop. Our boys did just and it was said that, as church- drainage by hill ditches and fur was more unlikely than that Mrs. as much fighting as they did es and colleges were non-com- rows, then between these drains Geer, a prudent, modest, and sen-It was a family quarrel that batants, and didn't belong to the guide row is run-it matters sible woman, should give her conthe north had been bringing on anybody in particular, they not how crooked it may be and the sent to such an-to use the mildest vaded us on our own territory with his vandals, broke up is placed on it. The farmer said that her parents?" and we never did put a hostile every tombstone and monument it was was noticeable how vastly I am sorry to say she did. foot upon theirs but once, and and iron railing in it. I found better the crops were on land culti ed and intruders warned off and grave of our own little boy roll- old method where all this was neg- which is quite proper, not to say inno shooting allowed, and so we ed away down the hill, and I lected. He thought this method dispensable, in history, science, and didn't stay very long and carrie could hardly find the place must give place to all others, if we belies-lettres generally. Duty comes won't be paid. Southern piety plaintiff, a big raw-boned rancher, ly unknown to her respected and is at a big discount up there, was called on to pay the jury of "Pay the jury $12 ?"

"Yes," replied the court. "Look a'here, jedge, ain't this ed in years, can spoil their childsorter piling it on thick ! I just paid four of them fellers $20 apiece. Do you want the earth. (1)

The dead silence of the room was broken by a slight suicker from the defendant's attorney, and then the that Mr. Cleveland vetoed and spectators went out to sport. The will veto again. A southern bailiff called everybody to order democrat who voted that way and the jury filed out without ask-

Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, experienced counsellor. Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold and attended by a dis Ivy Geer, light of heart, fleet of tressing cough and running into foot, and firm of will, has passed under defferson and Lee and first stages. He hills of old Scotia, but when ine the hills of old Scotia, but consumption in its first stages. He over hillside, through wood path,

TRUE KNOWLEDGE. | years before (not in the same place) | rather coax her voice, | with the "wind blowing her fair | His hospitality was shocked. | Pair about her beautiful cheeks." | "Indeed you must not, till

There had come to Ivy from the great, gay world a vague rumor, DIFFICULTIES THAT SOME- that, instead of knocking at a door TIMEATTEND ITS PURSUIT like a Christian, with your own good knuckles, for such case made pid. and provided, modern fashion had introduced "the ringing and the Alphabet, then. Blocks or primdinging of the bells". This vague er p' when Mr. Clerron came down upon the village and established bimself. his men and women and horses and doorstep, looking rpward down-ward, sidewise, with earnest, peer-lvy grew e "Mamma is right; I know I am ing gaze, no bell, and no sign of Playful. a little goose," sobbed she. (The bell, was visible; nothing unusual any gord in knowing so much. We that the bell must be inside, and traversed Greenleat's Large. You don't have a great while to stay in that the knob was a screw attach. did not designate what."

and building the house, and because the north has put in the

Knew everything, and count teach me. Well, he is just as happy, and just as rich, and everybody likes Seeing her, he threw away his ci"I think it's horrid. It's all disalves moved common to the corner. farniture they are claiming the than that he is from the south. him just as well, as it he knew the gar, lifted as velvet cap, bowed, whole concern. The declaration They don't want us to have any- whole world full; and why can't I and, with a gentle "allow me," of independence is ours, and the thing, and so we fight back. do so, too! Rebecca Dingham, stepped to the door, pulled the bell, with John."

Fourth of July and Washington They may build their church indeed! Mercy! I hope I never and passed out of sight. Ivy was "Bravissims" and Jefferson and Madison, and Patrick Henry and Randolph and Pocahontas and John but the book says without charand Pocahontas and John but the book says without char-Smith, and all the Lees, and ity they are nothing but an But, dear me! he is as busy as he the silent reflection, "Pulled the Clay and Calhoun, and General empty sound and a tinkling can be, all day long; and Squire knob, instead of twisting it. How

The summons was soon answered by a black gnome, and Ivy was town that knows any more than to her dazzled, sun-weary eyes, any body else: and there's nothing for it but I must go to school, if I am ever to know anything." (A waiting.—then a step in the hall, a several minutes.) "There's Mr. gently opening door, and Ivy felt (Non committee Livy, demurely.) election.—Wilmington Star. rather than saw herself in the presis doing in behalf of the veterans. The coming national encampment will take action of preat importance to those who Maybe it will be a good idea.

I see that the republicans now want them all sent to South America and colonized. Well, we don't care.

When secession was being whooped the State the Judge made a speech in one of the small towns up in the pine woods country, and whole town tumbled into one; and who it will be a good idea.

Clerron!" (A sudden cessation.) "I suppose he knows more than the whole town tumbled into one; and
who is the presence of the formidable Mr. Clerron.

A single glance showed her that who is town tumbled into one; and
who is the presence of the formidable mr. Clerron.

A single glance showed her that
who is town tumbled into one; and
who is the presence of the formidable mr. Clerron.

A single glance showed her that
who is town tumbled into one; and
who is the presence of the formidable mr. Clerron.

A single glance showed her that
who is town tumbled into one; and
who is the presence of the formidable mr. Clerron.

A single glance showed her that
who is town tumbled into one; and
who is the presence of the formidable mr. Clerron.

A single glance showed her that
who is town tumbled into one; and
who is the presence of the formidable mr. Clerron.

A single glance showed her that
who is town tumbled into one; and
who is the presence of the formidable mr. Clerron.

A single glance showed her that
who is town tumbled into one; and
who is town tumbled into one; and who is town town tumbled into o rich, and does everything he likes, for a soberer suit. Mr. Clerron dressing-gown had been exchanged all day long. U, if I only did know bowed. Ivy hardly knowing what bim! I would ask him straight off she did, faltered forth, "I am lvy to teach me. I should be scared to Geer." A half curious, half-sarcasdeath. I've a great mind to ask tie smile glimmered behind the him, as it is. | can tell him who I heavy beard, and gleamed beneath the heavy eye brows, as he answer the heavy eye brows, as he answer ed, "I am happy to make your acquaintance": but another glance at the trembling form, the frightenpropder, I would rather ask him ed, pale face, the quivering lips, than go to school. He might just changed the smile into one that was very good natured, and even kind, and he added playfully,sure, if God had made me him, and "I am Felix Clerron, very much him. I'll go straight to him the at your service." "You write books and are a very > learned man," pursued Ivy, burriedly, never lifting 1 er eyes from the floor, and never ceasing to twirl her hat-strings. There was no possibility of supposing her guilty of committing a little diplomatic flattery in convey-Clerron Esq., a gentleman and a ing this succinct bit of information. scholar. Her elocutionary attempts She made the assertion with the air of one who has a disagreeable piece of business on hand and is determined to go through with it as soon as possible. He bowed and brimmed hat over her arm, and besmiled again; quite unnecessarily, gan her march "over the hills and -- since as I have before remarked, far away," in search of her-fate. lvy's eyes were steadfastly fixed on the carpet. A slight pause for her roam away, alone, on such an breath and she pitched ahead

> "I am very ignorant, and I am growing old. I am almost seventeen. I don't know anything to speak of. Mamma wishes me to go school. Papa did not, but now he does. I won't go. I would rather be stupid all my life long than leave home. But mamma is vexed, and A Touching Story of an Old Negro want to please her, and I thought -Mr. Brownslow is so busy, and writing a story of real life, one canthen we found their lands post. the monument that marked the vated in this way than by the not take that liberty with facts did this affair seem from the one of h m at all, as a stupid clown, affidavit made by the collector she had planned the preceding with rounded back and weather evening. It is so much easier to beaten face, that had bent over the fight the battle of life in our own chimney-corner, be the ruddy and genial firelight, than in broad day may be heaped upon me, or upon on the world's great battle-field. my Ivy, I shall find consolation in the words of the illustrious Harris

Mr. Clerron seeing Ixy's confusion, kindly came to heraid. "And you thought my superfluous time and wisdom might be transferred to you, thus making a more equal division of property ?"

"If you would be so good,-1,ves. Sir. "May I inquire how you propose to effect such an exchange ?" He really did not intend to be anything but kind, but the whole coat was faded and patched. matter presented itself to him in a very iudicrous light; and in en spoiled as only stern New England Puritan parents, somewhat advancity, he became severe. Ivy, all ren. I do not defend Ivy. On the gard for her, I hand her over to the repressed, glistened in her down- is no God." reprobation of an enlightened comcast eyes, gathered on the long A few sympathetic women had munity; and I hereby entre t all young persons into whose hands this memoir may fall to take warn. ing by the fate of poor Ivy, and His bitter feelings were roused, heart that hath no sympathy. undertaking, until they have, to and he exclaimed, with real earnnever enter upon any important estness .-say the least, consulted those who "My dear young lady, I shoul? warmest friends, and their most beg you to believe."

His words only hastened the ca-

"Indeed you must not, till we have at least had a consultation, Tell me how much you know. What have you studied ?" "O, nothing, Sir. I am very stu-"Ah! we must begin with the Ivy smiled through her tears. "Not quite so bad as that, Sir." "You do know your letters? Perhaps you can even count, and spell cattle; but as Ivy stood on his your name; maybe write it. Pray > Ivy grew calm as he became "I can cipher pretty well. I have been through Greenleat's Large. "House or meadow? And the exact dimensions, if you please."

> "Str 1" "I understand you to say you had

"I think it's horrid. It's all in-have you pursued ! Drawing for instance ?" "O, no, Sir!"

"Nor Music !" " "No, Str."

"Good! excellent! An overrulgoes strongly in his favor, but you

"But are rather sceptical about course. Never decide till both sides not afford to run any chances that judgeth a matter before he this party of plunder and exto him,' said the wise man. Occas- again,-Kinston Free Press. ionally his after-judgment is equally discreditable. That is a thousand times worse, Exit Clio, Enter friend, what celebrated city has look for statesmen with ideas.

"Boston Sir." world turns. You have dug down to the antediluvian, ante-pyrean. granite,-the primitive, unfused chusettes, to wit, namely, is its cap-you think you should like me for a "I can't tell, Bir, I did not like you as anything awhile ago." You think I improve on acquaint-al reformation ?" To be Continued.

Old man Bob was dving spade and done the rough works of the world.

He had "struck" the town years ago, but he worked hard and his big heart found means to do charities that the world with its cold smile and self obligation, would never have seen.

No one knew anything of his past history; no one cared to ask, and his bowed and trembling form ucknown-but his love for the God earnest, intelligent efforts .deavoring to preserve proper grav. that he had served was of the kind | Charlotte Democrat. __ that "Passeth all understanding." unused to the world, still had a se- and there was a silent glory in his cret feeling that he was laughing death that gives the lie to the at her. Tears, that would not be thought in the fool's heart, "There body as the fires of evening, burnrejoice to serve you in any way, I ed low in the west, flickered and went out. His mind wandered before he

EDITORIAL TALK.

VERS ON PASSING EVENTS.

What they say of Politics, Religson and Other Things that Attract their Attention.

that will abolish it.

he would be elected .- Durham

Washington letter writers reing that he cannot carry that volved it should not be forgot has accepted the reason and dicative mood, common noun, third State. We believe the Presiperson, singular number, and agree dent is stronger in his own State than any other man and Carolina.—Asheboro Courier. "Bravissima! A comprehensive if nominated he will carry it.-

Henry George has come back to the Democratic party, and will support Mr. Cleveland. This provokes the Radical stitution, which enabled the ing Providence has saved you and man. If anyone doubts, let force the present county govyour friends from many, a pitfall, him read his book that stirred esument law, has been the sal-

. If we watch the enemy closean overwhelming majority. But that San Salvador story. A wise they must be watched. We can heareth it, it is folly and shame un- travagance get into power

-well I-Geographia. My young not lead? Among that class we General Assembly the power to ready been received for that purthe honor of concentrating the laws, On the contrary we find them lagging in the rear to do what understood at the time, demand June 1st. the people may tell them is its repeal? We think not. The The death scategor of safe and proper. And the Republicans demand its repeal Rowe has been consider "Your Geography has evidently. people are timid and not united, and have done so in every cam- prisogment for the been attended to. You have learn- and so politics go at sixes and paign since 1877, but the people penitentiary. This warm was extended ed the basis fact. You have dissevens and nothing is done to at every election have put their victed at Durham largely to the covered the pivot on which the satisfaction.-Asheville Citizen, foot down upon their demands testimony of a negro works was stratum of society. The force of present Lieutenant Governor, repeal a law which right, jus- town. Two men entered learning can no farther go. Atm. Maj. Chas. M. Stedman, we tice and common sense lemand of an old man asked Santa and deed with that fact, you may march must say that he proved a most should remain, simply because manded "money or life." fearlessly forth to do battle with formidable canvasser in the the negroes and radicals dethe world, the fiesh, and—the campaign of 1884. His tour mand it?—Hillsboro Recorder. through the section impressed upon all who heard him an appreciation of his ability and magnetism that has not been "But you like me better now? for otten. If the convention auce ! You detect signs of a mor- ty's banner, we believe he will carry it safely through the struggle.-Edenton Enquirer.

Mr. Henderson has scored an admirable point in securing the passage through the House of his bill to amend the internal fact is, I darsn't go down after it. revenue laws by abolishing the you, -- if you have nothing to do, -- He had always been a quiet man. minimum punishment in revand know so much, -- I thought'-- The artist would not have painted enue cases, by prohibiting the She stopped short, utterly unable him with regard to any aesthetic issuing of warrants upon inforto proceed. Wonderfully different rule but rather, if he had thought mation and belief except upon or deputy collector or revenue agent, and by authorizing the commissioner of internal revenue to compromise any case under the internal revenue laws. We congratulate him, willin' he should step high if he but we more particularly con- want's to, Jes' you wait, though is an unmitig ted gratulate the people of North I've sent in an applecation, for the where and everywhere Carolina. It is clear that the office myself, chargin' him with thing must soon be do Democratic members of our delegation are alive to the in- partisans, an' when I git it I'm mer. terest of the people they reat the alter, when God's people present, and are doing their ion was seldom noticed, for his tion as will meet the pressing he tries to draw mail out o' my chants on both sides of the ranked ing demands of the times among us. All honor to their faithful, Democrats who are planning. expecting or hoping that the platform of the Democratic lashes, dropped silently to the floor. gone to the humble cottage on the party in the Presidential cam-He saw that she was entirely a last mission of love. Death is the paign of this year will ignore, six-shooter with the other jes't as have not cancelled the lost year. child, ignorant, artless and sincere, common enemy and hard is the evade or straddle the tariff well as he can !- Chicago Tribune. mortgage, and they think it snice issue are bound to be disap-The sun went down and the soul pointed. Before the Preident's of old man Bob parted with the message marked the line of the campaign, such a cowardly policy seemed possible, but from the moment when that tastrophe which seems to be always died, and the silent watchers knew message appeared there has the war, he was one of the speak- tax on colored polls, san to be always died, and the silent watchers knew message appeared there has impending over the weaker sex. that he was a boy again, among been no possibility of anything ers, and alluding to the civil war, real and personal property at 12 Ivy sobbed outright,-a perfect the hills of old Scotia, but when he but an honest, manly fight on suggested as a prarallel case the cents on the $100 worth of properover hinside, through wood path, and drawn tempest. Felix Clerron looked on came to the river's bank, there was the lines therein ineradicably passable of the prodigal son and ty, $257,480# Total school taxes

NUMBER-

If Blaine is not nominated it will be because of the deliberate judgment of the Republican leaders that he can't be OUR BROTHER QUILL DRI- elected .- Cleveland Plaindealer, Dem.

The white people pay the taxes that educate the colored race. Year after year they pay thousands upon thousands of dollars to maintain colored schools. Everybody knows that without this support their schools could not live. And in various other ways the white The Danville Times says that men of the State have helped if the present legislature of and encouraged the colored Virginia fail to abolish the free race. They have made their pass to members of the Assem- progress possible. And yet we bly, the people will elect one see the colored voters at every election march up to the ballot box in solid column under the The indications point to the the effect of partisan appeals General Taylor and Jefferson Davis down to Mexico and whip Davis down to Mexico and Williams, of Oxford, for Conward to Mexico and Whip Davis down to Mexico of these same white friends Berne was burned to deal a new and are doing so much in their behalf. So long as there is a built on the C. F. & Y. V. It. solid black column there will we see from an exchange be a solid white column and the arts of all the demagogues port that the Hill men are and all the political clap trap strongly antagonizing the Pres. on earth cannot break it. Among ident in New York, and are say. the other important issues in- The Governor of South > is what will be preached and bam will build a large come faction acted upon this year. It should ry on Haw River to Charles be the most powerful motive to 19. move men and it is.

The amendment to the Conpress. George is a very able legislature of 1866-'77 to put in Daily. Shall we proceed to History? Be all England and has been read vation to the countles domiso good as to inform me who dis- by tens of thousands of copies. neered over by the unscrupul- tional or unphilosophical statement "I believe Columbus has the deather William Side out white radicals and ignorant when he said that the was a plant polored people. It has been a osophical necessity." belief to them financially. They are our brethren; they are Roanoake Herald, will been be 12th reserve your judgment till further ly and defeat their schemes of flesh. It has worked well. It stead will conduct it for the good imposing upon the people, we has done no injury to any other part of the State. Who the Democratic party demands its repeal? What interest will be better served by $7,000 is ready and wa have been fairly presented. He of suffering defeat and letting with so much zeal voted for the start a cotton factory Convention in 1875, and who North Carolina town of voted with such unanimity for Patrick wrote to the papers. the ratification of the amendments to the constitution, one ing built in Wilmington. Two them Why is it that politicians do among them being to give the sand five hundred dollars and we believe they will con- has confessed that she hed.

AN OFFICE SEEKER

were going past and said:

No, we don't expect to.

Post Office for my mail.

Haven't you had it lately.

What are you afraid of.

mighty apt to do it, too!

department f

comin' back this way?

A man came out of a little ranch n south-eastern Wyoming as we

I reckoned not. If you was I

Not for bont two weeks. The 'Fraid o' the doggoned post-tinue to do so. Now, shall the The Hickory Press-Carolinan In a spirit of justice to our Democrats of North Carolina tells of a bold barglary were that trouble 'bout some stock an' he of that town certainly lows he'll blow the top of my head to patronize a newspaper off the first time I stick it up front denoyd by the liberal proo' the gen'ral deli'ry, an' he'd stowed upon the Touchards goin to move it up here, wad my shot gun with the first letter that The Rocky Mount plumb through him! Jes' you let increased 25 per cent him keep right on walkin' round with his head up'n the air if he The Greenville Reflect wants to; the time is comin' very the * following piece of cheerful soon when that office will be man news; There seems to be a disposiaged by a man who can pound tion on the part of our farmers and stamps with one hand and keep to go into the mortgage system meeting in his own State soon after | 757; tax on white polis,

WHAT IS HAPPENING IN THE WORLD AROUND US.

WILSON ADVANCE

LATES OF ADVENTIGING

gathered from the columns of our contemporaries, State and National.

Aspeville is to have a $20,000 woolen mill.

The Goldsboro Savings Blank has been incorporated.

Gold-boro is expecting to have a bucket factory, says the Arme

A little negro child miss New Savings Batik in that the ten in this year of Grace that county commissioner white men must rule North "green goods" hotoriety. It is reported that his totals at The gospel of self presevation Concord, and J. S. Concord and J. S. Concord

> It is very soldom : breach of pramise to gallant youth in They

The Statesville Carl A new paper, to be on Another Methodist church is be adopt the present county gov- pose and it is expected that that ernment law, which was well the building will be completed by

Roads and at Shilloh, in county, but were refused Prob'ly you folks wouldn't be of since.

calkinated to send down to the The track farmers raise ern and European cobl

Why don't you report him to the | we have no doubt. Ob, that's all right; he's got the bein' one of these 'ere offensive country of them, - Propi comes to him, an, when his friends of the Tarboro Southerner sasse come to get him the first time after During 1887 the sales of the maroffice they'll think some railroad as evinced by their swamp statecompany's been taking him for a ments before the registers of deeds. big mountain an runnin' a tunnel of Edgecombe and Nuch counties, dal to try the bankrupt plan this

Here are the taxes collected daing A story Secretary Lamar tells at 1887 in North Carolina: Tax on 11his own expense: At a political censed retail liquor dealers, $82,