> There is nothing that threatens the prosperity of the State's best interest

o much as the Radical party. That party is composed of 110,000 ignorant negroes who are driven to the polls like sheep and voted. If one of them votes other than the strict Republican ticket his life is endangered and he is "boycotted" socially and re-ligiously. Besides these negroes there are in the party about 15,000 men whose skins are white. A few of these would not trust behind his counter fif-teen minutes unless his money drawer him. If Mr. Dockery is elected, would not trust behind his counter fifwas locked. They have prostituted themselves and all that was good in them has been relegated to the garret of memory. reasons: It is the same party. Dockery is the same Dockery of 1868, notwithstanding he has been dipped in the Pee Dee—that only adds to his hypocracy. He was with Holden in those dark, sad days. The Rambler is the name of a newspaper published at Rocky Mount by a negro.—As a matter of course it defends the present Sheriff of Nash county from the attacks of the Wilson ADVANCE. It was to be expected that John Green-the deepdyed but cowardly Radical--would allow one of his kind to defend him against the indictthis paper, in answer to the demand of a justly indignant and outraged people.

The Rambler indulges in a of the ADVANCE and then asks the following questions relative to the appointment of a Deputy:-"Now what right had these Democrats from that township to demand of Sheriff from that township more than from any other."

In answer to that question we will admit that they had no right in the world to expect any such thing. True it is that Green had given them his solemn promise that he would appoint the man they selected True it is that 331 of the best othing in the world but negro men in Baileys and Ferrels townships petitioned for the appointment of A.
