His Views Upon Corporat Punishment, -How "Devil . Bill Jones" Got Religion.

Whether the bad boys should him at school. Prof. Boyd. Rell county, Texas, says:

I taught one year in a comev were a bad lot-and they ng to do that I sought another field, and there I found a good, affectionate relation between arents and chiltren. I had no trouble in governing the school. The parents are more responmust, for a time at least, follow their lead, or he will have no government. The old way produced great men like Washington and Jefferson and Madison, and it will not do to make a sweeping innovation. We are too apt to swing from one extreme to another, and in departing from the old iron rule to adopt a system softer than wax. We still need the firmtheir strong reserve. We need then, and not till then, can the rod be safely abandoned at home or at school." Another teacher refers to olomon and Moses for author-Savior used a scourge or whip and thrashed the money changers out of the temple. Another declares that the trouble is in is a very different thing.

The discussion will do good. It is interesting the parents, all over the land; but it will never settle down to perfection, for there are parents in every community who are not fit to be parents, and there are boys who fear nothing but the law and its terrors. Old father Adam proved any to speak of.
