

THE WILSON ADVANCE.

JOSEPHUS and C. C. DANIELS,
Editors and Proprietors.

THE ADVANCE endeavors to do no more than to present the news of the day in a fair and impartial manner. It is not a party paper, and it is not a religious paper. It is a newspaper, and it is a newspaper of the people. It is a newspaper that is published for the people, and by the people. It is a newspaper that is published for the people, and by the people. It is a newspaper that is published for the people, and by the people.

WILSON, N. C., May 2, 1889.

"A PROPHET is not without honor save in his own country." We note with much pleasure, however, that many North Carolina boys are doing well in other States.

THE ADVANCE believes Cheatham is doing his level best for his race. He requires a black skin as a certificate of good character before he will recommend a man for an appointment. Verily the "Coon Brigade" has come to the front.

The people along the line of the A. & N. C. R. R. are exceedingly anxious that Gov. Fowle shall make some one, except Washington Bryan, President of that piece of State property. That Gov. Fowle will regard their wishes we sincerely hope and trust.

No town stands still. There is either progress or decline. Wilson has up to the present been progressive. What will be in the future depends entirely upon the spirit manifested by our people. Let the spirit of progress that formerly characterized the town be resurrected.

The Rocky Mount Phoenix has entered upon its third volume. The first issue of the Phoenix was one of the handsomest pieces of newspaper work we have seen in the State and reflects much credit on the editor. We congratulate Mr. Lewis and the people of Rocky Mount.

AN INGRATE.

Benjamin Harrison is occupying the Presidential chair to-day because W. W. Dudley's plan of buying up the "floaters" in Indiana was put in operation. Dudley was not a member of the Executive Committee, but he was sent to New York to act as the special representative of Mr. Harrison on the Committee. He had often done political work for Harrison, who knew him well. He knew that Dudley would hesitate to do nothing that promised votes to his employer, Harrison. In keeping with the instructions and encouragement of Harrison, Dudley advised the purchase of votes in "blocks of five," and his advice was taken, and as a consequence, Harrison is now President.

As soon as Dudley had done his work and Harrison was elected, then "Ben" became so exceedingly conscientious that he would not so much as allow Dudley to call at the White House. He could not receive so corrupt a man after the election. He had received the stolen goods, but he turned and spurned the hand that accomplished the theft. Worse than that, then, is his attempt to pose as a "good-guy" man who would not receive a man who had done so base a thing as buy votes. The "pious cuss"—as old Thurman called Wamaker—is perfectly willing to receive the fruits of purchased votes but he is not willing to stick to his "pale." It has been said "there is honor among thieves" but surely this instance disproves the old adage, for no man ever showed baser ingratitude than Harrison has exhibited towards Dudley.

EDITORIAL COURTESY.

Can it be possible that the brilliant editorials of the editor of the Wilmington Star originate anywhere else except in his own brain? When such little fellows as the New York Herald, the Durham Star, the Tribune, &c., release from other papers it is excusable, but no one would excuse a man of such brain power as brother Kingsbury for such deeds. No, it can't be possible. The Charlotte Chronicle must be mistaken.—Durham Tobacco Plant.

Brethren, where is the good that such fellows do? Everybody knows that Mr. Kingsbury is a man of brains and a conscientious editor, and what good can possibly come of engendering bad feeling between the editors in the State. The "courtesy" between the editors of North Carolina is conspicuous only for its absence. Let us use and all get on a higher plane. If a brother editor says that which you do not want to hear, his argument if you can, but let us not attempt to ridicule and deride men who are spending their lives in doing what they conceive to be their duty towards the State. The press should be an educator and no slight minded editor would endeavor to instruct the rising generation in the art of belittling and deriding. Let the press be devoted to the advancement of the State, and let it stamp out this spirit, not to encourage it.

"THE COON BRIGADE."

THE ADVANCE desires to congratulate the Republican party upon the handsome manner in which it is stripping the mask from its face, and the openness with which it proclaims the falseness of the statements made by its leaders in this section during the last campaign. The Democratic press and orators denounced the Republican party as the negro party; they charged that our dusky hued fellow citizens would be placed in office if that party should gain control of the government. The Republicans denied the statement and their candidate for Governor appealed to white men to vote the Republican ticket because Cleveland had appointed a negro as Register in the District of Columbia. Dookery made all manner of fun of the idea that the negroes would be given positions of honor and trust. The whole crowd of Republicans through their skin of a blue color. In England it was anciently held that the thick and dark blood was the best, this said. The credentials of "blue blood" are now a big bank account. The only necessary quality now to change your blood from that of the most plebeian hue is to secure the almighty dollar by either fair or foul means. "Money makes the mare go."

What do we find now? We find that the negroes are "snubbed"—in type. Harrison makes a big noise in saying that the negroes may stand back, for they will receive nothing at his hands. He instructs Wamaker and Clarkson to turn the "Coon Brigade" in the post office criticism as rapidly as possible. Efficient white men are turned out and incompetent negroes are made route agents and postmasters, with a rapidity that is astonishing. The negroes are "snubbed" in the North where the people profess to love them so greatly, but they are placed in power in the South.

Well, but what better can we expect from a party which gained its power by bribery and corruption.

A GOOD SIGN.

Since the editor of the ADVANCE has been old enough to notice the newspapers published in our State, we have never seen as many papers so creditably edited. Not that there are not many newspapers now published that simply "cumber the ground" and prevent other newspapers from doing "better things" for their town and section. There is more real ability and more painstaking labor shown on the North Carolina press to-day than there has been since we have known anything of newspapers. There are more people who subscribe for newspapers, and the business men patronize them more liberally than they have ever done so. The improvement in the quality of the newspapers is a consequence. There is, however, still room for improvement both in the patronage bestowed and the work done on the newspapers.

The people who give newspapers that encouragement that they deserve show a spirit of enterprise that will bring their rich returns. Let every business man give his local newspaper a liberal support.

RAMBLINGS.

Interesting Information, Foolish Fancies and Current Comments.

We were one week with hot weather, and with rain, and with a cold. Choosing our arms from the arsenal of nature, we have been able to keep our noses from the ground.

Some one who knows human nature has well said, "Political attitude is an appreciation of favors yet to be received." Most men utter the prayer, in their hearts at least, "Oh, Lord make me thankful for the favors we are about to receive."

It is an easy matter to denounce and condemn a people for doing an act that is wrong. The greatest scold we ever knew was an alleged minister of the gospel, but we doubt if he ever went quietly to a man who was doing wrong and endeavored to persuade him to forsake his evil way and turn to the path of righteousness. Many a man has been persuaded to do right who could never have been scolded into leading a life of usefulness and piety.

The term "blue blood" was applied by the Spaniards to the descendants of the High complexed and fair-haired Goths as their veins appeared through their skin of a blue color. In England it was anciently held that the thick and dark blood was the best, this said. The credentials of "blue blood" are now a big bank account. The only necessary quality now to change your blood from that of the most plebeian hue is to secure the almighty dollar by either fair or foul means. "Money makes the mare go."

We may agree with Papa Polonius that "the apparel oft proclaims the man," but he will have to return the compliment and agree with us and Miss Juliet that there is nothing in a name. We remember that one of the shortest men we ever knew was Mr. Long; and now comes the corroborative testimony of Culpeper county, Va., where the county court has refused to grant a license to sell liquor at Brandy Station.—Washington Post.

"What's in a name? A rose by any other name would smell as sweet."

"I don't not through the ages. One increasing purpose runs. And the thoughts of men are wide in the process of the suns."

We have no patience with the fellow who is continually cooing of the good old times of the past, and of the degenerate times of the present. People of one age enjoy one thing and at another age they have other pleasures. The present age is the most glorious period in the history of the world, and people are as good to-day as they ever were. Human nature is pretty much the same—circumstances differ. The breadth of vision of men of to-day is greater than it ever has been, and they are capable of greater attainments either for good or evil.

VOTE FOR THE SCHOOL.

And You Vote to Build Up the Town and Put Education Within the Reach of the Needy.

On Monday, the 6th day of May, the qualified voters of School District No. 1, Wilson county, will vote on a proposition to levy a special tax of 15 cents on the hundred dollars' worth of property and 45 cents on each taxable poll, for the purpose of erecting a suitable building for the white children of School District No. 1 and of improving the building for the colored people. That the proposition will be carried is not doubted. The ADVANCE stands squarely and uncompromisingly in favor of the adoption of the act. It believes that in the intelligent education of our children lies the secret of their prosperity and enterprise. It is in favor of more education and better education. It gives power and influence to its possessor and will always command and control ignorance. Therefore we are heartily in favor of the adoption of the proposition and the erection of the building as early as practicable.

We would urge every man in the District to come out and show his appreciation of the opportunity to help forward the great work of educating the youth of our immediate vicinity. We hope and believe that our people properly appreciate the advantages of a good school, and their children along this line. We feel sure our people are alive to the importance of carrying this measure, and we firmly believe they will do it. We have confidence in the people of Wilson. We believe they will stand squarely for the material advancement of our town and section and this is a step in the right direction. That they are aroused to a proper sense of the advantages of a good school goes without saying. The money taken from each man will be a small sum and will never be missed.

The election will be held at the Court House. An entire new registration is necessary. F. M. Merriam is registrar and unless you register you cannot vote. Be sure your name is registered and when the 6th comes go to the Court House and cast a vote for the proposition.

AN ACT.

To Provide For The Erection of Suitable Buildings For The Common School District No. 1, Wilson County.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact.

SECTION 1. That the Board of County Commissioners, with the concurrence of the County Board of Education of Wilson county, shall provide for the erection of suitable buildings for the Common Schools of District No. 1, of Wilson county.

SECTION 2. To that end said Board of Commissioners of Wilson county shall levy a special tax of fifteen cents on the hundred dollars' worth of taxable property in said District, and forty-five cents on each taxable poll in said District. That this tax shall not be levied until approved by a majority of the voters in said District at an election to be held on the first Monday in May, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, which election shall be held as near as may be as other elections.

SECTION 3. That this act shall only apply to the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and the tax herein provided for shall be included in the lists made out for State and county purposes, and collected under the same regulations, pains and penalties as are provided for the collection of other taxes, and paid over by the Sheriff or collector to the Treasurer of the Board of Education of Wilson county for the use of District No. 1.

SECTION 4. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

TOISNOT NEWS.

Happenings in and Around That Place.

There were services in the Methodist church last Tuesday in commemoration of the Centennial of the inauguration of the first President of the country. The devotional exercises were conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmondson; the address was by Rev. J. T. B. Hoover, the Declaration of Independence read by R. A. Hawkins, Esq., music by Miss Emma Averett, supported by 13 girls represented by the original 13 States. The occasion was pleasant, instructive, and calculated to keep alive the first of patriotism that burns in the hearts of our people.

The Methodists have bought a fine organ, it pleases us to state. Rev. A. R. Raven is at New York attending the Centennial. Prof. W. S. Barnes is absent in Raleigh on business.

Had With Eczema. Hair all gone scalp covered with eruptions. Thought his hair would never grow. Cured by CUTICURA Remedies. Hair splendid and not a pimple on his face.

I cannot say enough in praise of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My boy, when one year of age, was afflicted with eczema on his face. He had a red, swollen, itchy, and painful condition of his face, and the doctors said he would never grow up. I began to use CUTICURA, and in a few days the eruptions disappeared. I continued to use it, and in a few more days the skin was perfectly normal. I have since used it on my wife and children, and with the same success. I can truly say that CUTICURA is the best remedy for eczema, and for all skin diseases. It is a true blessing to the human race. I have since used it on my wife and children, and with the same success. I can truly say that CUTICURA is the best remedy for eczema, and for all skin diseases.
