THE WILSON ADVANCE

Professor George T. Winston, a Professor in the University of North Carolina, is in our opinion one of the best brains in the State.

There is a community in North Carolina that has virtually solved the problem of education.

But as co-operation produces good results in government, in industry, in banking, in education, the cheapest and most broadly distributed method of co-operation is manufacturing.

Manufacturing plants are successful when managed by men who have had experience in such work as banking is successful only when managed by skilled bankers.

Such a system of public schools must be practically under the entire control of learned, experienced and faithful educators.

That when a community unites in support of its public schools, when men of influence and property give aid and sympathy when thoroughly qualified teachers are put in charge, and allowed to direct the system for which they are held responsible, then an entire community at a very reasonable cost enjoys the blessings of the best mental training.

Prior to the establishment of the present public school system of Goldsboro the place had no school of any reputation. There were four white schools, three private and one public, all fairly good by comparison with similar schools in other parts of the State.

The school was very fortunate in the fact that there was a definite plan for the future. The local people were not only interested in the school, but they were also interested in the future of the town.

As Seen by the People

In a letter to the editor of the Advance Mr. J. L. Bell, Clerk of the Superior Court of Transylvania County, speaks in very complimentary terms of Judge H. G. Connor.

He is reported as of opinion that he is to have ex-Judge Gilmer for his competitor for Congress in the fifth district this year, and to be blue on account thereof.

We are authorized by Judge G. H. Brown to reply to inquiries from friends in this county and elsewhere that he is not a candidate for Congress.

The Washington Post says: The politician is still sitting up at night, trying to convince the Farmers' Alliance that it has a great future before it if it will but keep out of politics.

John Webster is not a candidate for Congress or any other political office. The Weekly will be glad to see Col. Settle nominated for Congress and will give him a hearty support.

Mr. Wm. C. Taylor, a prominent citizen of Nash county, was in town Monday. Mr. Taylor's many friends want to honor him this year by a legislative seat at Raleigh.

The Republican clerk of the Superior Court of Wake county says that his last campaign cost him $5,000 and that more than it costs many a member of Congress to get elected.

Brower has been on a visit to North Carolina looking after his finances. Capt. Rufus Amis, of Granville, is right after his scalp, and it looks now as if he would succeed in getting it.

We suppose there is scarcely a doubt that Hon. F. M. Simmons, who so ably represented the Second District in Congress for two years, will be the next Democratic nominee for the same position, and that he will be elected.

Mr. John Thompson of Raleigh is now spoken of as the man to beat Charlie Upchurch for Superior Court Clerk of Wake county, says he will denounce the Harrison administration in the coming year.

The names of Messrs. R. H. Battle, N. B. Broughton, W. N. Jones and E. C. Smith, of Raleigh; Maj. Wm. Robbins, of Statesville; and Col. James S. Amis, of Granville, are mentioned in connection with the place of Chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee.

We feel authorized to state that while Gov. Scales appreciates most highly the kindness of his friends in making his nomination, that he feels his honor is such as to forbid his making a canvas. He therefore asks his friends that his name not be considered in the race.

The Statesville Landmark says that A. Leazer and Col. Fred H. Stith with the seat of Col. John S. Henderson in Congress, whose friends desire him to be the nominee for the Fifth District, gentlemen, don't insult and don't disturb the honest and worthy men of the Alliance. They are true men and will do right.

Some fool or knave told the Greensboro Patriot that the Farmers' Alliance would support Brower for Congress in the Fifth District. Gentlemen, don't insult and don't disturb the honest and worthy men of the Alliance.

The negroes of this District have decided to nominate a man of their own race to Congress. The man selected for the nomination is C. L. Davis, principal of a school here.

It is rumored that Mr. E. A. Moye, Superior Court Clerk of Pitt county, will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the First District.

THE POLITICAL POT A BILLIN

Various Candidates and the Talk Concerning them. The Republican campaign in Wake county will be managed by J. C. L. Harris who says he intends to elect Upchurch for Clerk, Rogers for sheriff and Adams for register.

Brower is reported as of opinion that he is to have ex-Judge Gilmer for his competitor for Congress in the fifth district this year, and to be blue on account thereof.
