PERSONAL MENTION

E. N. Mercer Esq., went North Monday.

W. J. Harris, Esq., has gone North on a business trip.

Mr. Lucian Hadley was in town Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. Sam H. Parker, is toying with a slight attack of malarial fever.

Mr. William Murray went to Richmond last Monday on a short business trip.

Mrs. Walter Richardson, of Raleigh, is visiting her niece, Mrs. Samuel B. Gasse.

Mr. W. W. Edwards is in town. He came last week, and it looks natural to see him here again.

Dr. W. S. Anderson and his boys were visiting relatives in Wake county last week.

Mr. Wiley Corbett and wife left Tuesday for the North, where he will purchase his fall stock of goods.

Miss Lollie Lewe, who has been on a visit to Miss Mary Groves Connor, has returned to her home in Goldboro.

Mr. Sam Earle left Monday for Springhope, where he will buy cotton for Branch, Cone & Co.

Mr. Howard Row, of this county, at present Express Messenger between Norfolk and Raleigh, was in town this week.

W. H. Morris, Esq., has gone to New York to purchase a stock of goods which he intends opening in his store on Tarboro Street.

Mr. Kleber Deumark, of New Bern, spent a short while in Wilson last week.

Rev. C. H. Blennus of Savannah, Ga., will preach in this place tonight and again Sunday morning and night.

Rev. D. H. Tuttle has gone to Dunn to assist in a series of meetings in progress at that place.

Miss Mattie Branch left Monday to resume her studies at Mt. de Sales, Catonsville, Baltimore City, Md.

J. C. Hildes Esq., left Tuesday for the Northern market. He will sell the people, through these columns, of his purchases, on his return home.

Miss Alice Williams, of Tarboro, is visiting Mrs. James Wiggins.

Mr. George F. Connor went to Chapel Hill Tuesday.

Mr. W. J. Ward has gone to Nashville, Tenn., to enter the Dental Department of Vanderbilt University.

W. E. Deans Esq., buyer for Branch, Briggs & Co., left Tuesday for New York and other cities to purchase their fall stock of goods.

Mrs. Harry Nottingham, who has been on a visit to her parents here, left Monday for her home in Virginia, accompanied by her sister Miss May Murray, who will spend some time with her.

Mr. B. F. Scarborough, one of the most successful farmers and useful men in Lenoir county, called to see us Monday. He was here in the interest of his friend Mr. Mewbourne.

Mrs. Rogers, of Richmond, Va., who has been visiting friends in Asheville, Statesville, Raleigh, and other points in Western North Carolina, is now visiting the family of Mr. D. L. Hardy.

On this page of this week's ADVANCE Messrs. Davis & Gay have something to say to our readers. This is a live firm, and you can depend upon it, that you will receive your money's worth at a far treatment at their hands.

Rocky Mount Fair.
 We were in Rocky Mount Monday for a short while and met several of the Directors of the Rocky Mount Fair. The Secretary, Mr. S. L. Arrington tells us that work is now being done towards erecting a new floral hall, which will be larger and more attractive than the one that was burned, and that the prospects for a good fair are very flattering.

Mr. Marshbourne.
 We learn from some of our Nash County friends that the Radicals of that county are endeavoring to make a Radical out of Mr. Marshbourne. They have endorsed him for the Legislature, as an Independent—hoping thereby to purchase this good man, for that corrupt party. They will find that they have reckoned without their hearts, or we are badly deceived; in Mr. Marshbourne. He is a white man—a man of character and does not put his principle up for sale, or we are no judge of men. That he will repudiate the in-ult—that he will spurn the proffered bribe—we are confident.

Prof. St. Clair Hester.
 We note with much pleasure the fact that Prof. St. Clair Hester has accepted the Principalship of the Nashville Carolina Institute made vacant by the resignation (on account of his failing health) of Prof. D. L. Ellis. Prof. Hester has a hard place to fill—following Prof. Ellis, who did such excellent work and was so popular, but he is fully able to "fill the bill." He is one of the most enthusiastic and progressive educators in the State—one of the young men who devote all the complimentary things that are showered upon him. The people of Nashville are to be congratulated.

The two ware houses in Rocky Mount are doing well, we learn.

The DYACE believes a roller fair will be a paying investment in Wilson.

The tobacco towns of the State are afraid of Wilson, and well they may be.

A new registration has been ordered for every county in the State. Be certain your name is on the books.

Wilson is the place in which to manufacture tobacco. The finest quality of the weed is raised here and in quantities that astonish old tobacco raisers.

Already "Peg leg" Williams is beginning to stir up the negroes. He wants to carry many thousands of them off.—He makes a large amount of money out of that business.

J. R. Davis, Esq., our enterprising lawyer, is now in the Northern market buying for the fall trade. The readers of the ADVANCE will hear from him upon his return home.

Scotland Neck has just started their new knitting factory to work. Wilson needs just such a factory. Tobacco nine feet tall and thirty leaves to the stalk is what Wilson county is bragging on.—Western Free Lance.

So successful have the tobacco farmers been in Eastern Carolina this year that there will be a large increase of acreage next year. It is now estimated that in Edgecombe county alone there will be 10,000 acres in tobacco next year.—Tarboro Banner.

The farmers are curing tobacco now in lots and we have seen a number of specimens of fine bright strippers, and are more thoroughly convinced than we will admit that the world on fine tobacco.

Fire at Kenly.
 The hotel at Kenly was burned last Thursday night. It was the property of Mr. Jesse Kirby, and the loss is about $2,400, with 1,000 insurance.

Young and Co., and Edgerton, Bros. & Co., merchandising in the same building were burned out. It is thought their losses are covered by insurance. Mr. Mongrey, of Young and Co. was sleeping in the building and narrowly escaped being burned to death. He had to jump out of a second story window. The fire was discovered about midnight, and its origin cannot be accounted for. Mr. Kirby will rebuild.

A Fine Tobacco Crop.
 Farmers will make in a double sense on their tobacco this year, over average years. In the first place the crop is a fine one and is curing well, and then the tobacco is heavier than usual. Some idea of its weight may be formed when we say that Mr. W. W. Rowland took the leaves from four plants that he had just cured, taking them as he came to them, which weighed 2 pounds. Five plants to the pound is considered extra good tobacco.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Brother Thomas in Wilson.
 Brother Thomas, of the Louisville Times, was in Wilson a short while since and had some pleasant things to say of Wilson upon his return. Among other things he said: On a recent trip to the beautiful town of Wilson, it was the pleasure of the editor of the Times to meet a number of the good people of that town, among them that pure and upright man, Judge Cannon, and Messrs. Fred Woodard, J. F. Bruton, Jno. E. Woodard, Democratic candidate for Solicitor, Ed Barnes, (the old reliable) Bro. C. C. Daniels, and a number of others. It is always a pleasure to meet the good people of Wilson, as they never grow tired in offering courtesies to strangers on visits. The Wilson people, like our own, are enthusiastic over their tobacco interests, and say that they are determined to make it succeed. Their opening sale will take place September 10th.

Rev. A. McAdams.
 Rev. A. McAdams, the people here remember as the boy who came to Wilson to study for the ministry under Rev. J. M. McManaway. A short while ago he preached two sermons in Raleigh and the Chronicle has this to say: His efforts were remarkable for thought and force. He thrilled and intensely interested his hearers. Many good judges declared that he combined the earnestness of Evangelist Pearson with the energy and intensity of Thos. Dixon. His sermons were the subject of remark all day Sunday and yesterday.

Mr. Adams is a Wilson county boy and will be in college for two years longer. He is working his own way through and is one of the most brilliant and promising young men of this land.

The ADVANCE notes with pleasure that Mr. Wilson Lucas, of Hyde County, has been re-nominated for the Senate. He was a school boy in Wilson before the war, and has many friends here who rejoice to know that his worth is recognized and appreciated.

Mr. Mott addressed himself to national and general politics. He declared in favor of the force bill and said that the place for those who oppose it is in the Democratic party.—Statesville Landmark.

What does Congressman Ewart say to this proposition.

Speak a good word for your own town at every opportunity, and don't forget your town paper while you are about it. Its interests are your interests and you should help to sustain it every way you can. That is, if you think it worthy of your praise and patronage.—Henderson Gold Leaf

That Manning, of the Henderson Gold Leaf, did what some other editors have been unable to do, he gave us some advice which is probably followed. We are not much acquainted with the game of cards, but here is a bit of advice: Play spades if you win potatoes; play clubs if you would deal with a woman; play hearts if you would win friendship; play diamonds if you would win woman.

Mr. Willie Wallace, who is returning himself for Missionary work in China, left Tuesday for Trinity College, where he will complete his education before going to his far distant field. There was a Missionary Meeting held at The Ten Monday night, which was largely attended by his friends, who gathered to bid him God speed. A pleasant feature of the occasion was the presentation to Mr. Wallace by Rev. D. H. Tuttle, in behalf of the "Bright Jewels, of a handsome Bible.

The Fayetteville Observer has this to say of Prof. Hamilton McMillan, of Roberson county who taught in Wilson: His familiarity with Scotch history, his knowledge of science and his ripe scholarship, with many other accomplishments, combine to render him invaluable to the people of the 15th Senatorial District as a typical representative of their wants and needs in the halls of State legislation.

Let it come to Wilson.
 The Nashville Argonaut regards the building of the road from Henderson to Nash county as a certainty, and says its completion will give additional impetus to the spirit of enterprise and progress which now so largely pervades the community.

If it is not to be a branch of the W. & W. we would be pleased to see it come on to Wilson. We need a competing line here.

The Wilson Short Cut.
 It has been officially stated that work is to begin on the southern extension of the Wilson Short Cut R. R. as soon as the right of way can be secured and the contract awarded. Steps are being taken for the purpose of securing the right of way, depot property, etc.—Fayetteville Observer.

They are Coming.
 We met a gentleman in Weldon the other day, from Pitt county, on their way to Oxford to sell tobacco, which had to be shipped all round-by Selma and Raleigh. They could not carry it to a better place than Oxford, for there is no better market, but it just struck us that Rocky Mount and Wilson were a little slow and wanting in enterprise. The Oxford warehousemen use printers ink, and deserve success. Wake up gentlemen if you expect to succeed.—Nashville Argonaut.

Wilson is beginning to open her eyes. She'll get 'em fully open to the value of printers ink, are long. The Rocky Mount, people will soon arouse from their slumber on this line, too, we hope.

Go Note it.
 A few days since the county Republican executive committee bitch of his horse to a large oak tree near the Court-house. After a little the tree began to lean over and soon came to the ground with a terrible crash, the horse walking along with the tree and being unharmed. As there was no wind blowing at the time, the only inference is that the tree was utterly disorganized with rot, and by its fall, forestall the end of that party.—Nashville Argonaut.
