

The Wilson Advance

WILSON, N. C. Jan. 8th, 1891.

We call attention to the advertisement of Wilson Collegiate Institute.

Ruffin & Riley have separated, each keeping separate stores on Tarboro street.

Rev. John N Cole and his family are installed in the Methodist parsonage.

The experience of the people of this county with freight rates makes them desire a Railroad Commission.

W W Edwards & Bro. have taken in John V Moore as a partner here. He has charge of the stables at this place.

John P Clark left J T Wiggins on the 1st to take a place with J D Farrow, who is in the horse business.

There may have been gayer Christmas holidays spent in Wilson than the past but there has been no note more enjoyable.

Mr. J. S. Ellis has accepted the position of bookkeeper for Barnes & Davis. He is a first-class bookkeeper.

We see the statement made that Prof. J. E. Kelly, who was principal of the Wilson Male Academy last year, is conducting a business college in Charlotte.

Prof. Kelly is one of the most thorough and earnest educators in the State and will no doubt build up a business college that will be a credit to the State.

He has the best wishes of our people whatever he may do or wherever he may go.

Congressman Cleatham's coons have been quite troublesome. Cora Davis, one of the number, has been removed as Postmaster at Halifax, for embezzlement.

John H. Hannon (col.), who has been appointed to fill the vacancy, he was Register of Deeds of Halifax county for some time. Those people do not believe that Republican success means negro officers are respectfully referred to the Federal office holders of this district. Truly the coons have been provided for in the black district.

Fire! Fire! On last Friday night the alarm of fire was sounded and immediately the people rushed forth to find the fire. The fire was in the bar room of Mr Geo M Smith on Tarboro street. It was put without serious damage to the building.

Railroad From Weldon to Wilson Mr. W. P. Simpson, a prominent business man of Wilson, informed us recently that the people of Wilson are anxious to have a railroad from this point and that a meeting had been held and a committee appointed to negotiate with Mr. John M. Robinson of the S. A. Line. Mr. Simpson said $50,000 could be raised in Wilson alone, that such a road built through Ringwood, would be four miles shorter than the Wilmington road.

It would run through a fine country and would do splendid carry-ing business, the timber stone which would be opened to market, being a large item.—Roanoke News.

Rev. John N Cole On Sunday last Rev John N Cole who was assigned to the parsonage of the Wilson Methodist church for this year, preached the first sermon of his pastorate here. Mr. Cole preached one of the most thoughtful, impressive sermons that we have listened to in some time. He impressed his congregation with his deep earnestness and thorough consecration, and his sermon evidenced a well stored mind and a powerful voice. His illustrations were exceptionally apt and entertaining. His sermon at night was in some respects superior to his morning sermon. We believe the people of Wilson will love Mr Cole and that he will accomplish much good here.

Tobacco Warehouse Our people have no idea of the value of the tobacco crop raised in Wilson county this year. The figures we are of course unable to give, but they would astonish most of our readers. The Wilson Tobacco Warehouse has been a decided success, handling a much larger proportion of the weed than any one anticipated. The Warehouse for the coming tobacco year beginning June 1st, has been leased by Mr Walter F Woodard. He is a young man of energy and will push the business to its fullest capacity. He will be assisted in his labors by experienced tobaccoists. The Warehouse will continue to be managed by Capt Ed M Pace until June. Our farmer friends need not fear to bring their tobacco to Wilson. They will get all the market will afford.

Soldiers' Home. In this issue will be found an appeal, signed by Mr. J. S. Carr, President of the North Carolina Veterans' Association. We feel that the appeal will command itself to the women of Wilson and we would be glad to do what we can through our columns to forward this matter. The Executive Committee, without funds sufficient in hand to maintain the Home, has opened it, believing that the good people of North Carolina will sustain it. Now we should see to it that the committee is not disappointed, and it behooves the women of Wilson to show the committee that our community is as loyal to the Confederate soldier as Raleigh, or Durham, or as to that matter, as any town in the State from Manteo to Marysville. Who will authorize us to say that they will at once move in the matter?

Attention Farmers—We now have on hand a supply of Tinsley's High Grade Fertilizer for Tobacco Plants. C. A. Young & Bro.

Pitt county Superior Court is in session this week. Judge Spier will hear the courts of this district in the term. Jno. E. Wood, 1st Esq., began his labors as Solicitor at Greenville Monday.

The professional card of Dr. J. H. Daniel appears in this week's ADVANCE. He has several leases here now. He has attended some cases and cures have been wrought when the disease was pronounced, by eminent physicians, as cancer.

The store in which the Argonaut office was located, in Rocky Mount, was destroyed by fire on Monday last. We sympathize with Brother Long and hope he will soon be on his feet again. He is one of the best editors in the State and the people can ill afford to do without the Argonaut for even a short time.

Mr. George P. Pell, son of our old friend, Rev William E Pell, who was a man of ability and judgment far beyond his fellows, who has been connected editorially with the Winston Daily, has taken the place with the Raleigh Chronicle vacated by Mr. Hal Ayer. Mr. Pell is a young man of promise and we wish him success and happiness.—Wilmington Messenger.

We see the statement made that Miss Hattie Stocumb who spent the Christmas holidays with Miss May Gay, has returned to her home in Goldsboro.

Miss Minnie Stocumb, of Goldsboro, spent the Christmas holidays visiting Miss Sue Davis.

Col. Thomas S Kenan, of Raleigh has been in town this week shaking hands with his friends and acquaintances here.

Misses Tassie and Addie Earle and Iva Boddie, of Nashville, have returned home from a visit to the family of J. W. Crowell Esq.

Mr. Frank Winstead, who has been clerking for M. Rountree & Co. left Tuesday for Trinity College. We love to see our boys seeking education.

Rev. E. P. Pell and wife spent the Christmas holidays in Fayetteville. They returned home last week and Mr. Pell filled his pulpit Sunday morning.

Miss Lula Brooks, daughter of Rev. J. E. Brooks, D. D., who is teaching in Leaksville, spent a few days in town last week. She has many friends here who were glad to see her.

Miss Fannie Green, of Franklin county and Miss May Gay spent a day or two with Miss Hattie Stocumb in Goldsboro last week, and are visiting Miss Alice Williams, in Edgemonte, this week.

R. T. Covington Esq., of Red Springs, is in town. He married a sister of our townman W. F. Wood Esq. Mr. Covington was until a few days since, editor of the Red Springs Scottish Chief, and he made a most excellent newspaper of it, too. We were pleased to receive a call from him.

Personals. Jacob Battle Esq., of Rocky Mount, was in Wilson Tuesday.

Miss Lena Taylor, of Whitakers has been on a visit to Mrs. Dr. Brodie.

Mr. Ed. Brodie, of Henderson, was in town last week, to be at the bedside of his brother.

Mr. Will McNaix, a daughter in Oxford, is on a visit to his father, Mr. C. McNaix.

Miss Maggie Banks, of Petersburg, is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. B. Hill.

Mr. W. B. Young, wife and baby of Fayetteville, spent their Christmas holidays here.

"Bob" Evans was at home Christmas. He has charge of the printing office of the Marlow (S. O.) Index.

Miss Hattie Stocumb who spent the Christmas holidays with Miss May Gay, has returned to her home in Goldsboro.

Miss Minnie Stocumb, of Goldsboro, spent the Christmas holidays visiting Miss Sue Davis.

Col. Thomas S Kenan, of Raleigh has been in town this week shaking hands with his friends and acquaintances here.

Misses Tassie and Addie Earle and Iva Boddie, of Nashville, have returned home from a visit to the family of J. W. Crowell Esq.

Mr. Frank Winstead, who has been clerking for M. Rountree & Co. left Tuesday for Trinity College. We love to see our boys seeking education.

Rev. E. P. Pell and wife spent the Christmas holidays in Fayetteville. They returned home last week and Mr. Pell filled his pulpit Sunday morning.

Miss Lula Brooks, daughter of Rev. J. E. Brooks, D. D., who is teaching in Leaksville, spent a few days in town last week. She has many friends here who were glad to see her.

Miss Fannie Green, of Franklin county and Miss May Gay spent a day or two with Miss Hattie Stocumb in Goldsboro last week, and are visiting Miss Alice Williams, in Edgemonte, this week.

R. T. Covington Esq., of Red Springs, is in town. He married a sister of our townman W. F. Wood Esq. Mr. Covington was until a few days since, editor of the Red Springs Scottish Chief, and he made a most excellent newspaper of it, too. We were pleased to receive a call from him.

PLAIN TOM TALES. He Tells the News From the Captain's Section.

I regret to chronicle the death of Mr. John H. Hight in Nashville, aged 55.

Mr. W. B. Howard, who received injuries by the explosion of an engine at Red Oak, this county, died on Dec. 12th.

I learn from good authority that President J. R. Young intends beginning operations upon the Atlantic, Henderson & Virginia Railroad to place this month.

Wednesday Dec. 10th, Mr. E. T. Braswell, of Nash, was united in marriage to Miss Jennie, daughter of J. J. Cooke, Esq., of Franklin. I extend the newly wedded my warmest congratulations.

Married at the residence of the bride's father on Dec. 8th, Mr. J. E. Taylor and Miss Xannie Matthews, Rev. N. E. Richardson officiating. The happy couple with the attendants, repaired to the residence of the groom's father where a bountiful repast awaited them.

EDITOR ADVANCE—The writer attended the Masonic funeral of the late O. H. C. Bunting at Philadelphia church on Dec. 14th, and although the weather was cold about one thousand people witnessed the solemn rites of the Masonic fraternity. Rev. G. M. Duke, delivered an impressive sermon upon the occasion.

A Tournament at Black Creek. A tournament was held at Black Creek on Tuesday Dec. 23d. The largest and one of the best behaved crowds we have ever seen assembled here was present. Disorderly conduct of any kind was especially noted for its absence. The exercises commenced with an address to the Knights by P. L. Woodard, Esq. Five tilts were allowed each Knight. A. W. Walston succeeded in catching thirteen rings out of a possible fifteen; N. E. Whitley, twelve; W. A. Brooks, five; C. F. Harris, seven; R. Winstead, ten. In conjunction with the honor of crowning the Queen of Love and Beauty and the Maids of Honor, a riding saddle and bridle was given to the first; a buggy robe to the second; and a buggy whip to the third most successful Knights, A. W. Walston crowned Miss Sallie Pool, of Contentues, Queen of Love and Beauty, and received the saddle and bridle. N. E. Whitley crowned Miss Lula Yelverton, of Stantonburg, 1st Maid of Honor and received the buggy robe; R. Winstead crowned Miss Minnie Hart, of Wilson, 2nd Maid of Honor and received the buggy whip, and C. F. Harris crowned Miss Nona Taylor, of Black Creek, 3d Maid of Honor. Mr. Woodard presented the crowns and prizes to the successful Knights, R. L. Paschal, J. M. Taylor and David Daniel were the judges, R. Winstead was Chief Marshal, Mess. Ervin Davis, T. B. Yelverton, W. G. Sharp, Jar. Bentzow, J. H. Aycock, L. H. Barnes and J. W. Paschall acted as assistants. The Honorary Managers were E. B. Bass, J. J. Aycock and Turner Joyner. The Braswell Bro's. band furnished the music. The ball was well attended, there being seventy couples who participated in the dance, and reflected credit upon the managers, Mess. T. E. Hays and Walter Whitley.

Died. Mr. Rufus Worrell, died on Sunday last. He has for years been perfectly helpless and death was a release from bodily suffering. The funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church on Monday. Rev. Jno. N. Cole conducting the services.

Mrs. Martha Leonard, wife of Mr. John Leonard, departed this life on Saturday 1st. She was about 65 years of age and a pure hearted christian woman. She went to receive the reward of a christian life.

The vicinity was shocked on Saturday last to learn of the death of Dr. Walter Brodie, which sad event occurred that morning after a short illness.

Dr. Brodie was 46 years of age when called to the Father. He a native of Granville, of that part now Vance County, but moved to Nash County several years ago, married Miss Etta Rake, lived at Hilliardston and Whitakers where he practiced medicine and carried on large farming operations. For the past five years he has been a resident of Wilson. During that time he made friends here who feel deeply grieved at his untimely taking off. He was a fine physician, caring for his husband, child and a good neighbor. He was a consistent member of the Episcopal church and a Vestryman.

He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his departure. To them we extend our condolence. May the God who doeth all things well fill the place the father and husband that has been called from them.

Married. Mr. Ephraim Harrell, was married on Wednesday, night of last week to Miss Sarah Price, Saratoga. The ADVANCE extends congratulations.

Miss Katie Fields, who our people remember, for she went to school in Wilson several years, was married to Mr. J. K. Grannis. The marriage took place at the Presbyterian church in Tarboro Dec. 25th. The ADVANCE hopes their happy way may be strewn with thornless roses.

Prof. Elisha B. Lewis, of the Asheville Graded School, was married on Tuesday of last week to Miss Doris McDaniel, of Kinston. Immediately after they were married Mr. John Carroll and Miss Ora Reynolds, both of Asheville, and attendants at the first marriage, stepped up and were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock. Rev. E. W. Battle, of Wilson performed the ceremony in both instances. The ADVANCE extends heartfelt congratulations all around.

On yesterday evening at seven o'clock at the residence of the bride's father, Eld. Wm. Woodard, Charles B Aycock, Esq., of Goldsboro, and Miss Cora B Woodard were united in marriage. Mr. Aycock is one of the finest lawyers in the State, a man of sterling character and highly respected by our people. Miss Woodard is a young lady of a gentle sweet spirit, a worthy woman. May their married life be filled with happiness and contentment.

Prof. Edwin L. Hughes, Superintendent of the Reidsville Graded School's, was united in marriage to Miss Florence Moore, daughter of Mr. Edwin Moore of Selma, on the 30th, inst. at 3 o'clock. The ceremony that took place here was performed by Rev. J. E. Brooks, D. D., of Greensboro, in the Methodist church at Selma, which was beautifully decorated. Miss Mamie Howerton, of Durham presided at the organ. The attendants were: Miss Minnie Moore and H. A. Fousebee, of Durham; Miss Dora Wick and Edwin Moore, of Selma; Miss Lena Brooks, of Leaksville; C. O. Daniels, of Wilson; Miss Nattie Gladstone, of Reidsville; O. A. Smith, of Baltimore; Miss Rosa Waddell, of Nashville; Sidney Tucke, of Selma; Miss Mattie Pout, of Smithfield; D. O. McCallers, of Clayton; Miss Marie Richardson, of Selma; Dr. M. C. Milder, of Pigeon River; Miss Leonie Graves, of Selma; Thomas Terry, of Reidsville. There are few men in North Carolina who have attained such success and who possess the intellectual force of Prof. Hughes. He is a clear thinker and an earnest educator and a man apolitical character. Miss Moore is a young lady of brains and heart. She adorns any position and we heartily congratulate both.

The work of the Experiment Station of the Agricultural Department is being pretty generally complimented. That it is of practical value to the people there seems to be no doubt.

NOTICE. By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Wilson county, wherein Oscar Swainford and wife Meyda Gardner and others, heirs at law of T. J. Summerville, N. C. Dec. 11, '90. Dr. J. H. Daniel, Dunn, N. C. Dear Sir:—The sore on my face which was pronounced Epithelial Cancer, is perfectly well, and I do not hesitate to recommend your mode of treatment to any persons suffering with Cancer.

Respectfully, A. M. McKAY, M. D. There would be far less complaint against the whiskey business if people who drink would demand a fine whiskey of standard brand, and accept no other. There are many straight and well matured whiskeys on the market, but no other stands so high with the medical fraternity and with consumers as the celebrated I. W. Harper whiskey, of Nelson county, Ky.

The genuine I. W. Harper is sold only by W. CORBETT, Wilson, N. C.

Dr J H Daniel DUNN, N. C. Specialist in the treatment of Cancer and Scrofulous Diseases.

It's easy enough—the Ball corset. That's because it has coils of fine wire springs in the sides. They clasp the figure closely, but yield to every motion.

They "give", but they come back. So does your money—if you've worn a Ball corset two or three weeks, and find that you don't like it.
