

The Wilson Advance.

WILSON, N. C., April 16, 1891.

Don't forget the Alliance meeting and lecture here by Capt. Thorne Saturday of next week.

The martins have come, and "Spring time, gentle Annie," is here wantonly wallowing in our lap just now.

Rev. J. F. Love, pastor of the Rocky Mount Baptist church is here assisting Rev. H. W. Battle in the meeting which is now in progress.

Wayne Superior Court is in session this week. The suit of Mr. Kirby Smith, against the State University for false imprisonment will come up for trial.

The County Alliance was in session here last Friday. On account of some misunderstanding as to the date there was not a very large attendance.

Sheriff Crowell, zealous and ever alive to the needs of the people, has had the Court House yard thoroughly cleaned up, and the refuse matter, trash, rubbish, etc., carted away.

We are glad to know that Dr. E. K. Wright, our popular young dentist, has entirely recovered from a severe and tenacious attack of the grip, and able to attend to the duties of his office.

By the way, the Court House yard would be just the place for the tennis court that is being talked. Under the cooling shades of those spreading oaks the sport would be very enjoyable.

Dr. N. B. Herring left yesterday for Richmond, Va., in response to a summons from Mr. Wiley Edwards, who is very low. Mr. Edwards has many friends here who hope to hear of his speedy recovery.

Wilson surely and steadily moves forward. Some time last year a lot in the suburbs was sold for $600. Not long since one third of the identical property was sold for $500. The purchaser now holds it at $500.

Last week 175 convicts, who have been at work on the Salisbury & Albemarle Railroad, were moved to Maxton to work on the Wilson "Short Cut" between Fayetteville and Florence. The road will be completed by August 1st.

Sheriff Crowell has three tracts of land advertised for sale for taxes. This is the first time, since he has been Sheriff of Wilson county, over six years, that an acre of land in the county has been sold for taxes Wilson, as usual, is still ahead.

Dr. E. K. Wright was called to his old home, Thomsville, Tuesday by a telegram saying his father had met with a serious accident. A telegram received yesterday conveyed the sad news that his father was dead. We have no particulars. The Doctor will return as soon as possible.

Last Saturday Mr. P. K. Kidder caused some excitement on Tarboro street by firing into the Edwards-Moore pack of hounds with a revolver. They had previously attacked his dog. Three were wounded. A preliminary hearing was held before Justice Lancaster on Monday and he was bound over to June Court.

Mr. Elias Carr, president of North Carolina Farmers' Alliance, has requested the County Alliances of the State to appoint at their April meeting, one delegate to a convention of Tobacco Growers, to be held April 28th, at Henderson, N. C., to co-operate with delegates from the tobacco growing counties of Virginia, similarly appointed.

The Old Story. While at play during the afternoon recess last Friday Master Tom Hadley fell and severely fractured his arm. Dr. C. E. Moore rendered medical assistance. He tells us the lower end of the humerus was split, making a dangerous fracture. Tom now carries his arm in a sling. In consequence of the excitement created among the boys by the accident, Elder Gold postponed his talk until tomorrow afternoon.

All Crops Behind. Talking with Mr. T. P. Braswell of Battleboro, one of the best informed farmers of Nash county one day last week, he said: "All our crops are way behind now. If we have good seasons now on everything will be all right, however. Why, last year a cropper on my land set out about two acres in tobacco on April 6th, and it did mighty well, making fine tobacco. Now our beds are not even ready." The crop this year will be a late one to say the least, and it seems that he is right.

Good Work. For some weeks past the ADVANCE has been giving a report of the Wilson Tobacco Market. On all sides the work has been complimented and we have been congratulated upon its excellence. We take pleasure in saying that Capt. E. M. Pace, of the Wilson Warehouse, is due the credit for the excellent work. He knows all about tobacco and has the ear of the people of this section. The Tobacco Department will be a feature of the ADVANCE in the future, as usual. We congratulate ourselves, and our readers, upon this real acquisition to our staff.

Our Willie. Rev. J. F. Butt, the evangelist of Charlotte, is conducting a series of revival meetings this week in St. John M. E. Church with great success. Mr. Butt has attained a reputation as an evangelist in North Carolina that is enviable, and his work here thus far fully verifies all that has been said of him. The musical part of the services, which is essential to a revival, because the heart finds more than other ways, is conducted by Mr. Will Stallings—Goldsboro Argus.

Willie is one of "the sweet singers in Israel," loved and cherished by the Wilson people, who believe he has at last struck the right vocation as conductor of the musical part of revival work.

Installation of Officers.

On Monday night the officers elect of Mt. Lebanon Chapter, No. 27, were installed by Grand High Priest, B. F. Briggs, as follows: High Priest, F. M. Moyer. King, David Oettinger. Scribe, J. D. Bullock. Captain of the Host, R. G. Briggs. Principal Sojourner, E. M. Nadal. Royal Arch Capt., F. M. Winstead. Master of 3rd Veil, Jas. Lipscomb. Master of 2nd Veil, S. C. Wells. Master of 1st Veil, G. W. Blount. Secretary, Lat Williams. Treasurer, J. W. Hayes. Guard, W. P. Snakenberg.

After the installation exercises were concluded the members were invited into the banqueting hall to partake of an elegant "spread," provided by the Messrs. Moyer, Oettinger and Bullock. Mayor George D. Green and the press of the town were also included in the invitation and were present. Among the visitors present we noticed S. H. Tyson, Esq., of Saratoga, Mr. Jonathan Applewhite and Dr. F. M. Moyer, of Stantonburg, and J. F. Bell, Esq., of Raleigh.

Our Boys.

Wilson people are justly proud of their Military Company, The Wilson Light Infantry. They are the pet and pride of the town. The martial spirit lies smoldering in the human breast still, and the sight of bright uniforms, glittering bayonets, and marching men, set the pulses throbbing at the thought of the "pomp and circumstance of glorious war." The Wilson Company, true soldiers, with due respect for their superior officers, attended in a body the funeral of their dead Commander in Chief, in Raleigh last Thursday. Speaking of the Company the Goldsboro Argus says: The Wilson Military Company, in their bright, handsome uniforms, under the command of Capt. Wooten, was in town yesterday, en route for Raleigh, where they went to pay their last respect to their dead commander, His Excellency Hon. Daniel G. Fowle, by attending his funeral services.

The State Chronicle of Tuesday says: The Wilson Light Infantry made a fine impression upon the people of Raleigh while here last week. It was commanded by Capt. W. P. Wooten who has seen service in real warfare. He had as handsome a company of soldier boys as ever carried a bayonet, and they bore themselves proudly. The Chronicle erred in calling them the Wilson Militia. No name is too honorable for a company composed of such worthy soldiers.

PERTINENTLY PERSONAL.

People You Know, Will Know, or Ought to Know. Mr. F. A. Woodard was in Goldsboro on business last week.

Miss Nettie Ellis, of Saratoga, was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. W. R. Winstead, of Nash county, is visiting friends here.

Miss Mallie Cooper has returned from a visit to friends in Nash county.

Miss Maggie Tilley, of Rocky Mount, was in Wilson last week on a shopping trip.

Mrs. W. M. King, of Greenville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. S. C. Wells, of this place.

Those two clever drummers, Messrs. J. I. Pridgen and D. F. Davison, were here Friday.

Miss Kate Sterling, of Goldsboro, spent Sunday in town, visiting her friend, Miss Marie O'Neill.

Dr. J. E. Brothers returned last Friday from New York, where he has been for some time attending lectures.

R. B. Boykin left Monday to tempt men and fate with Nolly's patent bag racks, gate latches and back band hooks.

Drs. W. S. and Albert Anderson spent a few days in Wake county last week visiting their former home and recalling the scenes of youthful dreams.

Rev. R. P. Pell and wife returned yesterday from Tarboro. They leave to-day for Smithfield and Fayetteville. Their departure is universally regretted.

Catarrh originates in scrofulous taint. P. P. purifies the blood, and thus permanently cures Catarrh.

Terrible blood poison, body covered with sores, and two bottles of P. P. (Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium) was resorted to and Irvin is well and happy.

Abbot's East India Corn Paint removes quickly all corns, bunions and warts without pain.

MILTON F. L. A. This to certify that I have been afflicted with Scrofula, or Blood Poison, for a number of years. The best physicians of Mobile and this city said nothing could be done for me. I also took a large quantity of—but found no relief in anything that I took. My limbs were a mass of ulcers, and when I was sent to a physician in Mobile my entire body was a mass of sores. I had given up all hope and as a last resort tried P. P. (Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium), and after using four bottles (small size) the sores have entirely disappeared, and my general health was never better than at the present time, and people that know me think it a wonderful cure. Respectfully ELIZA TODD.

THE TOWN PRIMARIES.

Three Old, and Two New, Commissioners Nominated by The Democrats.

The Democratic Conventions to nominate candidates for town commissioners met on Tuesday night. Although it is known a nomination is equivalent to an election in Wilson there was not much interest manifested. What there was stirring became panned up in the grand jury room of the Court House, where the "bloody Fifth" held forth. The contest in this ward was close enough to be somewhat exciting, and much good-natured amusement was occasioned. Below we give the result:

First Ward. W. P. Wooten was made Chairman and B. J. Cobb Secretary. The vote stood: Henry May Warren, 39 W. T. Sanders, 31

Warren's majority, 9 Member Executive Committee for ensuing year: J. D. Bullock.

Second Ward. W. L. Cantwell made Chairman, J. T. McCraw and R. G. Briggs Secretaries. The vote stood: E. Barnes, Jr., 32 J. A. Clark, 21

Barnes' majority, 11 Member Executive Committee for ensuing year: A. W. Rowland.

Third Ward. H. C. Jackson was made Chairman and C. F. Wilson Secretary. J. J. Gay was put in nomination by S. A. Woodard and, upon motion of E. M. Nadal, he was nominated by acclamation, there being no opposition. Alex. Green was elected member of Executive Committee.

Fourth Ward. T. A. Davis was made Chairman and E. M. Pace Secretary. The vote stood: John Y. Moore, 20 George Hackney, 13

Moore's majority, 7 Member Executive Committee for ensuing year: E. M. Pace.

Fifth Ward. W. F. Mercer was made Chairman and J. R. Moore Secretary. The vote stood: J. R. Rawls, 19 Doane Herring, 22

Rawls' majority, 3 Member Executive Committee for ensuing year: T. D. Gay.

As a matter of news, proper to go on record, we may say that the question of having electric lights and water works was made the issue. No man who opposed either was voted for, and the nominees have declared themselves in favor of both improvements—and all improvements necessary for the growth and progress of the town.

We have argued that, since the citizens of Wilson have decided it, the question of establishing systems of water works and electric lights for the town should not enter into the municipal election this year. But it did, and we rejoice that it did so. Now the people know where their nominees stand. There can be no doubt about their position on progressive lines.

It has twice been clearly demonstrated that the people of Wilson are, almost to a unit, in favor of progress, growth and development. So let us all rejoice.

WILSON HONORS HIM.

Her Patriotic Citizens Met to Show Respect For The Deal Governor.

In response to a proclamation, issued by Mayor Geo. D. Green, the citizens of Wilson met in the Court House last Thursday evening to manifest their love and respect for their dead Governor. The Court House was packed, many ladies being present. Mayor Green called the meeting to order and Col. J. B. Stickney, a lifelong friend of Governor Fowle, was called to the chair. The meeting was led in prayer by Rev. Jno. N. Cole. C. F. Wilson and W. H. Blount were made Secretaries. Col. Stickney spoke briefly about the life of Gov. Fowle. Messrs. G. W. Blount, J. F. Bruton, T. J. Hadley, Alex. Greene and Dr. J. K. Ruffin were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. They reported the following:

WHEREAS It hath pleased Almighty God to terminate the earthly existence of Daniel G. Fowle, Gov. of North Carolina, in the midst of his usefulness, by a most sudden dispensation of His Providence, and

WHEREAS, It is meet and proper, as well as consonant with the feelings of this people in mass meeting assembly to give some expression of the estimation in which he is held and the regard we hold for him, and the sense of loss felt by the people of the State. Therefore be it

Resolved That in the death of Gov. Fowle the people have lost a most devoted friend; one whose tender sympathies were always asserted in their behalf; who as man, as politician, statesman and the Chief Executive was always on the side of the people and who was ever ready and able, with tongue and pen, to defend and maintain their rights.

To his immediate family, those most deeply and keenly affected by this sad dispensation, we tender our most heartfelt sympathies, and commend them for comfort and consolation to our Heavenly Father, whose ear is always open to the cry of distress and "who doeth all things well."

The resolutions were unanimously adopted. Brief addresses upon the life and character of Gov. Fowle were made by Col. Jno. F. Bruton, Mr. W. H. Blount and Rev. H. W. Battle. Col. Bruton spoke of the resolute determination of the man, which nothing could shake; Mr. Blount spoke of his power and fame as an orator, and Mr. Battle spoke of the great tenderness of heart of Gov. Fowle. Mr. Battle's address has been highly complimented. Of him as a speaker it may truly be said that he touches no subject which he does not adorn. At the conclusion of the speeches the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Cole and the audience dismissed.

TOBACCO.

GOSSIP STIRRING IN THE WILSON MARKET.

[WILSON, Wilson county, N. C., has a population of 3,500. Is on the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, 54 miles south of Weldon, and 24 miles north of Goldsboro. Is centrally located in the section that has in recent years eclipsed the world in the production of Fine Lemon-Colored and Mahogany Wrappers, Cutters and Smokers.]

WILSON TOBACCO MARKET.

Reported weekly by E. M. Pace, Manager Wilson Tobacco Warehouse.

WILSON, N. C., April 11, 1891. Last week we had several fair days for handling tobacco. Breaks on those days were heavy and prices good. The cold snap will have a tendency to cut off receipts.

Table with columns for FILLERS, SMOKERS, CUTTERS, WRAPPERS, and MAHOGANY, listing various grades and prices.

Although we have had a surplus of rain fall I hear no complaint of plants. Beds that I have visited the past week, are thrifty and doing well. Some of our planters will commence planting by the 22nd of this month.

Maj. E. M. Johnston, of Pender county, was on the breaks last Tuesday. He reports his prospects for a tobacco crop as good as he could wish. His manager, Mr. J. L. Cooper, the right man, in the right place, sent Capt. Pace a sample of his plants, which he says are healthy and vigorous and that he will begin setting his crop in ten days.

Mr. Frank W. Barnes, one of our enterprising and progressive fillers of the soil, has taken his first step in tobacco culture. He has secured the services of an expert, cut the poles for his barns, and his man "Friday" says he has the finest tobacco land in the State. He is around making inquiry as to where he can get plants, he never sowed any seed, and must rely upon his good neighbors for a supply. He wants enough for ten acres. Accommodate him!

Mr. Ed. S. Toney who hails from the Farmville, Va., section, and who lives on Capt. Cal Barnes' home place, near Wilson, sold his crop of tobacco, raised on eight acres, on the Wilson Warehouse floor last Wednesday. Mr. Toney knows how to handle a crop of tobacco and deserves, as he has received a just compensation for his labor. Who says raising tobacco doesn't pay? The sale made was: 7,611 pounds, for $1,534.42; averaging $20.16 per pound.

Mr. W. T. Farmer, our efficient County Treasurer, sold the last of his crop of tobacco last Tuesday on the Wilson Warehouse floor. It was his cleaning out sale. Here is some of the following figures: $6.25, 15.50, 16.50, 14.75, 16.50, 8.25, 14, 12.50, 18.50, 30, 20, 30, 8.25, 17, 12.50, 14.75, 24.50, 45, 16.50, 25, 7, 14, 13.50, 23.50, 14, 24.50, 8.50, 21, 20, 13.50, 10.25, 8, 10.25, 19, 17, 20. It goes without saying, he was well pleased with his prices. He has secured the services of the old wheel horse in tobacco, Capt. Jack Finch, for this year, who reports he has the finest plants in Eastern Carolina. Capt. Jack will "get that," as he never has, yet learned the word fail. Success to you.

Below we give a partial list of those who sold on the Wilson Warehouse floor this week, just to show that the best farmers of this and adjoining counties sell their tobacco here:

- List of names and amounts: W. T. Farmer, Wm. Dickens, W. C. Dew, Ben Renfrow, C. D. Drake, Alfred Reid, C. B. Ellis, Capt. Cal Barnes, Geo. C. Edwards, Ed. S. Toney, Geo. W. Amerson, Scott & White, J. E. Lamm, N. B. Newman, R. E. Edgerton, O. W. Hooks, Geo. W. Blalock, R. H. Webb, E. C. Hooks, Aycock & Co., John Watson, F. L. Baker.
