

The Wilson Advance.

$1.50 A YEAR CASH IN ADVANCE.

"LET ALL THE ENDS THOU AIMST AT, BE THY COUNTRY'S, THY GOD'S, AND TRUTH'S."

THE BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM

VOLUME XXIV.

WILSON, WILSON COUNTY, N. C., JANUARY, 1889.

NUMBER 3.

The Old Friend

And the best friend, that never fails you, is Simmons Liver Regulator, (the Red Z)—that's what you hear at the mention of this excellent Liver medicine, and people should not be persuaded that anything else will do. It is the King of Liver Medicines; is better than pills, and takes the place of Quinine and Calomel. It acts directly on the Liver, Kidneys and Bowels and gives new life to the whole system. This is the medicine you want. Sold by all Druggists in Liquid, or in Powder to be taken dry or made into a tea.

At a Trustee sale we bought a stock of Shoes, Trunks, China and Glassware, Tinware and Woodware.

We paid for this Stock 60cts on the Dollar, that is any article that cost $1.00 in New York, cost us 60cts. We put our profit on and sell it at 75c. So you see you get these goods Not at New York Cost, but 33 per cent. less.

We mention a Few Articles and Prices.—

- Ladies' Dongola Buttoned Shoes at $2c. worth $1.36.
- Ladies' Dongola Buttoned Shoes at 96c. worth 1.65
- Misses' Buttoned Grain 11-2 at 67c.
- regular price 1.00
- Gents Congress Shoes 82c. worth 1.36
- " " " " 1.08, 2.00
- " " " " 1.55, 3.00

All we ask is that you will come and see these goods.

The Cash Racket Stores,

J. M. LEATH, Manager.

Nash and Goldsboro Streets, WILSON, N. C.

issues I have yet seen, and the town is surrounded by many others. This is quite a railroad centre and might have been a city if Tampa was farther off it will be city yet; for such beautiful locations and surroundings are not common, even in Florida. As old Father Debbins used to say, "The Creator has quit making land, but He keeps on making people," and Lakeland will be found out before long.

I have been to Bartow, the centre of the phosphate region. Thirty companies have organized within the county and millions of dollars invested in land and machinery. There is capital from Boston, New York, Baltimore, Richmond, Pittsburg, Charleston, Savannah, Augusta and Atlanta. But all is in gold that glitters. Of these sixteen are in actual operation. Of these sixteen only seven have made any money. There is phosphate enough, but everything depends upon management and location. I visited one plant six miles in the country that is being operated by a receiver. What a business this has got to be! The receiver there ought to be a book upon it just like the lawyers and doctors and other professions. It should be made a text book in the schools. I think I would name it "The Lawyers Harvest, the Creditors Grave and the Stockholders Funeral." But this phosphate business is yet in its infancy and improved methods of mining and washing will soon be invented. The Peruvian islands are exhausted, and new nature unlocks another storehouse in Florida that seems sufficient for centuries to come. "What is it?" I asked. "Is it animal, vegetable or mineral?" It is a mixture of all, they say, but chiefly mineral. I found some sharks teeth from one-fourth of an inch to four inches in length. Some of those antediluvian monsters must have been as large as young whales, but how in the world did they all congregate on this peninsula when the great convulsion came that upheaved it? Verily the world is full of mysteries, and we know nothing hardly. Fortunes have been made here by the few who are shrewd and bold, and who had good judgment and foresight. George W. Scott has sold part of his holdings for fabulous sums. He owned miles of phosphate lands on Peau river. Mr. Codrington, the genial, energetic yankee made a fortune by buying largely at $20 to $10 an acre and sold for ten times that amount. I was his guest. "fit ag'in you," said he, "but have come down from Michigan to live with you and I found a cordial welcome. If the railroads would reduce transportation to 1 cent a mile thousands of good, hardy people from the north would come down, first to see, and then to stay, and the result in a few years would be the perfect harmony between the sections."

What every town in the south needs is a leader—a man of nerve and enterprise. Our people will follow but they fear to lead. Mr. Codrington is a power in Bartow and will soon have water works and an electric plant and street cars and another railroad. He has been a great traveler and lived some years in Pennsylvania. He has been building railroads for the government. He designed and built a gas plant near the apex of the Andes mountains for the sole purpose of lighting the tunnel that was to be cut through the mountain.

Some of the inscriptions found on Chinese coins.

The inscriptions on Chinese coins, like those on their tapestries, porcelain and other artistic productions, are always quaint, curious, and characteristic. A gold coin issued by the Chinese government during the reign of Wu Tsung had upon its face the inscription "True virtue current money." A bronze piece issued during the seventeenth century by Hwang Leih Tsu bears the words, "Highest purity, current money." The coin issued by "Tsung from 1851 to 1852 bore the words, "Prevailing prosperity," the larger, also, "Large money," and on the reverse, "Value 100 times," meaning that their value was one hundred each. A bronze piece issued during the same period bears the words: "Always bright." Another piece of the same reign has upon its face: "Prevailing prosperity, heavy money." The brass cash of the present emperor of China bears the words, "Bright beginning, current money," and on the reverse, "Treasury weight, one mace." The name of the mint at which it was coined. The Korean coinage, which resembles the Chinese cash in many particulars in its inscriptions, bears the inscriptions, "Always peaceful, current money," and on the reverse, "All four," which means that the coin should be good in all four directions of the country. Another set of coins issued at the same mint in Seoul, Korea, is inscribed, "Great East," one of the names given to Korea, as the great country east of China. Another word of character upon coin indicates "gate," which probably means that the coin is to go out for circulation among the people. Still another coin bears the words: "Great gate value of one hundred." In Japan the coins bear various inscriptions, some after the manner of Chinese coins. Some of the older ones, which were coined two or three centuries ago, bear the words: "For Heavenly protection," and upon the reverse, "Current money."—Collector.

"I will use it and no other." Mrs. Nellie Bromer, Passaic, N. J., uses this emphatic language. "I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in my house for three years and would not be without it. It cured my cough which I had for months. I will always use it and no other."

Why Hood's? Because Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best, most reliable and accomplishes the greatest cures. HOOD'S CURES

ANOTHER POMPEII.

A Volcano of Flame Rolls Over the Great White City.

THE WORLD'S FAIR BLOTTED OUT.

A Magnificent But Terrifying Spectacle—An Awful Sacrifice of Wealth in the Destruction of Foreign Exhibits and Other Property.

CHICAGO, January 9.—The liberal arts building, the largest structure in the world, together with nearly all the main buildings constituting the world-famous "White City," were destroyed by fire last night.

The fire started in the Casino, just east of the agricultural building and south of the peristyle, and rapidly spread to the other buildings.

Directly past the scene of the great fire of the cold storage warehouse, hundreds of spectators hurried from the high over the art building, and the conflagration came into view. Whirlwinds of blazing embers were being carried from the end of the court farthest from the administration building.

The great golden statue of the republic could be seen lifting her liberty cap defiantly aloft through the clouds of smoke and flames. The fire had located less than an hour when a thunderous crash of falling timber and a tremendous shout from the crowd announced the collapse of the Peristyle. A moment later, another terrific yell from the crowd told that the liberal arts building had caught fire and the whole exposition was threatened.

A dramatic incident marked the destruction of the Peristyle. A group of firemen bearing a group of firemen fell with the columns, and one of the hero firemen went down to death while a number of others suffered injuries more or less severe.

The sky was vivid, brilliant at times, with falling sparks, showing the roofs of the art palace, woman's building, and the various state structures with fire. Every moment added to the thousands of people who had gathered for the terrifying spectacle and the danger to life and property, it seemed as if the greatest gala night of the World's Fair was on in all its glory.

Along the top of the Peristyle were scores of statues, and to the spectators on the east they appeared like gigantic human beings. The spectators at that time partly to guard their lives and prevent wholesale robbery of exhibits had been largely driven by the police westward over the bridges from the lake and lined up in a solid mass against the electricity building. Here they could see the flames and the falling of the Russian and British sections.

A grand sight was presented, but it was one to sadden the hearts of thousands. An immense amount of valuable property that had not been taken from the buildings was also lost. The total number of packages in the buildings awaiting shipment was 24,000—most of which were foreign exhibits. The loss is estimated at $1,500,000.

A BRUTAL MURDER.

A German and His Wife Killed and Their Home Ruined.

MARRETTA, O., January 14.—Henry Sauer, a respectable German and his wife were murdered last night in their home, near Pinchdown, four miles north, and their son is missing. Their barn was burned and the house had been gutted. The fire started in the kitchen and spread to the bedrooms. The firemen were unable to reach the house in time to extinguish the blaze. Mr. and Mrs. Sauer lay full length on the kitchen floor. Their clothing was burned from their bodies. The neighbors put out the blaze and saved the bodies and the house from destruction. The floor was covered with blood which ebbed from eight bullet holes in the left side of Mrs. Sauer's head and from a wound caused by a heavy blow in the back of Mr. Sauer's head. A visit to the fire at the barn revealed nothing except burnt carcasses of horses and the fire stock. Many and the boy was burned in the barn. The coroner soon arrived and Sauer's pocketbook, containing $236, was found. It is believed the entire family was murdered and that robbery was the object.

HOWARD'S JAIL LIFE.

He Sings the Popular Songs of the Day.

JACKSON, TENN., January 15.—Rev. G. F. B. Howard, of the famous "Gospel Light," is still at the county jail. He has the freedom of the corridors, and his wife spends the days with him. He has plenty of opportunity to converse with his witnesses who are confined in court awaiting the special term of the federal court in February. The government is getting its evidence ready by that time. Howard seems cheerful, and hums the popular airs of the day as he walks up and down the jail corridor. A great many visitors apply for admission but the sheriff only admits members of his family. It is said Howard will write a book on his life.

Make Good Farm Labor.

RALEIGH, N. C., January 15.—Superintendent Leazar, of the penitentiary, says that the products from the five state farms this season, were 1,100 large bushels of cotton, 50,000 bushels of corn, 12,000 bushels of peanuts and 3,000 bushels of wheat. Freshets caused heavy losses of some crops. Superintendent Leazar says that the trouble has been that the acreage of land in cultivation has not been large enough and so he is increasing it 50 per cent this year. One thousand acres are in wheat. He asserts that there is no better way of employing negro convicts than on a farm.

Preserve a Youthful Appearance.

As long as possible, it is indispensable that the hair should retain its natural color and fullness. There is no preparation so effective as Ayer's Hair Vigor. It prevents baldness, and keeps the scalp clean, cool and healthy.

BERGWIN'S IRON BATTERS.

cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Debility.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

BOLE HOLDS ON.

Mr. Cleveland Demanded That He Should Step Down.

HAWAII'S PRESIDENT WOULD NOT

After Hearing What Minister Willis Had to Say President Dole Stated Under Consideration.

VICTORIA, B. C., January 12.—The latest reliable information from Honolulu states that no advices have left there for the coast since the sailing of the United States cutter Corwin.

Application was made by the Associated Press and the special correspondent of the New York World for permission to forward dispatches by the Corwin. This was in each case refused and dispatches were only put aboard afterwards through the courtesy of those who shall forever be unnamed, even though the United States should endeavor to investigate the matter. The Corwin took the demand to Minister Willis upon the provisional government to step down and out. Minister Willis in making the demand of President Dole said:

"The President of the United States has very much regretted the delay in the consideration of the Hawaiian question, but it is unavoidable. So much of it as has occurred since my arrival has been due to certain conditions precedent, compliance with which was required before I was authorized to enter with you. The president also regrets, as most assuredly do I, that any secrecy should have surrounded the interchange of views between our two governments. I may say this, however, that the views thus far observed has been in the interest and for the safety of all your people.

"The president deemed it his duty to withdraw from the senate the treaty of annexation which had been signed by the secretary state and agents of your government and to dispatch a trustworthy representative to Hawaii to impartially investigate the causes of your revolution and to ascertain and report the true situation in these islands. This information was needed the better to enable the president to discharge a delicate and important duty."

It becomes my further duty to advise you, sir, the executive of the provisional government and your ministers, of the president's determination of the question which your action and that of the queen devolved upon him and that you are expected to promptly relinquish to constitutional authority.

In the name and by the authority of the United States of America, I submit to you the question: Are you willing to abide by the decision of the President?

President Dole replied: "The government will take the matter under consideration and answer you as soon as they are ready to do so."

Mr. L. A. Thurston leaves here tomorrow by the steamer Pekin for Washington. He will take with him a copy of the government's replies to the Hawaiian documents and a statement hour has been refused to the press.

It is learned that the reply of the provisional government was drafted by either Mr. Cleveland or by the monarch.

President Dole's answer concludes: "The provisional government is responsible only to those who constitute it and are now maintaining it in power. It is amenable to no foreign power on earth. It has always been faithful to its constituents, and by no act or intimation has ever offered to submit its rights to the United States or any other power. For these reasons this government must refuse to consider the proposition of Minister Willis, appeals to their patriotism and more so to their sense of duty and safety secured from the ex-queen."

Peloux's Renowned Resignation.

PARIS, January 12.—The Matin says: "The news published in Paris yesterday to the effect that President Peloux had resigned, is entirely unfounded. He is still in office and has just received a dispatch announcing the fact, which was received at the ministry of foreign affairs. The Brazilian minister here has declared that he did not believe the report to be true, and that he had just received a dispatch from the Brazilian government delegate, is quoted as saying there was nothing in the latest dispatches which he had received which would furnish ground for the belief that the report was true. The conservative papers here consider the report to be true, and express satisfaction with the president's alleged resignation."

An Ohio Trunking.

CINCINNATI, January 15.—Roscoe Parker, the colored boy who four weeks ago last Sunday night, brutally murdered the aged Mr. Rhine and his wife, was hanged by a mob of the best citizens of Winchester and adjacent points in Adams county, Ohio, at 1 o'clock this morning about four miles from Winchester. The murder was for money, and only $10 were obtained. Parker, the murderer, was only sixteen years old, and had worked for the old couple, and had known of Mr. Rhine receiving money for some stock.

Valiant Reconsiderer.

PARIS, January 14.—Vaillant has weakened and it is now announced that he has thought better of his decision not to make an appeal against his sentence to the court of cassation, and accordingly, he is understood to have signed the necessary document. But, it is added, he still refuses to petition President Carnot for a commutation of his sentence.

Cost Sale.

In order to get our business under one roof we have decided to

Close our Store

Next to Branch & Co.,

—and will offer this entire stock of—

CLOTHING & DRY GOODS

—AT—

Absolute Cost.

This is a rare opportunity, as this stock of goods is new and complete and bought low for cash. This is

NO FAKE,

But an absolute cost sale. If you have anything to buy in this line it will pay you to call early before the stock is picked over.

Your friends,

Young Brothers.

The special view from the seat of war in Kansas broke down yesterday at 4:11, while Gen. Leese was sending a proclamation. Contrary to expectation, Governor Lewelling had not been captured. Tom Cat Creek, whither he had gone for water, was talked dry by Gen. Leese early in the day, and a force of tramps marching to reinforce the Governor was overtaken in a straggling condition near a speak-easy in Shibboleth. It is supposed that he has entrenched himself in a deserted prairie-dog village not far from the Sappa. His intrenchments will be shelled early this morning, and his capture is only a question of hours.—Sun.

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

Prejudice and ignorance have given way to Simmons Liver Regulator. It has stood the test.

We understand that Governor Greenhalge of Massachusetts has given up his plan of calling a Congress of New England Governors to devise a uniform for those officers. Instead, he will challenge Governor O'Ferrall of Virginia to a contest in oratory, best two out of three, rules of the Lowell Young Demosthenes Elocution and Social Diversion Lyceum. The first meeting will be held in Richmond, the second in Boston, and the third in the Madison Square Garden. Betting is 3 to 2 on O'Ferrall, but this merely shows the equal of his antagonist.—Ex.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. For sale by all Druggists.

See Young's line of Knaby hats Ladies' hats, latest styles, at Young's.

Feed your cows on cotton seed hulls. Young Bros.

Boots at $1.50 for men at Young's.

ARP IN FLORIDA.

Where There Are Many Visitors and Good Fishing Places.

And Arp is Bewildered at the Magnitude of the One at Which He is Stopping.

I saw two fishermen unload a cargo of salted fish from their boat at Tampa. The barrels were all marked for Charleston. I interviewed these fishermen, and they told me they caught as many as 70,000 in a week down at Sarasota bay. Now I am done with fish stories. I left my folks fishing at Clear Water, but they are not so wild about it now, and will soon get tired. I saw a girl hang an enormous trout, and she held him and played him around until he got tired, and a boat was sent out to secure him. I guessed he weighed five or six pounds, and others guessed twelve and ten, but when he was put on the scales he came down to nine. An old fisherman remarked that it was a sin to weigh a fish, for they always fall short.

Tampa is lively. The hotels are filling up, trade is good, and money circulating just like it did before the panic. Most of this money comes from abroad and is quickly scattered around. Every other house is either a hotel or a boarding house. The strangers come from everywhere up north, and many from Georgia and Tennessee. I came down with a man and his wife who were from north Michigan, and had never been south. It entranced me to see their amazement, for he said he had just put up 180 tons of ice before he left home. They are delighted with the country and the people. He said every level was so kind and neighborly, and that he had no idea of finding such good people down south. I think that his wife was almost afraid to come, but she is in bad health, and she had just as well risk it in Florida as death at home, and so she came. She has improved much within a week. The Tampa Bay hotel, where the millionaires congregate, has not yet filled up, but will be the first time in her month. It is a magnificent house and so bewilders me that I feel solemn in its beautiful apartments and don't dare to talk in my usual tone of voice. Everybody else seems to feel so too for it is not like a hotel. While not walking on violet carpets that cost $50 a yard, or sitting on chairs that cost $50 apiece, and see paintings on the walls that cost from $100 to $5,000, and the whole building is a blaze of heavenly lights and delicious music charming the ear and delightful odors perfuming the air and the servants all in livery, a common man feels like the old woman at the circus when she first time in her life. When the grand procession of beautiful horses, with their riders in spangled garments, came marching in, she said: "John, John, it's more like the kingdom of heaven than anything I ever expected to see in this world."

Now, with all that, I was invited to lecture in the music hall of this grand structure and I did it. It was just large enough for my audience and I am pleased to say that I was able to conceal my embarrassment. Not that I was afraid of the people who sat before me, but somehow I never felt at ease in a house that is so much finer than mine own. It is art, not nature, that makes me afraid. My plant must be a wonderful man to plan such a grand system of railways and hotels and parks and steamship lines, and yet he makes no great noise in the world. For years and years he has been perfecting this system, and every branch of it moves along like clockwork. Thousands of men are employed by him and his enterprises have added many millions to the value of property in Florida. This beautiful city of Tampa is a monument to his genius. More than half a century ago Richard Henry Wilde wrote a little poem, beginning, "My life is like the summer rose," and the last verses were:

"My life is like the prints that feet have left on Tampa's desert strand, Soon as the rising tide shall beat, All traces vanish from the sand, Yet as I'm striving to succeed, On all vestige of the human race, On that lone shore, loud mourns the sea, But none, alas! shall mourn for me."

Mr. Wilde was an Irishman, who came over here after Emmet's untimely death, and settled in Augusta, and I suppose he had some reason for penning such sad, sweet verses. I wish that he could see Tampa now. I wish that Rev. Frank Goulding was alive to see it, for it was here that he located that terrible devil fish that carried the boat and his children ("The Young Marooners") far out to sea. There is no desert strand now; no lone shore; no devil fish.

Lakeland is a little gem of a town, and I have not found a better hotel in Florida than the Tremont. It is just fine enough and good enough for anybody. It overlooks one of the prettiest

Some of the Inscriptions Found on Chinese Coins.

The inscriptions on Chinese coins, like those on their tapestries, porcelain and other artistic productions, are always quaint, curious, and characteristic. A gold coin issued by the Chinese government during the reign of Wu Tsung had upon its face the inscription "True virtue current money." A bronze piece issued during the seventeenth century by Hwang Leih Tsu bears the words, "Highest purity, current money." The coin issued by "Tsung from 1851 to 1852 bore the words, "Prevailing prosperity," the larger, also, "Large money," and on the reverse, "Value 100 times," meaning that their value was one hundred each. A bronze piece issued during the same period bears the words: "Always bright." Another piece of the same reign has upon its face: "Prevailing prosperity, heavy money." The brass cash of the present emperor of China bears the words, "Bright beginning, current money," and on the reverse, "Treasury weight, one mace." The name of the mint at which it was coined. The Korean coinage, which resembles the Chinese cash in many particulars in its inscriptions, bears the inscriptions, "Always peaceful, current money," and on the reverse, "All four," which means that the coin should be good in all four directions of the country. Another set of coins issued at the same mint in Seoul, Korea, is inscribed, "Great East," one of the names given to Korea, as the great country east of China. Another word of character upon coin indicates "gate," which probably means that the coin is to go out for circulation among the people. Still another coin bears the words: "Great gate value of one hundred." In Japan the coins bear various inscriptions, some after the manner of Chinese coins. Some of the older ones, which were coined two or three centuries ago, bear the words: "For Heavenly protection," and upon the reverse, "Current money."—Collector.

How Howard's Jail Life.

He Sings the Popular Songs of the Day.

JACKSON, TENN., January 15.—Rev. G. F. B. Howard, of the famous "Gospel Light," is still at the county jail. He has the freedom of the corridors, and his wife spends the days with him. He has plenty of opportunity to converse with his witnesses who are confined in court awaiting the special term of the federal court in February. The government is getting its evidence ready by that time. Howard seems cheerful, and hums the popular airs of the day as he walks up and down the jail corridor. A great many visitors apply for admission but the sheriff only admits members of his family. It is said Howard will write a book on his life.

Make Good Farm Labor.

RALEIGH, N. C., January 15.—Superintendent Leazar, of the penitentiary, says that the products from the five state farms this season, were 1,100 large bushels of cotton, 50,000 bushels of corn, 12,000 bushels of peanuts and 3,000 bushels of wheat. Freshets caused heavy losses of some crops. Superintendent Leazar says that the trouble has been that the acreage of land in cultivation has not been large enough and so he is increasing it 50 per cent this year. One thousand acres are in wheat. He asserts that there is no better way of employing negro convicts than on a farm.

Preserve a Youthful Appearance.

As long as possible, it is indispensable that the hair should retain its natural color and fullness. There is no preparation so effective as Ayer's Hair Vigor. It prevents baldness, and keeps the scalp clean, cool and healthy.

BERGWIN'S IRON BATTERS.

cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Debility.

Why Hood's?

Because Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best, most reliable and accomplishes the greatest cures. HOOD'S CURES

How Howard's Jail Life.

He Sings the Popular Songs of the Day.

JACKSON, TENN., January 15.—Rev. G. F. B. Howard, of the famous "Gospel Light," is still at the county jail. He has the freedom of the corridors, and his wife spends the days with him. He has plenty of opportunity to converse with his witnesses who are confined in court awaiting the special term of the federal court in February. The government is getting its evidence ready by that time. Howard seems cheerful, and hums the popular airs of the day as he walks up and down the jail corridor. A great many visitors apply for admission but the sheriff only admits members of his family. It is said Howard will write a book on his life.

Make Good Farm Labor.

RALEIGH, N. C., January 15.—Superintendent Leazar, of the penitentiary, says that the products from the five state farms this season, were 1,100 large bushels of cotton, 50,000 bushels of corn, 12,000 bushels of peanuts and 3,000 bushels of wheat. Freshets caused heavy losses of some crops. Superintendent Leazar says that the trouble has been that the acreage of land in cultivation has not been large enough and so he is increasing it 50 per cent this year. One thousand acres are in wheat. He asserts that there is no better way of employing negro convicts than on a farm.

Preserve a Youthful Appearance.

As long as possible, it is indispensable that the hair should retain its natural color and fullness. There is no preparation so effective as Ayer's Hair Vigor. It prevents baldness, and keeps the scalp clean, cool and healthy.

BERGWIN'S IRON BATTERS.

cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Debility.

Why Hood's?

Because Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best, most reliable and accomplishes the greatest cures. HOOD'S CURES

How Howard's Jail Life.

He Sings the Popular Songs of the Day.

JACKSON, TENN., January 15.—Rev. G. F. B. Howard, of the famous "Gospel Light," is still at the county jail. He has the freedom of the corridors, and his wife spends the days with him. He has plenty of opportunity to converse with his witnesses who are confined in court awaiting the special term of the federal court in February. The government is getting its evidence ready by that time. Howard seems cheerful, and hums the popular airs of the day as he walks up and down the jail corridor. A great many visitors apply for admission but the sheriff only admits members of his family. It is said Howard will write a book on his life.

Make Good Farm Labor.

RALEIGH, N. C., January 15.—Superintendent Leazar, of the penitentiary, says that the products from the five state farms this season, were 1,100 large bushels of cotton, 50,000 bushels of corn, 12,000 bushels of peanuts and 3,000 bushels of wheat. Freshets caused heavy losses of some crops. Superintendent Leazar says that the trouble has been that the acreage of land in cultivation has not been large enough and so he is increasing it 50 per cent this year. One thousand acres are in wheat. He asserts that there is no better way of employing negro convicts than on a farm.

Preserve a Youthful Appearance.

As long as possible, it is indispensable that the hair should retain its natural color and fullness. There is no preparation so effective as Ayer's Hair Vigor. It prevents baldness, and keeps the scalp clean, cool and healthy.

BERGWIN'S IRON BATTERS.

cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Debility.

Why Hood's?

Because Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best, most reliable and accomplishes the greatest cures. HOOD'S CURES

How Howard's Jail Life.

He Sings the Popular Songs of the Day.

JACKSON, TENN., January 15.—Rev. G. F. B. Howard, of the famous "Gospel Light," is still at the county jail. He has the freedom of the corridors, and his wife spends the days with him. He has plenty of opportunity to converse with his witnesses who are confined in court awaiting the special term of the federal court in February. The government is getting its evidence ready by that time. Howard seems cheerful, and hums the popular airs of the day as he walks up and down the jail corridor. A great many visitors apply for admission but the sheriff only admits members of his family. It is said Howard will write a book on his life.

Make Good Farm Labor.

RALEIGH, N. C., January 15.—Superintendent Leazar, of the penitentiary, says that the products from the five state farms this season, were 1,100 large bushels of cotton, 50,000 bushels of corn, 12,000 bushels of peanuts and 3,000 bushels of wheat. Freshets caused heavy losses of some crops. Superintendent Leazar says that the trouble has been that the acreage of land in cultivation has not been large enough and so he is increasing it 50 per cent this year. One thousand acres are in wheat. He asserts that there is no better way of employing negro convicts than on a farm.

Preserve a Youthful Appearance.

As long as possible, it is indispensable that the hair should retain its natural color and fullness. There is no preparation so effective as Ayer's Hair Vigor. It prevents baldness, and keeps the scalp clean, cool and healthy.

BERGWIN'S IRON BATTERS.

cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Debility.

Why Hood's?

Because Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best, most reliable and accomplishes the greatest cures. HOOD'S CURES

How Howard's