Shop Economically.

You cannot shop economically at stores where one hunered per cent. profit are put on goods you need in every day life-it is impossible. To shop economically, you must single out the merchant who sells goods for Cash and Cash Only, and who by so doing can af-ford to undersell his "Credit System" competitor to the tune of from twenty-five to thirty-three and a third per cent. Walk hand in hand with the CASH merchant and you have started on the bright road to economy and wealth. The cash merchant has no book keeper's salary to pay, no collector to pull your door knob off, no printer's bill for stacks of printed bill heads. All these expenses, not to mention the losses by bad man, but the credit man must add on so much to his profits to cover these necessaries,
