Hargrave's Drug Store
 Will Be Open Next Sunday.

LOCAL.

Keep your eye on the ADVANCE office for bargains in printing and stationery.

Mr. John Gardner, who has been sitting here, returned to his home in Texas Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Vardell will preach in the Presbyterian church next Sunday, morning and night.

Read Gay's advertisement. He bargains that will please all, and they are going rapidly.

Mr. Charles J. Parker has an advertisement in this issue which will be of great interest to teachers.

We are now in our new quarters and we hope our friends will not forget where to find us.

Skating has been in order several days this week. The ice was in fine order for that sport.

When you need printing, you would do well to see what we can offer before you place your order.

Sunda was the coldest day thus far of the winter. The ground did not thaw all day in the sunshine.

Mrs. Oscar Swindell, who has been visiting her sisters here, returned to her home in Richmond Saturday.

All classes of printing from a stationery card to a fine poster, at the ADVANCE office opposite the court house.

Miss Florence Taylor, formerly employed at Messrs. Young Bros. has accepted a position with Mr. G. T. Stronach.

The congregations at the different churches last Sunday were somewhat small, owing perhaps to the extreme severity of the weather.

Elder Isaac Jones, of Pender county, preached in the Primitive Baptist church night. He left for his home Tuesday morning.

Prof. Wm. Holmes Davis Principal of the University School at Rocky Mount was in town in the interest of his school last Saturday.

Judge Coble will administer justice from our court in February. He is one of the fusion judges that were so badly fooled some time ago by being elected.

Dr. Albert Anderson left Tuesday night for Washington City, where he goes to take a special course in microscopy. He will be gone about three months.

Some new enterprise should be started in Wilson to give employment to our surplus labor. An investment in the manufacture of plug tobacco would pay here.

The town authorities have a gray mule in the pound. He was found roaming the streets on Saturday last. The owner can get him by coming forward, and paying the expense and fine.

Mrs. Edith Lautenschlager has opened a dress-making establishment over Young's old stand, opposite the Briggs hotel. Mrs. Lautenschlager cuts and fits entirely by tailoring rules, and is prepared to give an absolute fit.

Monday night Mr. Pritchard was nominated by the Republicans for the United States Senate. He received 38 votes and Halton received 21. The team is now made up. It will be Butler and Pritchard, as was at first thought six months ago.

Notice the new advertisement of M. T. Young in this issue. Mr. Young is the successor of that well-known firm, Young Bros., who have recently dissolved copartnership. The present management will sustain the excellent reputation for bargains which the old house acquired.

Dr. J. A. Mundy, pastor of the Baptist church here, has received a call to the church in Henderson. Dr. Mundy has done a great work since he has been in Wilson, and it would be a great loss to the Baptists if he were to accept the call thus extended. We hope that he will decide to stay here.

Gov. Carr, in his message, pays a beautiful tribute to the lamented Vance. He suggests that a suitable monument be erected to his memory. It would be a most appropriate thing for this legislature, which is political antagonistic to the late Senator's principles, to appropriate money for a monument that would suitably commemorate his noble deeds.

The New Grand Master.

Dr. F. M. Moye, of Wilson, the new Grand Master of Masons, is one of the brightest Masons in the country, and is devoted to the aims of that great fraternal organization—News Observer.

The Wilson Bargain Store.

A new store will be started up in Wilson about Feb. 1st under the style of the "Wilson Bargain Store." They are laying in a good stock and will keep up the name of the firm by selling what may be strictly termed bargains. Lookout for their ad.

The First Drill.

Capt. T. M. Washington had some of the boys out on parade on Monday evening. After a lengthy tramp a halt was made near the post office for inspection, the company was thence marched down Nash street to Goldsboro, along Goldsboro toward the armory, but the boys were tired and many fell by the way and took refreshments at the expense of the Captain.

Investigation Continued.

Last Friday the investigation of the election frauds in this township before Judge Lancaster was adjourned until Tuesday. Six witnesses had been examined up to that time, but no direct evidence of fraud had been developed. There are some dozen or more witnesses yet to be examined, and unless they have a more tangible tale to tell Dr. Person will not have a case.

A New Venture.

Mr. C. R. Tyson has fitted up a nice tent and will travel through this section of the State with a photographic outfit. Mr. Tyson recently bought the art gallery of E. M. Winstead and is now pushing the business.

Nagelore People.

There is an article in the January number of the North American Review that every body in Wilson should read. It is called "Concerning nagelore Women." But it is intended for men also. We don't mean to say that anybody, especially, needs the very wholesome lessons that are taught in it, for we have no nagelore people that we know of, but there is such a fine of suggestion to every one who is disposed to be somewhat fretful. It is a safe deterrent from peevishness and fretfulness to thoughtful persons.

Captain T. M. Washington.

At a meeting of the military company on Thursday night an election was held to fill the vacancy made by the promotion of Captain E. M. Nadal. There did not seem to be any opposition to the election of Mr. T. M. Washington, so he was declared elected by a rising vote. Capt. Washington has seen some service in the State Guard and is a very popular man among the boys. The Wilson company has been singularly fortunate in its election of captains, four out of the five having risen to prominent positions in the regiment. We look to see another rise shortly.

Plant Hog and Hounding.

Maybe the farmers are tired of being advised, especially about how to run their farms; for in all probability they know just as much about the business as some of those who essay to give advice. But the injunction about raising home supplies is a matter that cannot well be made too prominent. The day is about passed when the farmers can farm and buy everything he needs from elsewhere. We are glad to see that our tillers of the soil are realizing that the true object of farming is to raise what one needs for his own use. That realization is making a great difference in our land, and is destined to make our country rich.

Old Dominion Line Dinner.

The third annual dinner given by the Old Dominion Steamship Company to its officers and agents took place Friday evening, on board of the steamer "Old Dominion" in New York. The President of the company, Captain H. A. Bourne, presided, and was supported by Mr. W. L. Gaillardet, Vice-President; Mr. C. P. Fisher and Mr. Wm. Rowland, Directors. At the conclusion of the dinner, the President reviewed the work of the Company in general during the past year, and the Vice-President spoke of matters relating to the Traffic Department. Captain George W. Couch, of the steamer "Old Dominion," gave his personal reminiscences of the coastwise trade; Mr. George V. Sloat, Superintendent-Engineer, referred to matters pertaining to the Engineer's Department, and many others of the officials spoke during the evening.

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient actions; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

The Graded Schools.

Elsewhere in this issue appears a report from Mr. Geo. W. Connor, the Superintendent of the Graded School. It shows that the average cost of this school is $1.08 a month for each student. That includes everything that has entered into the cost, fuel, furniture, teachers' salaries, servant's hire and all incidental expenses.

We are struck with the report, because it shows such economy. It is proof that the citizens of Wilson are getting tuition for their children at figures that are most economical. Nothing can be more pointed than the fact that it is the cheapest school a community can have.

It is gratifying to learn that the community is taking increased interest in the school, and that the spirit of enthusiasm has taken hold of its friends with increased zeal. There is one thing that is needed to increase the capacity of the school. There should be more money appropriated. The taxes should be slightly increased in order to put the finances of the school in better condition.

That would enable the trustees to run the school without having to resort to the necessity of borrowing money as they have had to do some times.

Other towns and cities have the rate of taxation nearly double that of Wilson and they see that it pays. If Wilson would try it, we would see that it pays also.

Superintendent's Report.

To the Board of Trustees—I beg leave to submit the following report of the Wilson Public Schools for the four months beginning September 3rd and ending December 21st 1894.

The enrollment at both schools has steadily increased, and now we have almost as many pupils as we can accommodate. However, the attendance has not been marked by that regularity and punctuality which is essential to the progress of pupils and the successful operation of the schools. I think that this is owing largely to a lack of appreciation on the part of parents of the absolute importance of regular and punctual attendance. Children should understand that going to school is their business and is to be neglected only when absolutely necessary. Children who are allowed to neglect their business as pupils for trivial reasons are being trained to neglect the business of later life, for habits formed in childhood are not easily outgrown.

WHITE SCHOOL.

The total enrollment at the white school has been 350. Of this number 56 have left, 14 having moved from town, 10 going to work, 8 attending other schools, 14 having left for other causes, mainly sickness. The number enrolled at date of report is 294.

The general condition of the school is very satisfactory. No effort is being spared on the part of the teachers to make the schools worthy of the patronage and support of the people of Wilson. Mr. W. C. Allen Principal of this school has been very successful in his work and is entitled to a large measure of whatever success has been attained. The teachers of the school have a keen appreciation of their responsibilities and are working faithfully to discharge them.

COLORED SCHOOL.

The total enrollment at the colored school has been 206. The number present Jan. 14th, 1895 was 163.

The average daily attendance during the four months was 120. It is difficult to get accurate information in regard to this school, owing to the irregular attendance which seems unavoidable.

The school has five teachers who are doing their duty to the community and to the children under their charge. There is an increase in interest on the part of the colored people of our community and the school, under the wise and faithful management of Principal Braswell R. Winstead is doing a good work.

The enrollment for both schools is 554, and the total cost is $2,210.74, for four months. The average cost a month for each pupil has been about $1.08.

Both schools will always be glad to receive visitors who are interested in the cause of education and who desire to know more about our schools and their working.

Very Respectfully,
 GEO. W. CONNOR, Supt.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

At the Opera House to-night, Frank E. Griswold's company will present the thrilling spectacular drama, Uncle Tom's Cabin, which has been successfully produced in this country for the past twenty years. In fact Uncle Tom's Cabin never loses its interest. This company travels in its own Pullman cars, where the troupe have all the accommodations of a modern hotel. Our people should turn out en masse and give them hearty reception.

The Cleveland, Ohio Press, says of them:

Uncle Tom's Cabin never grows old. There runs through it a vein of pathos peculiarly touching and sweet. It speaks the universal language of the heart. It reflects like a prism the innermost phases of human emotion. It is more than a play—it is a moral classic. It argues for two of the greatest themes that can engage the mind—human liberty and the immortality of the soul. It is so pure that its touch alone is chastening: Like the kiss of a child it conquers alone by the very innocence of its breath. In the character of Eva it is unique. Who does not cherish in memory some sweet angelic child who seemed to touch this earth only as a transient visitor, who passed away with the dew of childhood's morning—too good, too pure for us. "Was there ever a child like Eva? Yes, but her name is written on a grave-stone." Mr. Griswold's company certainly merits all the encomiums received by the Eastern Press. Their performance was a revelation.
