Special telegrams from many of the more im portant points of distribution throughout the country make it plain that the uncertainty as to the outcome of the financial situation based on the rapid withdrawals of gold from the treasury, has had a depressing effect on general trade. Mercantile collections at the best are characterized as fairly satisfactory but in most instances are slower than usual at this season. This is emphasized by the fact that Baltimore jobbers are waiting results of sending out bills for last fall's business before determining as to credits to be granted.

HAD A DEPRESSING EFFECT.

In textiles there is little change or prospect of early improvement. General lines of fancy printed fabries are going from jobbers' hands fairly well, and print cloths are a shade bette than a week ago. Every eastern city reporting specifies a moderate volume of business, of that general trade is quiet with a hand to mouth demand.
