Goebei Gave Himself Up at Once. COVINGTON, Ky., April 13 .- Yesterday afternoon Senator W. P. Goebel shot and instantly killed John L. Sanford. cashier of the Farmers and Traders bank of this city. The two men had been political and business enemies for years.

Both men are prominent citizens of Goxbol in a lawy r and at e senator from Kenton county. He is one of the best known politicians in the state.

Accounts of the details of the tragely differ. One is to the effect that at half past one o'clock Goebel was coming out of the First National bank when he met Sanford, who drew a revolver and fired, the bullet striking Goebel in the shoulder. The latter pulled his pistol and shot three times in succession, all three taking effect and causing almost instant death. Goebel then gave him-
