The force of the explosion sent about half a ton of boiler flying through the building. A piece lodged in Shirley's hotel. So great was the shock that all the windows not destroyed by the heat were blown into the streets. There was a thrilling scene while the convent and parochical school attached to St. Rose's church were in flames. A few moments before the roof fell in a boy was seen at one of the upper windows. A cry of horror went up from the crowd and the firemen velled to the boy to jump. A blanket was held out, but just then the flames and smoke enveloped the building and the next moment the roof fell in with a crash. Everybody thought the blanket held by the firemen and escaped uninjured.

of Another Tragedy. DALTON, Ga., July 1 .- Saturday was s day of excitement in Dalton. First came the news of the murder of Mrs. Huston. Then a Southern passenger train collided with a freight train on the Western and Atlantic, Cars were badly smashed, but no one was killed. Yesterday afternoon a terrific electric storm raged here. When that was over a boy named Stewart, a nephew of J. J. McFarland, was killed. He was with a party about to start fishing. The party intended to go in a wagon. A rifle was lying on the bottom of the wagon. Some one moved the rifle, it was discharged and the bullet struck the boy in the breast. He died soon af-
