EX-CONSUL WALLER HOPEFUL.

He Believes Our Government Will Right the Wreng Done Him.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 14.—Charles T. Maxwell, a colored medical student in this city, has received a letter from ex-Consul John L. Waller. The letter is dated "Maison Centrale, du Clairvaux, France, Sept. 8." After thanking Mr. Maxwell for expressions of sympathy contained in a letter he had written to the imprisoned man, Mr. Waller says:

"It gives me great pleasure to know that I have the sympathy and support of the American people, who are using every honorable means and endeavor to secure me my liberty. I am a victim of circumstances, and whether I shall finally receive justice at the hands of the French people or perish in a foreign prison by virtue of a hasty conviction rendered by a court martial in the heat of excitement under these circumstances rests with God and the American people, in whose action and righteous judgment I have the most implicit confidence.

"That it is the desire or intention of the French as a government to do me an injustice I do not for a moment believe. I am also consoled in the knowledge of the fact that the American people, true now as always to their long established creed and numerous precedents touching the protection of American citizens abroad, will not permit an injustice to be inflicted upon one of their citizens by a foreign nation, no matter how humble be that cit-

WILD SPANISH THREATS.

They Will "Recapture Florida and De-

"After we put down the Cuban insurrection we will invade Florida with 100,000 men, reconquer it and oblige the Americans to pay us $500,000,000 for allowing filibustering expeditions to be fitted out against a peaceful and friendly nation like Spain."

In case of rioting in this city, which is not considered far off, the Americans would be first attacked. The bull fighting people are fearful in their frenzy. Silence is preserved as regards the latest fighting in Las Vilas. The people of the interior are afraid to write truthful accounts of the war, as the mails are not respected by the government. Persons to whom such correspondence is addressed are promptly imprisoned and all steps are taken to trace the writers.

Baldin, Youngsville, Pa., skull fractured; Miss Emma Laughlin, Pittsburg, seels wound, and both lage. The names of others injured are not known, as they left the scene without being recognized. The accident happened to car No. 56 on the long bill coming into the west end on its way to Pittsburg. Just as the car started down the heavy grade the brake broke, and it was soon beyond the control of the motorman. The speed became terrific, and when a sharp curve near the foot of the hill was reached the car made a wonderful leep, landing trucks uppermost in McCarthy's run, six or eight feet below the track grade.

The accident occurred at a lonely spot, and it was quite a while before assistance reached the sufferers, who were wedged tightly in the wreck, which was most com-

When the conductor saw that the car was beyond control he laid down on the floor and advised the others to follow his example. The killed were found wedged under the roof of the car, which had been smashed in upon them. The escape of any of those on the car was miraculous.

DROWNED IN PATAPSCO RIVER. Four of a Party of Six Meet a Watery Grave.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 14.-Four men were drowned yesterday afternoon by the capsizing of a pleasure boat in the middle branch of the Patapsco river. They were: Harry Stiner, ferryman; Fred Valkman, bartender; Walliam A. Reynolds, baker, and James Huston, occupation unknown.

All the men were residents of this city, and, together with two companions, attempted to cross the river from Ferry Bar to Meter's Pavillion, in Anne Arundel county. A strong east wind made the water very rough, and when about half way across the boat began to fill. The men became frightened, and in a moment the frail craft went over, leaving the pleasure seekers struggling in the water. A number of rowboats went to the rescue, but before they reached the capsized boat tne men named had gone down for the last time. Their companions were rescued with difficulty, and taken to their homes. None of the bodies have been recovered.

Opponents of a Third Term.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—The Post prints replies received from over a hundred members of congress to the inquiry as to whether they would favor or oppose a resolution should one be offered in the next house stating that in the opinion of ously hurt. The injured are: George W. the house a presidential third term is proper. Such a resolution was presented by Representative William H. Springer, of Illinois, upon Dec. 15, 1875, and adopted. Seventeen congressmen announce for various reasons that they would vote against a resolution similar to the one presented by Mr. Springer. There is a very decided sentiment in favor of a term of six years, with the president ineligible to re-election. Quite a number of concressmen would limit a president to a single term of four years.

THREE KILLED AND MANY INJURED | SOME MISLEADING STATEMENTS

Corrected by the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, Whose Editor Was Close to General Harrison During the Latter's Administration.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 14.—The Commercial Gazette, a strong McKinley paper, edited by Perry S. Heath, who was close to Mr. Harrison during his administration, says in today's issue:

A great deal has recently appeared respecting the attitude of President Harrison toward the McKinley tariff at the time of its adoption. It is contended that in the capacity of president General Harrison opposed the adoption of schedules as high as those in the McKinley bill, and that he entered a protest against them to those who had the measure in charge.

One prominent Republican newspaper has stated recently that the McKinley tariff defeated Harrison's re-election and that this fact is the cause of "Harrison's feel-this fact is the cause of "Harrison's feeling toward McKinley." Another influential Republican newspaper in the west announced that during the consideration of the McKinley bill President Harrison summoned its author and Speaker Reed, and possibly other party leaders, at warned them against the adoption of such high figures.

The Commercial Gazette is in a position to say that all such statements are untrue and misleading. Ex-President Harrison deserves neither censure nor praise on account of the McKinley tariff law. He took no part in drafting or the consideration of the measure. No feature of the law, so far as those who compiled it are aware, represented his particular views or met with his specific disapproval. Repeatedly President Harrison, when asked by those drafting the bill, what he thought of it, stated that the details should be left to those in charge of the measure; that they were responsible to the people, and were most familiar with the subjects in hand. He offered no advice.

Wuel he bill went to the White House for signature the president did not, so far as is known, show any displeasure or offer criticism. Nor did he subsequently express displeasure with the law. If the law was ever held responsible for the defeat of 1892, President Harrison should stand blame-

Mesely had just seized some liquor coming in on a late train. He was accompanied by a trial justice's constable and had a warrant. While storing the whiskey in the depot a negro seized a jug and ran. Mosely fired two shots at him, and just then was shot dead from behind. Four negroes have been arrested, and are guarded in the guardhouse. It is believed that there was a conspiracy to assassinate the constable, but so far there is no substantial evidence against any one.

GENERAL MAHONE DEAD.

The Distinguished Virginian's Redy Taken to His Old Home at Petersburg. WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—General Mahone died yesterday afternoon, aged 69. The end came peacefully and almost imperceptibly. The dying man had lain unconscious ever since last Sunday morning. taking no nourishment and showing no sign of life beyond faint respiration. There will be no public funeral at Washington, as, in accordance with the wishes of the widow, the remains were borne quietly to the general's old home at Petersburg, Va., where the service and interment will occur. The body left the city at 4 o'clock this morning, arriving at Petersburg at 10:30. The active pallbearers will be members of General Mahone's old command, famous as "Mahone's brigade," the one which held the "Crater." The honorary pallbearers will be selected from officers of the same brigade.

General Mahone's favorite sobriquet was "Hero of the Crarer," won by his wonderful courage in the affact on Pereusburg, whom the federal focus aprung a mine beneath the Confederate defense. He caused one of the most bitter controversies and stubborn deadlocks ever known in the history of that body, and at last acted with the Republicans and gave them the organization of the senate. His course brought down upon his head the wrath of the Democrats, but the Republicans received him with open arms, and the federal patronage in Virginia was turned over to him. Since that time he has been the Republican leader in Virginia. He served in the senate until 1387, when he was defeated. Although he has since resided almost constantly in this city he retained the Republican leadership in Virginia, and in 1890 was a candidate for gov-
